EXPLANATORY PREFACE

This volume has been compiled and published in accordance with K.S.A. 77-430a and other applicable laws.

ARRANGEMENT OF RULES AND REGULATIONS

Administrative rules and regulations of the various state agencies are arranged in accordance with a three-part system of numbers divided by hyphens. The first number indicates the agency; the second number indicates the article (a group of regulations of such agency upon the same subject); the last number indicates the specific section or regulation within the article. For example, "1-4-11" refers to agency No. 1, article No. 4 and section No. 11.

The law requires that agencies cite the statutory authority for the regulation and the section(s) of the statutes which the regulation implements. This is published at the end of the text of the regulation. In addition, the Secretary of State includes a history of the regulation which indicates the original effective date of the regulation and each subsequent amendment.

SALES

COMMENTARY

This volume has been compiled and published in accordance with K.S.A. 77-430a and other applicable laws.

The 2022 Volumes contain rules and regulations filed before January 1, 2022. The volumes replace the 2009 Volumes and 2021 Supplement. Regulations filed on and after January 1, 2022, may be located by checking the Kansas Register, Kansas' official state newspaper. An index appears at the back of each Kansas Register and lists the volume and page number of the Register issue that contains the most recent version of the regulations filed after December 31, 2021.

To find the most recent version of a regulation:

First, check the table of contents in the most current issue of the Kansas Register

Then, check the Index to Regulations in the most current Kansas Register

Next, check the current K.A.R. Supplement

Finally, check the current K.A.R. Volume

If the regulation is found at any of these steps, stop. Consider that version the most recent. The most current regulations, proposed regulations open for public comment, and published regulations with a future effective date may also be found in the online K.A.R. at https://sos.ks.gov/publications/pubs\_kar.aspx.

To determine the authorizing and implementing statute(s), the effective date, or to see when a regulation was amended or revoked, check the history found at the end of each regulation. The authorizing and implementing statute(s) are listed first followed by any subsequent action. For example, in "amended, T-7-12-11-90, Dec. 31, 1990" the "T" means temporary, the "7" is the number assigned to the agency in the K.A.R. Volumes, and 12-11-90 is the date that the regulation was filed. Following the last comma is the effective date. Therefore, the amendment was filed as a temporary regulation on December 11, 1990, and the amendment became effective on December 31, 1990. A temporary regulation becomes effective upon approval by the State Rules and Regulations Board and filing in the Secretary of State's Office or at a later date when specified in the body of the regulation. A temporary regulation lasts 120 days unless it is amended or revoked within 120 days. If the "T number" is not included in an action on a regulation, the regulation was filed as a permanent regulation. A permanent regulation is effective 15 days following publication in the Kansas Register or at a later date specified in the body of the regulation. Prior to July 1, 1995, a permanent regulation became effective 45 days following publication in the Kansas Register or at a later date specified in the body of the regulation. The regulation remains in effect until amended or revoked.

Any questions regarding the publication or use of the K.A.R. Volumes or questions regarding the regulation filing procedure may be directed to the Kansas Administrative Regulations Editor at 785-296-0082. For purchasing inquiries call 785-296-4557. Questions concerning the subject matter of a regulation should be directed to the agency administering the regulation.

71-1-18. Sterilization and infection control. (a) As used in this regulation, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Dental health care worker" means dentist, dental hygienist, dental assistant, or other employee of the dentist, or any other person who performs or participates in an invasive or exposure-prone procedure or functions ancillary to invasive procedures.

(2) "Exposure-prone procedure" means a procedure in which there is an increased risk of percutaneous injury to the dental health care worker by virtue of digital palpation of a needle tip or other sharp instrument in a body cavity or simultaneous presence of the dental health care worker's fingers and a needle or other sharp instruments in a poorly visualized or highly confined anatomic site, or any other circumstance in which there is a significant risk of contact between the blood or body fluids of the dental health care worker and the blood or body fluids of the patient.

(3) "HBsAg seropositive" means that the presence of the hepatitis B antigen has been confirmed by a test meeting the criteria of federal centers for disease control.

(4) "HBV" means the hepatitis B virus.

(5) "HIV" means the human immunodeficiency virus.

(6) "HIV seropositive" means that the presence of HIV antibodies has been confirmed by a test meeting the criteria of the federal centers for disease control.

(7) "Invasive procedure" means any surgical or other diagnostic or therapeutic procedure involving manual or instrumental contact with or entry into any blood, body fluids, cavity, internal organ, subcutaneous tissue, mucous membrane, or percutaneous wound of the human body.

(b) Each dental health care worker who performs or participates in an invasive or exposure-prone procedure shall observe and adhere to infection control practices and universal blood and body fluid precautions. For the purpose of infection control, all dental staff members and all patients shall be considered potential carriers of communicable diseases. Infection control procedures shall be required to prevent disease transmission from patient to doctor and staff, doctor and staff to patient, and patient to patient. Each dentist shall be required to comply with the applicable standard of care in effect at the time of treatment. Precautions shall include the following minimum standards.

(1) Each dental health care worker shall routinely use protective barriers and surface decontamination.

(A) Gloves shall be used by the dentist and direct care staff during any treatment involving procedures or contact with items potentially contaminated with the patient's bodily fluids or other dental debris. Fresh gloves shall be used for each patient. Gloves that have been used for dental treatment shall not be reused for any other purpose.

(B) Surgical masks and protective eyewear or chin-length plastic face shields shall be worn to protect the face, the oral mucosa, and the nasal mucosa when splashing or splattering of blood or other body fluids is likely.

(C) Reusable or disposable gowns, laboratory coats, or uniforms shall be worn when clothing is likely to be soiled with blood or other body fluids. If reusable gowns are worn, they may be washed, using a normal laundry cycle. Gowns shall be changed at least daily or when visibly soiled with blood.

(D) Surface decontamination and disinfection or protective barriers shall be used in areas of the dental operatory that may be contaminated by blood or saliva during treatment and are not removable to be sterilized. Contaminated surface coverings shall be removed, discarded, and then replaced with clean material between patients. Surfaces to be covered or decontaminated and disinfected shall include the following:

- (i) The delivery unit;
- (ii) chair controls;
- (iii) light handles;
- (iv) the high-volume evacuator handle;
- (v) x-ray heads and controls;
- (vi) headrests; and
- (vii) instrument trays.

(E) Dental health care workers shall wash their hands after glove removal if the hands have been contaminated by bodily fluids or other dental debris.

(F) Dental health care workers who have exudative lesions or weeping dermatitis shall refrain from all direct patient care and from handling patient care devices used in exposure-prone invasive procedures, unless covered by an effective barrier.

(2) Dental health care workers shall take appropriate precautions to prevent injuries caused by needles, scalpels, and other sharp instruments during and after procedures. If during a single visit a patient needs multiple injections over time from a single syringe, the needle shall be recapped or placed in a sterile field between each use to avoid the possibility of needlestick injury or needle contamination. Used sharp items shall be placed in puncture-resistant containers for disposal.

(3) Any heat-stable instrument or device that enters tissue or contacts the mucous membranes shall be sterilized. Dental health care workers shall comply with the following sterilization requirements:

(A) Before sterilization, all instruments shall be decontaminated to remove all visible surface contamination, including blood, saliva, tooth and dental restorative material cuttings and debris, soft tissue debris, and bacterial plaque. Decontamination of instruments may be accomplished by a thorough scrubbing with soap and water or detergent, or by using a mechanical device, including an ultrasonic cleaner. Persons involved in cleaning instruments shall take reasonable precautions to prevent injuries.

(B) Heat-stable dental instruments shall be routinely sterilized between patient use by one of the following methods:

- (i) Steam under pressure autoclaves;
- (ii) heat plus pressurized chemical (unsaturated formaldehyde or alcohol);
- (iii) vapor chemoclave;
- (iv) prolonged dry heat exposure;
- (v) dry heat convection sterilizers;
- (vi) ethylene oxide sterilizers; or
- (vii) other equivalent methods.

(C) Biological spore testing devices shall be used on each sterilization unit after each six days of use, but not less often than each month, to verify that all pathogens have been killed. A log of spore testing shall be kept for three years for each sterilization unit.

(D) Items to be sterilized shall include the following:

- (i) Low-speed handpiece contra-angles and prophyl-angles;
- (ii) high-speed handpieces;
- (iii) hand instruments;
- (iv) burs;

- (v) endodontic instruments;
- (vi) air-water syringe tips;
- (vii) high-volume evacuator tips;
- (viii) surgical instruments; and
- (ix) sonic or ultrasonic periodontal scalers.

(E) When sterilizing the heat-stable instruments or devices listed in paragraphs (b)(3)(D)(i) through (ix), each instrument or device shall be placed in a closed bag or container for sterilization and thereafter maintained in that bag or container until immediately before use.

(F) Following the sterilization of heat-stable instruments or devices not listed in paragraphs (b)(3)(D)(i) through (ix), each instrument or device shall be maintained in covered storage until immediately before use.

(G) Nondisposable items used in noninvasive procedures that cannot be heat sterilized shall be decontaminated and disinfected with a chemical sterilant that has been registered by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and is tuberculocidal.

(H) Materials, impressions, and intra-oral appliances shall be decontaminated and disinfected before being sent to and upon return from a commercial dental laboratory.

(I) A dental health care worker who is HBeAg seropositive or HIV seropositive, or who otherwise knows or should know that the worker carries and is capable of transmitting HBV or HIV, shall not thereafter perform or participate directly in an exposure-prone procedure unless the worker has sought counsel from an expert review panel. The expert review panel shall be composed of these individuals:

- (i) The dental health care worker's personal physician;
- (ii) an infectious disease specialist with expertise in HIV and HBV transmission;
- (iii) a dentist licensed in the state of Kansas with expertise in procedures performed by the health care worker; and
- (iv) a state of Kansas or local public health official.

(c) Reports and information furnished to the Kansas dental board relative to the HBeAg or HIV status of a dental health care worker shall not be deemed to constitute a public record but shall be deemed and maintained by the board as confidential and privileged as a medical record. These reports and this information shall not be subject to disclosure by means of subpoena in any judicial, administrative, or investigative proceeding, if the dental health care worker adheres to the regulations of the board and is willing to participate in counseling and be reviewed and monitored by the board or its designated agent.

(d) When the board learns that a dental health care worker is HBeAg or HIV seropositive, contact shall be made with that dental health care worker to review the regulations of the board and develop a process of monitoring that individual's practice.

(e) The monitoring of a dental health care worker's HIV or HBV status and discipline of the dental health care worker shall be reported to the Kansas department of health and environment, but shall remain confidential.

(f) During business hours, the office of a licensed dentist may be inspected by the Kansas dental board or its duly authorized agents and employees in order to evaluate compliance with this regulation. 74-1-2. Determining and reporting examination grades. (a) Each testing candidate shall be required to pass all test sections of the examination in order to qualify for a certificate.

(b) Each testing candidate shall be required to attain at least a minimum grade established through a psychometrically acceptable, standard-setting procedure approved by the board.

(c) Upon the board's receipt of each candidate's advisory grades from the examination provider, the grades shall be reviewed and may be adopted by the board. The examination grades shall be reported to the testing candidate. Credit for passing a test section shall be valid from the date of the examination regardless of the date on which the testing candidate receives actual notice of the passing grade.

(b) A testing candidate may take the test sections individually and in any order. Credit for passing any test section shall be valid for 18 months from the date of testing regardless of the number of sections taken or the scores on any failed sections.

(c) Each testing candidate shall pass all four test sections within a rolling 18-month period that begins on the date the first test section passed is taken. If all four test sections are not passed within this 18-month period, credit for any test section passed outside the 18-month period shall expire.

(d) A testing candidate shall not retake a failed test section until the candidate has received the score for the most recent attempt of that test section.

(e) Each testing candidate shall retain credit for any test section passed in another state if the credit would have been given if the testing candidate had taken the examination in Kansas.

(f) Despite the provisions of subsections (a), (b), and (c), the period of time in which to pass all test sections of the examination may be extended by the board upon a showing that the credit was lost by reason of circumstances beyond the testing candidate's control. (b) The following actions or attempted actions by a testing candidate may be considered cheating:

Article 1.—MEMBERSHIP

80-1-1. Year of service; commencement.

For the purpose of determining membership in the system under K.S.A. 74-4911 of the act, and amendments thereto, the year of service required for coverage under the retirement system shall commence with the first day the employee commences work with the employer in a covered position as defined by K.S.A. 74-4902(13), and amendments thereto. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4909, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §27; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4911, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §15; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-1-2. Year of service before entry date; service defined. For the purpose of determining membership in the system under K.S.A. 74-4911 (1) of the act, and amendments thereto, for an employee in employment on the employer's entry date, these definitions shall apply. (a) The word "service" as used in the "year of service" requirement shall mean all service for that employer before the employer's entry date; this service need not be continuous.

(b) After the entry date of the employer, "service" for this employee shall mean service in a covered position as defined by K.S.A. 74-4902(13), and amendments thereto, for that employer; this service shall be continuous.

However, when this employee becomes a member, the provisions of the act relating to the crediting of prior service and participating service shall apply. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4909, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §27; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4911, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, § 15; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-1-3. Year of service after entry date; service defined. For the purpose of determining membership in the system under K.S.A. 74-4911 (2) of the act, and amendments thereto, when a person becomes an employee after the employer's entry date, the "year of service" required shall be in a position that is neither temporary nor seasonal and that requires at least 1,000 hours of work per year; this service shall be continuous. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4909, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §27; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4911, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §15; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-1-4. (Authorized by K.S.A. 74-4909; effective Jan. 1, 1966; revoked Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-1-5. Military service; year of service.

(a) For the purpose of determining membership in the system under K.S.A. 74-4911 (4) of the act, and amendments thereto, employees in military service on the employer's entry date shall not become members of the retirement system until they return to the employment of a participating employer. In the case of any employee whose combined public employment and military service does not equal one year at the time of the employee's return to employment, the date of membership shall be the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following the completion of one combined (public employment and military service) year of service.

(b) Employees who enter the military service from their employment after the employer's entry date, who are eligible for crediting of military service pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4913(1)(b), and amendments thereto, and who have not completed one year of service at the time of their entry into the military service shall not become members of the retirement system until they return to the employment of a participating employer. In the case of an employee whose combined public employment and military service does not equal one year at the time of the employee's return to employment, the date of membership shall be the first day of the payroll period coinciding with or following the completion of one combined (public employment and military service) year of service.

(c) In each of the above instances, the member shall be granted service credit for the period of military service. The partial year of service actually worked before or after military service may be purchased pursuant to K.S.A. 74-4919a, and amendments thereto. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4909, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §27; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4911, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §15, 74-4913, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §16; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-1-6. Active military duty; terminal leave. For the purpose of determining membership in the system under K.S.A. 74-4911 of the act, and amendments thereto, in the cases involving military service leaves, return to public employment shall be deemed to be immediate if it occurs within the provisions of K.S.A. 74-4902

(22), and amendments thereto, after the termination of active military duty. "Active military duty," as used in this regulation, shall include terminal leave. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4909, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §27; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4911, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §15; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Jan. 1, 1969; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

(Authorized by K.S.A. 74-4909; effective Jan. 1, 1966.)

80-1-8. Year of service; no compensation; effect of. For the purpose of determining membership in the system, a member will not be granted service credits for periods of holding public office, employment or position for which no "compensation," as defined in the act, was payable under statute, ordinance or regulation existing at the time he held such office, position, or employment. (Authorized by K.S.A. 74-4909; effective Jan. 1, 1966.)

(Authorized by K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4909, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §27; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4910, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §14 and 74-4911, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §15; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-1-10. Eligible employers. (a) For the purpose of determining whether or not an entity is an "eligible employer" under K.S.A. 74-4902(13) and K.S.A. 74-4910 of the act, and amendments thereto, the entity shall qualify under the standards controlling the system's governmental-plan status as provided in 26 U.S.C. §414(d) of the federal internal revenue code, which is defined in K.S.A. 74-4902(35), and amendments thereto, requiring that only governmental units, or agencies or instrumentalities of governmental units, shall be eligible employers. The following factors shall be considered when determining whether an employer constitutes an instrumentality of a governmental unit:

(1) The existence of any specific legislation authorizing the employer;

(2) the source of funds for the employer;

(3) the manner in which the trustees or operating board members of the employer are selected;

(4) the governmental unit's consideration of the employees to be employees of the governmental unit; and

(5) the degree of control that the state or local government has over the employer.

(b) Any employer that is a current or prospective participant in the retirement system may be required by the retirement system to obtain a ruling from the internal revenue service as to the employer's status as a governmental instrumentality or as to the impact of the employer's participation in the retirement system. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1998 Supp. 74-4909; implementing K.S.A. 1998 Supp. 74-4910; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended, E-74-5, Nov. 7, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-1-11. Continuous employment construed; reorganization. The consolidation, reorganization, combination, or separation of a participating employer from one unit into two or more units, or from two or more units into a smaller number of units, shall not result in an interruption of an employee's continuous employment in a covered position for the same employer, for purposes of determining credited service under K.S.A. 74-4913, and amendments thereto, when the employee's position is or was continuously under the control of one of the units so consolidated, reorganized, combined, or separated. ## Article 2.—MULTIPLE ENROLLMENT

80-2-1. Multiple employment; definition and requirements. Except for members of the legislature covered by K.S.A. 74-4994(5), and amendments thereto, in any case in which an individual holds more than one position, office, or employment with different participating employers that is covered by the retirement system, the following provisions shall apply to the individual's membership. (a) "Dual employee" means any employee who holds covered positions with two or more participating employers and who meets the eligibility requirements for membership at each position. For each dual employee, coverage under each position shall be determined separately, in accordance with the provisions of the act and the membership rules and regulations.

(b) "Concurrent employee" means any school employee who holds more than one position with different participating school employers but who does not qualify for membership under any one participating school employer. Each concurrent employee shall qualify for membership if the total required hours of all positions equal or exceed 630 hours per year. The burden of electing coverage under the concurrent employee provisions shall be on the employee.

(c) Contributions shall be deducted from the salary of all positions that qualify for coverage, and service shall be credited pursuant to K.A.R. 80-2-2.

(d) "Totality of employment" means that employee and employer contributions shall be remitted on the compensation of all positions filled by an employee with the same participating employer, if at least one position meets the definition of employee in K.S.A. 74-4902(14) or K.S.A. 74-4932(4), and amendments thereto. All state of Kansas agencies, including board of regents institutions, shall constitute one employer. An employee of any state agency in a covered position who also works in a non-covered position for the same or another state agency shall have contributions withheld from compensation for all positions. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4909, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §27; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4911, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §15, K.S.A. 74-4919, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §37, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 74-4920, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 201, §26, 74-4965, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 64, §79, and 74-4967; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Sept. 10, 1999.)

80-2-2. Multiple employment prior service credit; contributions; termination; retirement; construed. For all service credit purposes, all multiple employment shall be combined as though it were for a single employer.

(a) Prior service credits shall be given for all periods of prior service in all covered positions: Provided, That no more than one month of credit shall be given for any one specific calendar month of service. Participating service credits shall be given for all periods of participating service in all covered positions as reported by the employer: Provided, That no more than one quarter of credit shall be given for any one specific calendar quarter of service.

(b) For all claims purposes a multiple enrollment account shall be treated as though the individual were in one position.

(2) Eligibility for a retirement benefit shall only be reached upon termination of all employment in positions covered by the retirement system.

(3) In the event of retirement, benefits shall be based upon the combined credited service and compensation from all positions covered under the retirement system. For the purposes of determining "final average salary," only the compensation upon which contributions are received shall be used. (Authorized by K.S.A. 74-4909; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Jan. 1, 1969.)

80-2-3. Multiple employment, designation of beneficiary. An individual in multiple employment may for administrative reasons complete enrollment and other forms prescribed by the board of trustees, and if different designations of beneficiary are received, the board will recognize only the last one filed with the retirement system. (Authorized by K.S.A. 74-4909; effective Jan. 1, 1966.)

80-2-4. Multiple employment; prior service annual salary. An individual who is in multiple employment on the entry date of one of his employers and at a later date another of his employers becomes a participating employer, his prior service annual salary shall be determined by adding the compensation the member received from all participating employers in any one of the three years immediately prior to the entry date of the first employer. (Authorized by K.S.A. 74-4909; effective Jan. 1, 1969.)

Military leave shall be creditable at the rate of one quarter of credit for each calendar quarter of military leave. For the purpose of determining participating service credit, these military leave credits shall not apply if the employee does not return to employment in accordance with K.S.A. 74-4902(22), and amendments thereto, with a participating employer. No contributions shall be made by the member or the member's employer specifically for the period of military leave. All participating employers shall share in the liabilities created by the granting of service credits for military leave. In the case of any accidental total disability benefit approved on or after May 15, 1973, the amount of any attorney fees allowed under K.S.A. 1972 Supp. 44-536 and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto shall be disregarded if the award for disability compensation is equal to 75% or more of the maximum award which could be made for disability compensation under the workmen's compensation act at the time disability commenced.

(b) In determining the amount of the annual benefit provided in K.S.A. 74-4916 (3) (a) in those cases where workmen's compensation benefits are paid or payable to the recipient of such annual benefit the following formula shall be used in making the calculation:

Present value of one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the member's final average salary less the present value of all workmen's compensation benefits paid or payable divided by the present value of one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the member's final average salary. This quotient is to be multiplied by one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) the final average salary. This formula may be expressed as:

$$\frac{\begin{array}{l} \text{(Present value of } \frac{1}{2} \text{ FAS) minus} \\ \text{(Present value Workmen's} \\ \text{Compensation Benefit)} \end{array}}{\text{(Present value of } \frac{1}{2} \text{ FAS)}} \times (\frac{1}{2} \text{ FAS)}$$

(1) "Affiliate" means a company that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a broker-dealer as defined in FINRA rule 5121, which is adopted by reference in K.A.R. 81-2-1.

(2) "Broker-dealer services" means the investment banking or securities business that is conducted by a broker-dealer or a municipal or government securities broker or dealer other than a financial institution or department or division of a financial institution and consists of any of the following:

(A) Underwriting or distributing issues of securities;

(B) purchasing securities and offering the securities for sale as a dealer; or

(C) purchasing and selling securities upon the order and for the account of others.

(3) "Financial institution" means any federal-chartered or state-chartered bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, credit union, and any service corporation of these institutions located in Kansas.

(4) "Networking arrangement" and "brokerage affiliate arrangement" mean a contractual or other arrangement between a broker-dealer and a financial institution pursuant to which the broker-dealer conducts broker-dealer services on the premises of the financial institution where retail deposits are taken.

(b) Applicability. This regulation shall apply exclusively to broker-dealer services conducted by any broker-dealer on the premises of a financial institution where retail deposits are taken. This regulation shall not alter or abrogate a broker-dealer's obligations to comply with other applicable laws or regulations that may govern the operations of broker-dealers and their agents, including supervisory obligations. This regulation shall not apply to broker-dealer services provided to nonretail customers.

(c) Standards for broker-dealer conduct. No broker-dealer shall conduct broker-dealer services on the premises of a financial institution where retail deposits are taken unless the broker-dealer complies initially and continuously with the following requirements:

(1) Setting. Broker-dealer services shall be conducted in a physical location distinct from the area in which the financial institution's retail deposits are taken. In all situations, the broker-dealer shall identify its services in a manner that clearly distinguishes those services from the financial institution's retail deposit-taking activities. The broker-dealer's name shall be clearly displayed in the area in which the broker-dealer conducts its broker-dealer services.

(2) Networking and brokerage affiliate arrangements and program management. Networking and brokerage affiliate arrangements shall be governed by a written agreement that sets forth the responsibilities of the parties and the compenensation arrangements. Networking and brokerage affiliate arrangements shall stipulate that supervisory personnel of the broker-dealer and representatives of state securities authorities, where authorized by state law, will be permitted access to the financial institution's premises where the broker-dealer conducts broker-dealer services in order to inspect the books and records and other relevant information maintained by the broker-dealer with respect to its broker-dealer services. The broker-dealer shall be responsible for ensuring that the networking and brokerage affiliate arrangement clearly outlines the duties and responsibilities of all parties.

(3) Customer disclosure and written acknowledgment.

(A) When or before a customer's securities brokerage account is opened by a broker-dealer on the premises of a financial institution where retail deposits are taken, the broker-dealer shall perform the following:

(i) Disclose, orally and in writing, that the securities products purchased or sold in a transaction with the broker-dealer are not insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation ("FDIC") or the national credit union share insurance fund ("NCUSIF"), as applicable, are not deposits or other obligations of the financial institution and are not guaranteed by the financial institution, and are subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal invested; and

(ii) make reasonable efforts to obtain from each customer during the account opening process a written acknowledgment of the disclosures required by paragraph (c)(3)(A)(i).

(B) If broker-dealer services include any written or oral representations concerning insurance coverage other than FDIC or NCUSIF insurance coverage, then clear and accurate written or oral explanations of the coverage shall also be provided to the customers when these representations are first made.

(4) Communications with the public.

(A) All of the broker-dealer's written confirmations and account statements shall indicate clearly that the broker-dealer services are provided by the broker-dealer.

(B) Recommendations by a broker-dealer concerning nondeposit investment products with a name similar to that of the financial institution shall occur only pursuant to a sales program designed to minimize the risk of customer confusion.

(C) Advertisements and sales literature.

(i) Advertisements and sales literature that announce the location of a financial institution where broker-dealer services are provided by the broker-dealer, or that are distributed by the broker-dealer on the premises of a financial institution, shall disclose that the securities products are not insured by the FDIC or the NCUSIF, as applicable, are not deposits or other obligations of the financial institution and are not guaranteed by the financial institution, and are subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal invested.

(ii) To comply with the requirements of paragraph (c)(4)(C)(i), the following logo format disclosures may be used by a broker-dealer in advertisements and sales literature, including material published or designed for use in radio or television broadcasts, internet sites, automated teller machine screens, billboards, signs, posters, and brochures, if these disclosures, as applicable, are displayed in a conspicuous manner: “not FDIC insured,” “no bank guarantee,” “not NCUSIF insured,” “no credit union guarantee,” and “may lose value.”

(iii) If the omission of the disclosures required by paragraph (c)(4)(C)(i) would not cause the advertisement or sales literature to be misleading in light of the context in which the material is presented, the disclosures shall not be required with respect to messages contained in radio broadcasts of 30 seconds or less; signs, including banners and posters, when used only as location indicators; and electronic signs, including billboard-type signs that are electronic, time and temperature signs, and ticker tape signs. However, the requirements of paragraph (c)(4)(C)(i) shall apply to messages contained in other media, including television, online computer services, and automated teller machines.

(5) Notification of termination. The broker-dealer shall promptly notify the financial institution if any agent of the broker-dealer who is employed by the financial institution is terminated for cause by the broker-dealer.

(d) “Dishonest or unethical practices,” as used in K.S.A. 17-12a412(d)(13) and amendments thereto, shall include any conduct that violates subsection (c). (Authorized by K.S.A. 17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 17-12a412; effective Oct. 26, 2001; amended Aug. 18, 2006; amended Jan. 4, 2016.)

(3) Unsuitable recommendations. A broker-dealer or agent shall not recommend to a customer the purchase, sale, or exchange of any security without reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction or recommendation is suitable for the customer based upon reasonable inquiry concerning the customer's investment objectives, financial situation and needs, and any other relevant information known by the broker-dealer or agent.

(4) Unauthorized trading. A broker-dealer or agent shall not execute a transaction on behalf of a customer without authorization to do so.

(5) Improper use of discretionary authority. A broker-dealer shall not hypothecate a customer's securities without having a lien on the securities unless the broker-dealer has secured from the customer a properly executed written consent, except as permitted by SEC rule 8c-1, 17 C.F.R. 240.8c-1, or SEC rule 15c2-1, 17 C.F.R. 240.15c2-1, as adopted by reference in K.A.R. 81-2-1.

(13) Misrepresentation of market price. A broker-dealer shall not represent that a security is being offered to a customer "at the market" or at a price relevant to the market price, unless the broker-dealer knows or has reasonable grounds to believe that a market for the security exists other than a market made, created, or controlled by the broker-dealer, any person for whom the broker-dealer is acting or with whom the broker-dealer is associated in the distribution of securities, or any person controlled by, controlling, or under common control with the broker-dealer.

(14) Market manipulation. A broker-dealer or agent shall not effect any transaction in, or induce the purchase or sale of, any security by means of any manipulative, deceptive, or fraudulent device, practice, plan, program, design, or contrivance, including the following:

(B) transactions that are not recommended by the broker-dealer or agent;

(C) transactions by a broker-dealer whose commissions, commission equivalents, and mark-ups from transactions in designated securities during each of the immediately preceding three months, and during 11 or more of the preceding 12 months, did not exceed five percent of its total commissions, commission-equivalents, and mark-ups from transactions in securities during those months and who has not executed principal transactions in connection with the solicitation to purchase the designated security that is the subject of the transaction in the immediately preceding 12 months; and

(E) recommending to a customer the purchase of investment company shares that results in the customer’s simultaneously holding shares in different investment company portfolios having similar investment objectives and policies without reasonable grounds to believe that the recommendation is suitable and appropriate based on the customer’s investment objectives, financial situation, other securities holdings, and any associated transaction charges or other fees;

(F) recommending to a customer the liquidation or redemption of investment company shares for the purpose of purchasing shares in a different investment company portfolio having similar investment objectives and policies without reasonable grounds to believe that the recommen-

(I) stating or implying to a customer the existence of insurance, credit quality, guarantees, or similar features regarding securities held, or proposed to be held, in the investment company’s portfolio without disclosing to the customer the other kinds of relevant investment risks, including interest rate, market, political, liquidity, and currency exchange risks, that could adversely affect investment performance and result in loss or fluctuation of principal despite the creditworthiness of the portfolio securities;

(J) stating or implying to a customer that the purchase of shares shortly before an ex dividend date is advantageous to the customer unless there are specific, clearly described tax or other advantages to the customer, or stating or implying that a distribution of long-term capital gains by an investment company is part of the income yield from an investment in the shares; and

(K) making projections of future performance, statements not warranted under existing circumstances, or statements based upon nonpublic information.

(2) In connection with the solicitation of investment company shares, the delivery of a prospectus shall not be dispositive that the broker-dealer

(2) No person offers or sells the security by means of a general solicitation, except as permitted under subsection (c).

(b) For purposes of this regulation, a husband and wife shall be considered as one purchaser. Each transaction made in compliance with SEC regulation D, rule 505, 17 C.F.R. 230.505, as adopted by reference in K.A.R. 81-2-1, shall be exempt from the registration requirements of K.S.A. 17-12a301 through 17-12a306 and K.S.A. 17-12a504, and amendments thereto, if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) No commission, finders fee, or other remuneration shall be paid or given, directly or indirectly, for soliciting any prospective purchaser, or in connection with the sale of securities in reliance on this exemption, unless the recipient is appropriately registered in this state as a broker-dealer or agent.

(2) No later than 15 days after the first sale of the security in this state, the issuer shall pay the fee specified in K.A.R. 81-5-8 and file a notice on form D, including the appendix. The form D shall be manually signed on part E by a person authorized by the issuer.

(3) Each sale to a non-accredited investor shall be suitable for the investor, or the issuer and any person acting on its behalf shall have reasonable grounds to believe, and after making reasonable inquiry shall believe, that the investment is suitable for the investor. Suitability shall be based upon the facts disclosed by the investor concerning the investor's other security holdings, financial situation, and needs. For the limited purpose of this exemption only, it may be presumed that the investment is suitable if it does not exceed 10 percent of the investor's liquid net worth.

(b) Disqualifications.

(1) The exemption under subsection (a) shall not be available if the issuer, any one of the issuer's directors, officers, or general partners, any beneficial owner of 10 percent or more of any class of the issuer's equity securities, any promoter currently connected with the issuer in any capacity, or any other person, other than a broker-dealer currently registered under the act, who has been or will be paid or given any commission or similar remuneration in connection with an offer or sale of the security meets any of the following conditions:

(A) Has filed a registration statement that is subject to a currently effective stop order entered pursuant to any state law within five years before the commencement of the offering;

(B) has been convicted, within five years before commencement of the offering, of any felony or misdemeanor in connection with the purchase or sale of any security or any felony involving fraud or deceit, including forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, and conspiracy to defraud;

fraud or deceit was found and the order or judgment was entered within five years before the commencement of the offering;

(D) is subject to any current state administrative order or judgment that prohibits the use of any exemption from registration in connection with the purchase or sale of securities; or

(E) is subject to any order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction temporarily or preliminarily restraining or enjoining the person from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security or involving the making of any false filing with any state, or is subject to any order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction entered within five years before the commencement of the offering permanently restraining or enjoining the person from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security or involving the making of any false filing with any state.

(2) Upon application by the issuer, disqualification from the exemption specified in paragraph (b)(1) may be waived in writing by the administrator under any of the following conditions:

(A) The issuer demonstrates that it did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known that a disqualification existed.

(B) The person subject to a disqualifying order under paragraph (b)(1)(A) through (b)(1)(C) is currently licensed to conduct securities-related business in the state in which the administrative order or judgment was entered against the person.

(C) The agency that created the basis for disqualification determines, upon a showing of good cause, that it is not necessary under the circumstances to disqualify the person from use of the exemption, and the administrator concurs with that determination.

(D) The issuer demonstrates good cause that a disqualification should be waived by the administrator.

(c) Effect of noncompliance. Each failure to comply with a requirement of subsection (a) shall constitute grounds for denying or revoking the exemption for a security or transaction and shall be grounds for other relief and sanctions under K.S.A. 17-12a603 and 17-12a604, and amendments thereto. However, upon application by the offeror, the failure to comply shall not result in loss of the exemption for any offer or sale to a particular individual or entity if the administrator determines that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The failure to comply did not pertain to a condition directly intended to protect that particular individual or entity.

(2) The failure to comply was insignificant with respect to the offering as a whole.

(3) A good faith and reasonable attempt was made to comply with all applicable requirements of subsection (a).

(d) Stacking of exemptions. Offers and sales that are exempt under this regulation shall not be combined with offers and sales exempt under any other provision of the act or these regulations.

The exemption in subsection (a) shall be available to each issuer offering and selling securities in reliance upon the federal exemption for intrastate offerings in section 3(a)(11) of the federal securities act of 1933, 15 U.S.C. § 77c(a)(11), as adopted by reference in K.A.R. 81-2-1, if the issuer complies with the requirements of this regulation.

(f) Technical compliance insufficient. The exemption in subsection (a) shall not be available for any transaction that technically complies with this regulation but is part of a plan or scheme to evade registration or the conditions or limitations explicitly stated in this regulation.

(g) Recordkeeping. The issuer shall maintain, for at least five years, a written record of all information furnished by it to all offerees, and the issuer shall file copies of the record with the administrator upon written request. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a203; effective, T-83-40, Nov. 23, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended, T-87-28, Oct. 1, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended, T-81-2-23-89, Feb. 23, 1989; amended March 20, 1989; amended, T-81-12-28-89, Dec. 28, 1989; amended Jan. 15, 1990; amended Jan. 19, 2007.)

81-5-10. Oil and gas exemptions. (a) Definitions. For purposes of this regulation, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Commission" shall be defined as specified in K.A.R. 81-1-1. However, the term shall not include any interest in the oil and gas estate being sold, including any overriding royalty interest and any interest in the production from the oil and gas estate, if the identity of the person or persons owning or holding the interest and the extent of the interest are fully disclosed to all purchasers.

(2) "Public auction" means the public sale of an interest in an oil and gas royalty, lease, or mineral deed to the highest bidder when the offer of the interest and the bids are communicated through open, public outcry and the sale is complete when the auctioneer so announces by the fall of the hammer or other customary manner.

(3) "Purchaser" means any individual, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association, joint stock company, trust, or unincorporated organization. However, if an entity was organized for the specific purpose of acquiring the oil or gas interests offered, each beneficial owner of an equity interest or equity security in the entity shall count as a separate purchaser.

(b) Oil and gas transactions.

(1) K.S.A. 17-12a301 through 17-12a306 and K.S.A. 17-12a401, 17-12a402, and 17-12a504, and amendments thereto, shall not apply to any offer or sale of any limited partnership interest, fractional undivided interest, or certificate based upon any fractional undivided interest involving any oil or gas royalty, lease, or deed, including subsurface gas storage and payments out of production, if the land subject to the interest or certificate is located in Kansas and all sales are made in accordance with one of the following conditions:

(A) Each sale is made to a person who is or has been during the preceding two years engaged primarily in the business of drilling for, producing, or refining oil or gas or whose corporate predecessor, for a corporation, has been so engaged or whose officers and two-thirds of the directors, for a corporation having an existence of less than two years, have each been so engaged.

(B) Sales are made to not more than a total of 32 purchasers without regard to whether the purchasers reside within or without the state of Kansas; the seller reasonably believes that every purchaser is purchasing the interest or certificate for investment purposes and not for resale; no general solicitation is used in connection with the offer or sale of the interest or certificate to any person; and no commission is paid or given for the offer or sale of the interest or certificate or the solicitation of prospective purchasers.

(C) Each sale involves property that produces oil, gas, or petroleum products in paying quantities on the date of sale, and the seller, after the sale, does not retain any ownership interest in or control over the lease or the interest or interests that are being sold.

(2) The exemption provided by this subsection shall not be cumulative to or used in conjunction with any other exemption provided under K.S.A. 17-12a202, and amendments thereto.

(c) Oil and gas auctions. The offer and sale of any interest in an oil and gas royalty, lease, or mineral deed shall be exempt from the requirements of K.S.A. 17-12a301 through 17-12a306 and K.S.A. 17-12a401, 17-12a402, and 17-12a504, and amendments thereto, if the interest is sold at a public auction. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a203; effective June 28, 1993; amended Jan. 19, 2007.)

81-5-11. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 17-1270(f); effective Jan. 31, 1994; revoked Jan. 19, 2007.)

81-5-12. Solicitations of interest before the filing of the registration statement. (a) Exemption. Each offer, but not a sale, of a security made by or on behalf of an issuer for the sole purpose of soliciting an indication of interest in receiving a prospectus for the security shall be exempt from the requirements of K.S.A. 17-12a301 through 17-12a306 and K.S.A. 17-12a504 and amendments thereto, if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The issuer shall be a business entity organized under the laws of the state of Kansas having, both before and upon completion of the offering, its principal office and a majority of its full-time employees located in this state.

(2) At least 80 percent of the net proceeds from the offering shall be used in connection with the operations of the issuer in this state.

(3) The issuer shall not be engaged in or propose to engage in petroleum exploration or production, mining, or other extractive industries and shall not be a development stage company that either has no specific business plan or purpose or has indicated that its business plan is to engage in merger or acquisition with an unidentified company or companies or other entity or person.

(4) The offeror shall intend to register the security in this state and conduct its offering pursuant to one of the following federal laws or regulations, as adopted by reference in K.A.R. 81-2-1:

(B) SEC regulation A, 17 C.F.R. 230.251 et seq.; or

(C) rule 504 of SEC regulation D, 17 C.F.R. 230.504.

(5) Ten business days before the initial solicitation of interest under this regulation, the offeror shall file with the administrator a solicitation of interest form KSC-15 along with any other materials to be used to conduct solicitations of interest, including the script of any broadcast to be made and a copy of any notice to be published.

(6) Five business days before usage, the offeror shall file with the administrator any amendments to the foregoing materials or additional materials to be used to conduct solicitations of interest, except for materials provided to a particular offeree pursuant to a request by that offeree.

(7) No solicitation of interest form, script, advertisement, or other material shall be used to solicit indications of interest if the administrator has instructed the offeror not to distribute the material.

(8) Except for scripted broadcasts and published notices, the offeror shall not communicate with any offeree about the contemplated offering, unless the offeree is provided with the most current solicitation of interest form at or before the time of the communication or within five days after the communication.

(9) During the solicitation of interest period, the offeror shall not solicit or accept money or a commitment to purchase securities.

(10) No sale shall be made until seven days after the delivery of a prospectus to the purchaser.

(b) Each offeror shall comply with each of the following requirements:

(1) Each published notice or script for broadcast shall contain at least the identity of the chief executive officer of the issuer, a brief and general description of its business and products, and the following legends:

(A) "NO MONEY OR OTHER CONSIDERATION IS BEING SOLICITED AND NONE WILL BE ACCEPTED."

(B) "NO SALES OF THE SECURITIES WILL BE MADE OR COMMITMENT TO PURCHASE ACCEPTED UNTIL DELIVERY OF AN OFFERING CIRCULAR THAT INCLUDES COMPLETE INFORMATION ABOUT THE ISSUER AND THE OFFERING."

(C) "AN INDICATION OF INTEREST MADE BY A PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR INVOLVES NO OBLIGATION OR COMMITMENT OF ANY KIND."

(D) "THIS OFFER IS BEING MADE PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE FEDERAL AND STATE SECURITIES LAWS. NO SALE MAY BE MADE UNTIL THE OFFERING STATEMENT IS REGISTERED IN THIS STATE."

(2) All communications with prospective investors made in reliance on this regulation shall cease after a registration statement is filed in Kansas, and no sale may be made until at least 20 calendar days after the last communication made in reliance on this regulation.

(3) A preliminary prospectus or its equivalent may be used only in connection with an offering for which indications of interest have been solicited under this regulation if the offering is conducted by a registered broker-dealer.

(c) Disqualifications. The exemption specified in subsection (a) shall not be available to an offeror who knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the issuer or any one of its officers, directors, 10 percent shareholders, or promoters meets any of the following conditions:

(1) Has filed a registration statement that is subject to a currently effective registration stop order entered pursuant to any federal or state securities law within five years before the filing of the solicitation of interest form;

(2) has been convicted, within five years before the filing of the solicitation of interest form, of any felony or misdemeanor in connection with the offer, purchase, or sale of any security, or any felony involving fraud or deceit, including forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, and conspiracy to defraud;

(3) is subject to any current federal or state administrative enforcement order or judgment entered by any state securities administrator or the securities and exchange commission within five years before the filing of the solicitation of interest form;

(4) is subject to any federal or state administrative enforcement order or judgment entered within five years before the filing of the solicitation of interest in which fraud or deceit was found;

(5) is subject to any federal or state administrative enforcement order or judgment that prohibits, denies, or revokes the use of any exemption from registration in connection with the offer, purchase, or sale of securities; or

(6) is subject to any current order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction that temporarily, preliminarily, or permanently restrains or enjoins the party from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security, or involves the making of any false filing with the state, entered within five years before the filing of the solicitation of interest form.

(d) Effect of noncompliance.

(1) Failure to comply with any condition of subsection (a) shall constitute grounds for denying or revoking the exemption for a specific security or transaction and shall be grounds for other relief and sanctions under K.S.A. 17-12a603 and 17-12a604, and amendments thereto. However, upon application by the offeror, the failure to comply shall not result in the loss of the exemption for any offer to a particular individual or entity if the administrator determines that all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The failure to comply did not pertain to a condition directly intended to protect that particular individual or entity.

(B) The failure to comply was insignificant with respect to the offering as a whole.

(C) A good faith and reasonable attempt was made to comply with all applicable conditions of subsection (a).

(2) Failure to comply with any requirement in subsection (b) shall constitute grounds for denying or revoking the exemption for a specific security or transaction and shall be grounds for other relief and sanctions under K.S.A. 17-12a603 and 17-12a604, and amendments thereto, but shall not result in the loss of the exemption for the entire offering.

(e) Waivers.

(1) Upon application by the offeror and the showing of good cause, any condition of this exemption may be waived in writing by the administrator.

(2) Upon application by the offeror and the showing of good cause, the disqualification specified in subsection (c) may be waived in writing by the administrator under any of the following circumstances:

(A) The person subject to the disqualification is currently licensed or registered to conduct securities-related business in the state in which the administrative order or judgment was entered against the person.

(B) The broker-dealer employing the person is registered in Kansas, and the form BD filed in Kansas discloses the order, conviction, judgment, or decree relating to the person.

(C) The agency that created the basis for disqualification determines upon a showing of good cause that it is not necessary under the circumstances that the exemption be denied, and the administrator concurs with that determination.

(3) The absence of any objection or order by the administrator with respect to any offer of securities undertaken pursuant to this regulation shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any condition of the regulation and shall not be deemed to be a confirmation by the administrator of compliance with this regulation.

(f) Integration. An offer made in reliance on this regulation shall not result in a violation of the registration requirements by virtue of being integrated with subsequent offers or sales of securities, unless the subsequent offers and sales would be integrated under federal securities laws.

(g) Effect on other exemptions. Issuers on whose behalf indications of interest are solicited under this regulation shall not make offers or sales in reliance on K.S.A. 17-12a202(1) or 17-12a202(14) and amendments thereto, or K.A.R. 81-5-6, until six months after the last communication with a prospective investor made pursuant to this regulation. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a202, as amended by L. 2006, Ch. 47, §2(17) and K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a203; effective April 17, 1995; amended Jan. 19, 2007.)

(2) The issuer shall reasonably believe that all purchasers are purchasing for investment and not with the view to or for resale in connection with a distribution of the security. Each resale of a security sold in reliance on this exemption within 12 months of sale shall be presumed to be with a view to distribution and not for investment, except a resale pursuant to a registration statement effective under K.S.A. 17-12a305(h) and amendments thereto or a resale to an accredited investor pursuant to an exemption available under the act.

(3) Each communication with a prospective investor shall meet the requirements of subsection (d).

(B) has been convicted within the last five years of any criminal offense in connection with the offer, purchase, or sale of any security, or involving fraud or deceit;

(C) is subject to any current state or federal administrative enforcement order or judgment, entered within the last five years, finding fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of any security; or

(D) is subject to any current order, judgment, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, entered within the last five years, temporarily, preliminarily, or permanently restraining or enjoining the party from engaging in or continuing to engage in any conduct or practice involving fraud or deceit in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

(c) Waivers. Upon application by the issuer, any disqualification specified in paragraph (b)(2) may be waived in writing by the administrator if one of the following conditions is met:

(1) The party subject to the disqualification is licensed or registered to conduct securities-related business in the state in which the order, judgment, or decree creating the disqualification was entered against the party.

(2) Before the first offer under this exemption, the court or regulatory authority that entered the order, judgment, or decree waives the disqualification, and the administrator determines that there was good cause for the waiver.

(3) The issuer establishes that it did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care and based on a factual inquiry, could not have known that a disqualification existed.

(d) Communication with prospective investors.

(1) A general announcement of a proposed offering may be made and may be disseminated to persons who are not accredited investors. (iii) the securities have not been registered with or approved by any state securities agency or the United States securities and exchange commission and are being offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration.

(2) The issuer, in connection with an offer, may provide information in addition to the general announcement under paragraph (d)(1) if the information meets either of the following conditions:

(A) The information is delivered through an electronic database that is restricted to persons who have been prequalified as accredited investors.

(B) The information is delivered after the issuer reasonably believes that the prospective purchaser is an accredited investor.

(3) No telephone solicitation shall be permitted, unless, before placing the call, the issuer reasonably believes that the prospective purchaser to be solicited is an accredited investor. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a203; effective Dec. 19, 1997; amended Jan. 19, 2007.)

The sale of a security of a cooperative organized under K.S.A. 17-1601 et seq., and amendments thereto, to a person who is not a member pursuant to K.S.A. 17-1606, and amendments thereto, shall be exempt from the requirements of K.S.A. 17-12a301 through 17-12a306 and K.S.A. 17-12a504, and amendments thereto, if the following requirements are met:

(1) The cooperative shall file a notice with the administrator that includes the following items:

(iii) the total amount of securities being issued;

(iv) a brief summary of key aspects of the offering;

(vi) a description of the business or proposed business;

(vii) a description of the proposed use of proceeds, in an itemized format;

(viii) a description of the responsibilities, experience, and compensation of directors, officers, and any other persons having similar status or performing similar functions for the cooperative;

The cooperative shall provide an independent appraisal report to the administrator and shall demonstrate that the value of the pledged property is sufficient to secure the debt.

(4) If the security is not subject to a firm underwriting agreement, the proceeds shall be deposited and held in an escrow account until a specified minimum amount of proceeds has been deposited so that the cooperative can accomplish the primary purpose of its financing plan or complete a specified stage of a construction project in which a mortgage can be recorded to secure the debt.

(b) Review. Within 30 days after the notice is filed under subsection (a), the notice filing and related documents shall be reviewed by the administrator, and a letter shall be issued by the administrator either to advise the cooperative that the administrator has no objection to the cooperative's claim of exemption under this regulation or to inform the cooperative that the filing is incomplete or fails to meet the requirements for this exemption. (7) Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to relieve any person of any fiduciary or other obligation to which a person may be subject under any law.

(g) Prohibited conduct: agency cross transactions.

(1) For the purposes of this subsection, "agency cross transaction for an advisory client" shall mean a transaction in which a person acts as an investment adviser in relation to a transaction in which the investment adviser, or any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the investment adviser, including an investment adviser representative, acts as a broker-dealer for both the advisory client and another person on the other side of the transaction. Each person acting in this capacity shall be required to be registered as a broker-dealer in this state unless excluded from the definition of broker-dealer under K.S.A. 17-12a102, and amendments thereto.

(2) An investment adviser shall not effect an agency cross transaction for an advisory client unless all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The advisory client executes a written consent prospectively authorizing the investment adviser to effect agency cross transactions for the client.

(B) Before obtaining this written consent from the client, the investment adviser makes full written disclosure to the client that, with respect to agency cross transactions, the investment adviser will act as broker-dealer for both parties to the transaction, receive commissions from both parties, and have a potentially conflicting division of loyalties and responsibilities.

(C) At or before the completion of each agency cross transaction, the investment adviser sends the client a written confirmation. The written confirmation shall include all of the following information:

- (i) A statement of the nature of the transaction;
- (ii) the date the transaction took place;
- (iii) an offer to furnish, upon request, the time when the transaction took place; and
- (iv) the source and amount of any other remuneration that the investment adviser received or will receive in connection with the transaction.

For a purchase in which the investment adviser was not participating in a distribution, or a sale in which the investment adviser was not participating in a tender offer, the written confirmation may state whether the investment adviser has received or will receive any other remuneration and that the investment adviser will furnish the source and amount of remuneration to the client upon the client's written request.

(D) At least annually, the investment adviser sends each client a written disclosure statement identifying the total number of agency cross transactions during the period since the date of the last disclosure statement and the total amount of all commissions or other remuneration that the investment adviser received or will receive in connection with agency cross transactions for the client during the period.

(E) Each written disclosure and confirmation required by this subsection includes a conspicuous statement that the client may revoke the written consent required under paragraph (g)(2)(A) at any time by providing written notice to the investment adviser.

(F) No agency cross transaction in which the same investment adviser recommended the transaction to both any seller and any purchaser is effected.

(3) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to relieve an investment adviser or investment adviser representative from acting in the best interests of the client, including fulfilling fiduciary duties with respect to the best price and execution for the particular transaction for the client, nor shall this subsection relieve any investment adviser or investment adviser representative of any other disclosure obligations imposed by the act or the regulations under the act.

(h) Prohibited conduct: use of senior-specific certifications and professional designations.

(1) An investment adviser or investment adviser representative shall not use a senior-specific certification or designation that indicates or implies that the user has special certification or training in advising or servicing senior citizens or retirees in any way that misleads any person. This prohibition shall include the following:

(A) The use of a certification or professional designation by a person who has not earned or is otherwise ineligible to use that certification or designation;

(B) the use of a nonexistent or self-conferred certification or professional designation;

(C) the use of a certification or professional designation that indicates or implies a level of occupational qualifications obtained through education, training, or experience that the person using the certification or professional designation does not have; and

(D) the use of a certification or professional designation that was obtained from a designating or certifying organization that meets any of the following conditions:

(i) Is primarily engaged in the business of instruction in sales or marketing;

(ii) does not have reasonable standards or procedures for ensuring the competency of its designees or certificate holders;

(iii) does not have reasonable standards or procedures for monitoring and disciplining its designees or certificate holders for improper or unethical conduct; or

(iv) does not have reasonable continuing education requirements for its designees or certificate holders to maintain the professional designation or certification.

(2) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a designating or certifying organization is not disqualified solely for purposes of paragraph (h) (1)(D) if the organization has been accredited by any of the following:

(A) The American national standards institute;

(B) the national commission for certifying agencies; or

(C) an organization that is on the United States department of education's list titled "accrediting agencies recognized for title IV purposes," if the designation or credential does not primarily apply to sales or marketing, or both.

(3) In determining whether a combination of words or an acronym or initialism standing for a combination of words constitutes a certification or professional designation indicating or implying that a person has special certification or training in advising or servicing senior citizens or retirees, the factors to be considered shall include the following:

(A) The use of one or more words including "senior," "retirement," "elder," or similar words, combined with one or more words including "certified," "registered," "chartered," "adviser," "specialist," "consultant," "planner," or similar words, in the name of the certification or professional designation; and

(B) the manner in which the words are combined.

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the terms "certification" and "professional designation" shall not include a job title within an organization that is licensed or registered by a state or federal financial services regulatory agency, including an agency that regulates broker-dealers, investment advisers, or investment companies, if that job title indicates seniority or standing within the organization or specifies an individual's area of specialization within the organization.

(i) Applicability to federal covered investment advisers. To the extent permitted by federal law, the provisions of this regulation governing investment advisers shall also apply to federal covered investment advisers. (Authorized by K.S.A.

17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 17-12a412(d) (13) and 17-12a502(a)(2) and (b); effective Oct. 26, 2001; amended Aug. 18, 2006; amended Aug. 15, 2008; amended May 22, 2009; amended Jan. 4, 2016.)

81-14-6. Electronic filing for investment advisers and investment adviser representatives. (a) Designated entity. The IARD and CRD shall be authorized to receive and store filings and collect related fees from investment advisers and investment adviser representatives, respectively, on behalf of the administrator.

(b) Electronic filing. Unless otherwise required by this regulation, all investment adviser and investment adviser representative applications, amendments, reports, notices, related filings, and fees required to be filed with the administrator pursuant to the act and these regulations shall be filed electronically with and transmitted to the IARD and the CRD.

(c) Electronic signatures. When a signature is required on any filing to be made through the IARD or CRD, the applicant or a duly authorized officer of the applicant shall affix an electronic signature to the filing by typing the individual's name in the appropriate field and submitting the filing to the IARD or CRD. Submission of a filing in this manner shall constitute a legal signature by any individual whose name is typed on the filing.

(d) Exception to electronic filing. Any documents or fees required to be filed with the administrator that are not permitted to be filed with or cannot be accepted by the IARD or CRD shall be filed directly with the administrator.

(e) Hardship exemptions.

(1) Temporary hardship exemption.

(A) Criterion for exemption. Investment advisers registered or required to be registered under the act who experience unanticipated technical difficulties that prevent submission of an electronic filing to IARD or CRD may request a temporary hardship exemption from the requirements to file electronically.

(B) Application for exemption. To apply for a temporary hardship exemption, the investment adviser shall file a written request with the securities administrator in the state where the investment adviser's principal place of business is located. The request shall be submitted in a form approved by the securities administrator, and the request shall be filed no later than one business day after the due date for the filing that is the subject of request. The investment adviser shall also submit the filing that is the subject of the request in electronic format to IARD or CRD no later than seven business days after the filing was due.

(C) Effective date: upon filing. If the request is in proper form, the temporary hardship exemption shall be deemed effective upon receipt by the securities administrator. Multiple temporary hardship exemption requests within the same calendar year may be disallowed by the securities administrator.

(2) Continuing hardship exemption.

(A) Criterion for exemption. A continuing hardship exemption shall not be granted unless the investment adviser is able to demonstrate that the electronic filing requirements of this regulation are prohibitively burdensome.

(B) Application for exemption. To apply for a continuing hardship exemption, the investment adviser shall file a written request with the securities administrator in the state where the investment adviser's principal place of business is located. The request shall be submitted in a form approved by the securities administrator, and the request shall be filed no later than 20 business days before the due date for the filing that is the subject of the request. If the investment adviser's principal place of business is located in Kansas and the request is filed with the administrator in a form approved by the administrator, the request shall be either granted or denied by the administrator within 10 business days after the filing of the request.

(C) Effective date: upon approval. The exemption shall be effective upon approval by the securities administrator in the state where the investment adviser's principal place of business is located. The time period of the exemption shall be no longer than one year after the date on which the request is filed. If the securities administrator approves the request, the investment adviser shall, no later than five business days after the exemption approval date, submit filings to the IARD or CRD in paper form, along with the appropriate processing fees, for the period of time for which the exemption is granted.

(3) Recognition of exemption. The decision to grant or deny a request for a hardship exemption shall be made by the securities administrator in the state where the investment adviser's principal place of business is located, and the decision shall be adhered to by the administrator. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a605(a); implementing

K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a105 and 17-12a608(c); effective Oct. 26, 2001; amended Aug. 18, 2006.)

81-14-7. Notice filing requirements for federal covered investment advisers. (a) Initial notice filing. The notice filing for a federal covered investment adviser pursuant to K.S.A. 17-12a405, and amendments thereto, shall be filed on form ADV with the IARD. A notice filing of a federal covered investment adviser shall be deemed filed when the fee required by K.A.R. 81-14-2 and the form ADV are filed with and accepted by the IARD on behalf of the administrator.

(b) Part 2 of form ADV. Until the IARD accepts the electronic filing of part 2 of form ADV, part 2 shall be deemed by the administrator to be filed if a federal covered investment adviser provides part 2 to the administrator within five business days of a request by the administrator.

(c) Renewal notice filing. The annual renewal of the notice filing for a federal covered investment adviser pursuant to K.S.A. 17-12a405, and amendments thereto, shall be filed with the IARD. The renewal of the notice filing for a federal covered investment adviser shall be deemed filed when the fee required by K.A.R. 81-14-2 is filed with and accepted by the IARD on behalf of the administrator.

(d) Updates and amendments. Each federal covered investment adviser shall file with the IARD, in accordance with the instructions in the form ADV, any amendments to the federal covered investment adviser's form ADV. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a405(c); effective Oct. 26, 2001; amended Aug. 18, 2006.)

81-14-8. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 17-1270; implementing K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 17-1252(m)(2); effective Oct. 26, 2001; revoked Aug. 18, 2006.)

81-14-9. Custody of client funds or securities; safekeeping; financial reporting. (a) Definitions. For the purposes of this regulation, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Custody" means holding, directly or indirectly, client funds or securities, or having any authority to obtain possession of them or the ability to appropriate them.

(A) Each of the following circumstances shall be deemed to constitute custody:

(i) Possession of client funds or securities unless received inadvertently and returned to the sender promptly, but in any case within three business days of receiving the funds or securities;

(ii) any arrangement, including a general power of attorney, under which an investment adviser is authorized or permitted to withdraw client funds or securities maintained with a custodian upon the adviser's instruction to the custodian; and

(iii) any arrangement that gives an investment adviser or its supervised person legal ownership of or access to client funds or securities, which may include an arrangement in which the investment adviser or its supervised person is the trustee of a trust, the general partner of a limited partnership, the managing member of a limited liability company, or a comparable position for a pooled investment vehicle.

(B) Receipt of a check drawn by a client and made payable to an unrelated third party shall not meet the definition of custody if the investment adviser forwards the check to the third party within three business days of receipt and the adviser maintains the records required under K.A.R. 81-14-4(b)(22).

(2) "Independent party" means a person that meets the following conditions:

(A) Is engaged by an investment adviser to act as a gatekeeper for the payment of fees, expenses, and capital withdrawals from a pooled investment;

(B) does not control, is not controlled by, and is not under common control with the investment adviser; and

(C) does not have, and has not had within the past two years, a material business relationship with the investment adviser.

(3) "Independent representative" means a person who meets the following conditions:

(B) is obliged by law or contract to act in the best interest of the advisory client or the limited partners, members, or other beneficial owners;

(C) does not control, is not controlled by, and is not under common control with the investment adviser; and

(D) does not have, and has not had within the past two years, a material business relationship with the investment adviser.

(4) "Qualified custodian" means any of the following independent institutions or entities:

(A) A bank or savings association that has deposits insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation;

(B) a broker-dealer registered under the act who holds client assets in customer accounts and complies with K.A.R. 81-3-7(d);

(C) a futures commission merchant registered under section 6f of the commodity exchange act, 7 U.S.C. § 6f, who holds client assets in customer accounts, but only with respect to clients' funds and security futures, or other securities incidental to transactions in contracts for the purchase or sale of a commodity and options of the commodity for future delivery; and

(D) a foreign financial institution that customarily holds financial assets for its customers, if the foreign financial institution keeps the advisory clients' assets in customer accounts segregated from its proprietary assets.

(b) Safekeeping of client funds and securities.

(1) Requirements. An investment adviser registered or required to be registered under the act shall not have custody of client funds or securities unless the investment adviser meets each of the following conditions. "An act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit," as used in K.S.A. 17-12a502 and amendments thereto, shall include any violation of this subsection.

(A) Notice to administrator. The investment adviser shall notify the administrator promptly on form ADV that the investment adviser has or will have custody.

(B) Qualified custodian. A qualified custodian shall maintain the funds and securities in a separate account for each client under each client's name, or in accounts that contain only funds and securities of the investment adviser's clients under the name of the investment adviser as agent or trustee for each client.

(C) Notice to clients. If an investment adviser opens an account with a qualified custodian on behalf of its client, either under the client's name or under the investment adviser's name as agent, the investment adviser shall notify the client in writing of the qualified custodian's name, address, and the manner in which the funds or securities are maintained. The notice shall be given promptly when the account is opened and following any changes to the information.

(D) Account statements. The investment adviser shall ensure that account statements are sent to each client for whom the adviser has custody of funds or securities.

(i) Statements sent by the qualified custodian. If a qualified custodian maintains accounts containing funds or securities, the qualified custodian may send account statements to clients if the investment adviser has a reasonable basis for believing that the qualified custodian sends an account statement at least quarterly to each of the adviser's clients for whom the custodian maintains funds or securities and that the account statement sets forth all transactions in the account during the period and identifies the amount of funds and amount of each security in the account at the end of the period.

(ii) Statements sent by the adviser. If account statements are not sent by the qualified custodian in accordance with paragraph (b)(1)(D)(i), the investment adviser shall send an account statement at least quarterly to each client for whom it has custody of funds or securities. The account statement shall set forth all transactions in the account during the period and identify the amount of funds and amount of each security of which it has custody at the end of the period.

At least once during each calendar year, a CPA firm that is registered and authorized to provide attest services in compliance with requirements of the state where the investment adviser is domiciled shall be engaged by the investment adviser to attest to the accuracy, in all material respects, of the account statements sent to clients by the investment adviser based on a comparison with records of transactions and balances of funds and securities maintained by the qualified custodian. The attest engagement shall be performed in accordance with attestation standards established by the AICPA and contained in the "AICPA professional standards," as specified in K.A.R. 74-5-2. The CPA firm shall perform the attest engagement without prior notice or announcement to the adviser on a date that changes from year to year as chosen by the CPA firm. The CPA firm shall file a copy of its independent accountant's report with the administrator within 30 days after the completion of the attest engagement. The CPA firm, upon finding any material exceptions during the course of the engagement, shall notify the administrator of the finding within two business days by means of a facsimile transmission or electronic mail, followed by first-class mail, directed to the attention of the administrator.

(iii) Special rule for pooled investment vehicles. If the investment adviser is a general partner of a pooled investment vehicle structured as a limited partnership, is a managing member of a pooled investment vehicle structured as a limited liability company, or holds a comparable position for another type of pooled investment vehicle, the account statements required under this subsection shall be sent to each limited partner, member, or other beneficial owner or that person's independent representative.

(E) Independent representatives. A client may designate an independent representative to receive, on the client's behalf, notices and account statements as required under paragraphs (b)(1)(C) and (b)(1)(D). Thereafter, the investment adviser shall send all notices and statements to the independent representative.

(F) Direct fee deduction. Each investment adviser who has custody, as defined in paragraph (a)(1)(A)(ii), by having fees directly deducted from client accounts held by a qualified custodian shall obtain prior written authorization from the client to deduct advisory fees from the account held with the qualified custodian.

(G) Pooled investments. Each investment adviser who has custody, as defined in paragraph (a)(1)(A)(iii), and who does not meet the exception provided under paragraph (b)(2)(C) shall comply with each of the following requirements:

(i) Engage an independent party. The investment adviser shall hire an independent party to review all fees, expenses, and capital withdrawals from the pooled accounts.

(ii) Review of fees. The investment adviser shall send all invoices or receipts to the independent party, detailing the amount of the fee, expenses, or capital withdrawal and the method of calculation so that the independent party can determine that the payment is in accordance with the agreement governing the pooled investment vehicle and so that the independent party can forward to the qualified custodian approval for payment of an invoice with a copy to the investment adviser.

(iii) Notice of safeguards. The investment adviser shall notify the administrator on form ADV that the investment adviser intends to use the safeguards specified in this subsection.

(2) Exceptions.

(A) Shares of mutual funds. With respect to shares of a mutual fund that is an open-end company as defined in section 5(a)(1) of the investment company act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. 80a-5(a)(1), as adopted by reference in K.A.R. 81-2-1, any investment adviser may use the mutual fund's transfer agent in lieu of a qualified custodian for purposes of complying with paragraph (b)(1).

The investment adviser shall notify the administrator on form ADV that the investment adviser intends to distribute audited financial statements.

(D) Registered investment companies. An investment adviser shall not be required to comply with paragraph (b)(1) with respect to the account of an investment company registered under the investment company act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. 80a-1 et seq.

(E) Beneficial trusts. An investment adviser shall not be required to comply with the safekeeping requirements of paragraph (b)(1) if the investment adviser has custody solely because the investment adviser or an investment adviser representative is the trustee for a beneficial trust, if all of the following conditions are met for each trust:

(i) The beneficial owner of the trust is a parent, grandparent, spouse, sibling, child, or grandchild of the investment adviser representative, including "step" relationships.

(ii) The investment adviser provides a written statement to each beneficial owner of each account setting forth a description of the requirements of paragraph (b)(1) and the reasons why the investment adviser will not be complying with those requirements.

(iii) The investment adviser obtains from each beneficial owner a signed and dated statement acknowledging the receipt of the written statement.

(iv) The investment adviser maintains a copy of both documents described in paragraphs (b)(2)(E)(ii) and (iii) until the account is closed or the investment adviser or investment adviser representative is no longer trustee.

(F) Upon written request and for good cause shown, the requirement to use a qualified custodian may be waived by the administrator. As a condition of granting a waiver, the investment adviser may be required by the administrator to perform the duties of a qualified custodian as specified in paragraph (b)(1).

(c) Financial reporting requirements for investment advisers.

(1) Balance sheet. Each registered investment adviser shall prepare and maintain a balance sheet, as required by K.A.R. 81-14-4(b)(6), each month. The investment adviser shall file the balance sheet with the administrator, for any month specified by the administrator, within five days after a request by the administrator.

(2) Exemptions. An investment adviser shall be exempt from the requirements of this subsection if the investment adviser has its principal place of business in a state other than Kansas, is properly registered in that state, and satisfies the financial reporting requirements of that state.

(1) Each investment adviser that is registered or required to be registered under the act shall maintain at all times a positive net worth.

(2) Notification. Each investment adviser registered or required to be registered under the act shall, by the close of business on the next business day, notify the administrator if the investment adviser is insolvent because its net worth is negative as determined in conformity with GAAP. The notification of insolvency shall include the investment adviser's balance sheet that states the insolvent financial condition on the date the insolvency occurred. Upon receiving the balance sheet, the administrator may require the investment adviser to file additional information by a specified date.

(3) Exception for out-of-state advisers. If an investment adviser has its principal place of business in a state other than Kansas and is properly registered in that state, the investment adviser shall be required to maintain the minimum capital required by the state in which the investment adviser maintains its principal place of business. (Authorized by K.S.A. 17-12a502(b) and 17-12a605(a);

81-14-10. Operational requirements for investment advisers; supervisory procedures; brochure delivery. (a) Supervision of investment adviser representatives and employees.

(1) Annual review. Each investment adviser shall conduct a review, at least annually, of the businesses in which the adviser engages, which shall be reasonably designed to assist in detecting and preventing violations of and achieving compliance with the act, these regulations, and other applicable laws and regulations.

(2) Supervisory procedures. Each investment adviser shall establish and maintain supervisory procedures that shall be reasonably designed to assist in detecting and preventing violations of and achieving compliance with the act, these regulations, and other applicable laws, regulations, and rules of self-regulatory organizations. In determining whether the supervisory procedures are reasonably designed, factors including the following may be considered by the administrator:

Based on the factors specified in paragraph (a)(2), certain non-branch offices may require more frequent reviews or more stringent supervision.

(4) Failure to supervise. If an investment adviser fails to comply with this subsection, the investment adviser shall be deemed to have "failed to reasonably supervise" its investment adviser representatives under K.S.A. 17-12a412(d)(9), and amendments thereto.

(A) "Current brochure" and "current brochure supplement" mean the most recent versions of the brochure or brochure supplements, including all sticker amendments.

(D) "Wrap fee program" means an advisory program under which one or more specified fees, not based directly upon transactions in a client's account, are charged for investment advisory services and the execution of client transactions. The investment advisory services may include portfolio management or advice concerning the selection of other investment advisers.

(2) General requirements. Unless otherwise provided in this subsection, each investment adviser registered or required to be registered under the act shall provide to each client and prospective client a firm brochure and one or more supplements as required by this subsection. The brochure and supplements shall contain all information required by part 2 of form ADV and any other relevant information that the administrator may require.

(3) Offer and delivery requirements.

(A) Each investment adviser shall deliver a current firm brochure to each client or prospective client. Each investment adviser shall also deliver current brochure supplements for each investment adviser representative who will provide advisory services to the client. If a client accepts the written offer, the investment adviser shall send the current brochure and supplements to that client within seven days after the investment adviser is notified of the acceptance.

(4) Delivery to limited partners. If the investment adviser is the general partner of a limited partnership, the manager of a limited liability company, or the trustee of a trust, then for purposes of this subsection the investment adviser shall treat each of the partnership's limited partners, the company's members, or the trust's beneficial owners as a client. (A) If the investment adviser is a sponsor of a wrap fee program, then the brochure required to be delivered to a client or prospective client of the wrap fee program shall be a wrap fee brochure containing all information required by form ADV. Any additional information in a wrap fee brochure shall be limited to information applicable to wrap fee programs that the investment adviser sponsors.

(B) The investment adviser shall not be required to offer or deliver a wrap fee brochure to the client or prospective client of the wrap fee program if another sponsor of the wrap fee program offers or delivers a wrap fee program brochure containing all the information that the investment adviser's wrap fee program brochure is required to contain.

(C) A wrap fee brochure shall not take the place of any brochure supplements that the investment adviser is required to deliver under paragraph (b) (3)(A).

(6) Delivery of updates and amendments. The investment adviser shall amend its brochure and any brochure supplements and deliver the amendments to clients promptly if information contained in the brochure or brochure supplements becomes materially inaccurate. The investment adviser shall follow the updating and delivery instructions for part 2 of form ADV. An amendment shall be considered to be delivered promptly if the amendment is delivered within 30 days of the event that requires the filing of the amendment.

(7) Multiple brochures. If an investment adviser renders substantially different types of investment advisory services to different clients, the investment adviser may provide them with different brochures, if each client receives all applicable information about services and fees. The brochure delivered to a client may omit any information required by part 2 of form ADV if this information is applicable only to a type of investment advisory service or fee that is not rendered or charged, or proposed to be rendered or charged, to that client or prospective client.

(8) Other disclosure obligations. Nothing in this subsection shall relieve any investment adviser from any obligation to disclose any information to its advisory clients or prospective advisory clients pursuant to any state or federal law. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a411(g) and 17-12a605(a); implementing K.S.A. 2005 Supp. 17-12a411(g) and 17-12a412(d)(9), as amended by L. 2006, Ch. 47, § 6; effective Aug. 18, 2006.)

In the case of an application to serve an annexed area pursuant to K.S.A. 66-1,176, and amendments thereto, the applicant shall contemporaneously serve a copy of the application upon the currently certified retail electric supplier.

(b) Upon filing, the original shall be placed by the executive director of the commission in the official records of the commission, and the duplicate copies shall be distributed as directed by the commission. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended May 1, 1985; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-216. Service of pleadings. (a) Manner of service of papers. Notices, motions, pleadings, or other papers may be served by any of the following means:

- (1) Hand delivery;
- (2) United States mail;
- (3) restricted mail;
- (4) overnight courier;
- (5) facsimile machine if the original of the facsimile document is also served; or

(6) electronic delivery in a format acceptable to the commission, if a signed, original hard copy of the document delivered electronically is also served.

(b) Who shall be served. All parties and attorneys who have entered their appearances in any proceeding shall be served with all notices, motions, pleadings, orders, or other papers filed in this matter. Service upon an attorney of record shall be deemed to be service upon the party represented by the attorney.

(1) Service by commission. Orders, formal complaints to which a docket number has been assigned, supplemental complaints that have been permitted by the commission, and amended complaints that have been permitted by the commission, shall be served by the commission. Each complainant shall supply the commission with a sufficient number of copies of the complaint to enable the commission to serve one copy upon each defendant and retain the signed original and seven copies for its own use, together with any other copies that may be required by the commission. Notices shall be served either by the commission or as directed by the commission.

(2) Service by parties. Pursuant to K.S.A. 77-519 and amendments thereto, except as stated above in paragraph (b)(1), parties shall be required to serve all documents in accordance with the procedures outlined in subsection (a). (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-106 and 77-519; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-217. Computation and extension of time. (a) Computation; legal holiday defined. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules or by an applicable statute in which the method of computing such time is not otherwise specifically provided, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than seven days, intermediate Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday. "Legal holiday" includes any day designated as a holiday by the congress of the United States, or by the legislature of this state.

(b) Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given under them an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the time for doing such act may be extended for good cause shown by the commission in its discretion, or the act may be done subsequent to the expiration of the prescribed time where the failure to act within such time was the result of excusable neglect, as permitted by the commission.

(c) Additional time after service by mail. Service is complete upon mailing. Three days shall be added to the prescribed period for any action required of the recipient. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended July 23, 1990.)

82-1-218. Form and contents of pleadings. All applications, formal complaints, supplemental complaints, amended complaints, petitions, replies, answers, protests, motions, petitions in intervention, and all amendments of these pleadings shall comply with the provisions of K.A.R. 82-1-219 relating to general requirements for all of these pleadings. The form and contents of the numbered paragraphs in the various kinds of pleadings shall be as follows:

(a) Applications. All applications for the approval, determination, consent, permission, certificate or authorization of the commission in cases for which this approval, determination, consent, permission, certificate, or authorization is required by law, shall be made in writing in a document entitled "application."

In matters before the utilities division and transportation division of the commission, the filing of certified copies of the charter or articles of incorporation of every corporation directly affected by the proposed action and certified copies of all certificates, statements, or records that modify or extend the purpose or powers of such corporations, may be required. However, until so required, the applicant may incorporate the items by reference rather than by actually filing the copies.

The application shall set forth the facts upon which the application is based, in numbered paragraphs, and reference to the particular provision of the law or regulations of the commission requiring or providing for the same shall be made in the application.

The application shall contain further statements of fact and of law as may be required by any provision of law or these regulations.

(b) Complaints. Complaints shall comply with the provisions of K.A.R. 82-1-220.

(c) Petitions. All petitions for relief shall meet the following criteria:

(1) Clearly and concisely state the interest of the petitioner in the subject matter and the relief sought;

(2) cite by appropriate reference the law, statute, or regulation relied upon by the petitioner for relief; and

(3) comply with the requirements of these regulations.

(d) Responsive pleadings. All responsive pleadings shall fully and completely advise the parties and the commission of the basis and nature of the response and of the rights of the respondent, and shall admit or deny, specifically and in detail, each material allegation of the pleading being answered.

Written responses to petitions for intervention shall not be required. However, if a responsive pleading is filed to a petition to intervene, the responsive pleading shall be served in accordance with K.S.A. 77-519, and amendments thereto, and these regulations.

Any party may file and serve a protest, motion, or other proper pleading within 10 days after service upon that party of any application, petition, notice, formal complaint, supplemental complaint, or amended complaint. However, protests to oil and gas conservation matters shall be filed with the conservation division within 15 days after publication of the notice of the application as required in K.A.R. 82-3-135a. Answers to formal complaints shall be filed as prescribed by K.A.R. 82-1-220 and these regulations.

(e) Protests. All protests shall set forth the position and interest of the protestant and shall advise the commission and the parties in detail of the basis of the protest. Protests against the granting of permits, certificates, extensions, abandonments, and transfers under the motor carrier act shall comply with K.A.R. 82-4-65. Protests against the granting of applications and permits under the oil and gas conservation act shall comply with K.A.R. 82-3-135b. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-219. General requirements relating to pleadings and other papers. Except as otherwise provided in K.A.R. 82-1-231, each pleading shall contain the formal parts and meet the requirements specified in this regulation.

(a) Caption. The caption of a pleading shall include the heading, the descriptive title of the docket, and the docket number assigned to the matter by the executive director of the commission.

(1) Heading. Each pleading shall contain the heading "BEFORE THE STATE CORPORATION COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF KANSAS" which shall be centered at the top of the first page of the pleading.

(2) Descriptive title. Immediately beneath the heading, and to the left of the center of the page, shall be the descriptive title of the docket. This title shall begin with the words "In the matter of" and shall be followed by a concise statement of the matter presented to the commission for its determination, including, if appropriate, a brief description of the order, authorization, permission, or certificate sought by the party initiating the docket. The name of the party initiating the docket and the names of all other parties to whom the initial pleading is directed shall be stated in the descriptive title, followed by a designation of each party's status in the proceeding. These designations shall include applicant, complainant, defendant, and respondent.

(3) Docket number. Upon the filing of the initial pleading in a docket, a docket number shall be assigned by the executive director of the commission, which shall be placed immediately to the right of the docket title. All pleadings filed in the docket after the formal initiation of the matter shall bear the same caption as that of the original pleading.

(b) Pleading title. The title of the pleading shall be centered immediately beneath the caption and shall describe the pleading contained in the numbered paragraphs that follow.

(c) Numbered paragraphs. Following the title of the pleading, the pertinent allegations of fact and law, in compliance with these regulations, shall be set forth in numbered paragraphs.

(d) Numbered pages. Beginning with the second page of the pleading, each page of the pleading shall be numbered consecutively.

(e) The prayer. The numbered paragraphs of the pleading shall be followed by the prayer, which shall be a concise and complete statement of all relief sought by the pleader. The prayer shall be brief, but shall be complete so that an order granting the prayer includes all of the relief desired and requested by the pleader.

(f) Subscription. Each pleading shall be personally subscribed or executed by one of the following methods:

(1) By the party making the same or by one of the parties, if there is more than one party;

(2) by an officer of the party, if the party is a corporation or association; or

(3) for the party, by its attorney. The names and the addresses of all parties shall appear either in the subscription or elsewhere in the pleading. The name, address, telephone number, and telefac-simile number of the attorney for the party who is the pleader shall appear either in the subscription or immediately below it. Abbreviations of names and addresses shall not be used.

(g) Verification. Each pleading shall be verified by the party or by the party's attorney, if the attorney has actual knowledge of the truth of the statements in the pleading or reasonable grounds to believe that the statements are true. Each pleading shall be verified upon affirmation that meets the requirements of K.S.A. 54-104, and amendments thereto. Any pleading by a corporation or an association may be verified by an officer or director of the corporation or association. Written verification may be waived by the commission by order at its discretion.

(h) Certificate of service. Whenever service of a pleading is required by these regulations, the party responsible for effecting service shall endorse a certificate of service upon the pleading to show compliance with these regulations. The certificate shall show service by any method authorized by K.A.R. 82-1-216.

(i) Form. Each pleading shall be typewritten on paper that is 8½" wide and 11" long. The left-hand margin shall not be less than one inch wide. The impression shall be on only one side of the paper and shall be double-spaced, except that lengthy quotations may be single-spaced and indented. Photocopies of the pleading may be filed.

(j) Rejection of document. Each document that contains defamatory, scurrilous, or unethical language shall be rejected and returned to the party filing the document. Papers, correspondence, or pleadings or any copies of papers, correspondence, or pleadings that are not clearly legible shall be rejected and returned to the party filing the document.

(k) Amendments. The amendment of any pleading may be allowed by the commission at its discretion, either by replacement of the original pleading with an amended version of it or by interlineations or deletion of material on the original pleading. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003; amended July 23, 2010.)

82-1-220. Complaints. (a) Any person may initiate a complaint proceeding by filing a formal complaint with the commission in which the rates, joint rates, fares, tolls, charges, regulations, classifications, or schedules of any public utility, motor carrier, or common carrier are alleged to be unreasonable, unfair, unjust, unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or that allege that any service performed or to be performed is illegal, unreasonably inadequate, inefficient, or unduly insufficient, or cannot be obtained.

(b) Formal complaints shall be submitted in writing and shall comply with the requirements of these regulations. Formal complaints shall meet the following conditions:

(1) Fully and completely advise each respondent and the commission as to the provisions of law or the regulations or orders of the commission that have been or are being violated by the acts or omissions complained of, or that will be violated by a continuance of acts or omissions;

(2) set forth concisely and in plain language the facts claimed by the complainant to constitute the violations; and

(3) state the relief sought by the complainant.

(c) Commission action required upon the filing of a formal complaint. A formal complaint shall, as soon as practicable, be examined by the commission to ascertain whether or not the allegations, if true, would establish a prime facie case for action by the commission and whether or not the formal complaint conforms to these regulations. If the commission determines that the formal complaint does not establish a prima facie case for commission action or does not conform to these regulations, the complainant or the complainant's attorney shall be notified of the defects, and opportunity shall be given to amend the formal complaint within a specified time. If the formal complaint is not amended to correct the defects within the time specified by the commission, it shall be dismissed. If the commission determines that the formal complaint, either as originally filed or as amended, establishes a prima facie case for commission action and conforms to these regulations, each public utility, motor carrier, or common carrier complained of shall be served by the commission a true copy of the formal complaint, and the respondent or respondents shall either satisfy the matter complained of or file a written answer within 10 days.

(d) A complainant may file an amended complaint on its own initiative upon leave granted by the commission. Each amended complaint shall set forth any new grounds for the complaint that have accrued in favor of the complainant and against the defendant subsequent to the filing of the original complaint. Each amended complaint shall be served by the commission, as provided by K.A.R. 82-1-216. If practicable, an amended complaint shall be heard, considered, and disposed of in the same proceeding as that for the original formal complaint.

(e) Multiple complaints or multiple complainants may be joined as provided by K.A.R. 82-1-224.

(f) Before or after the hearing, the parties to the proceeding may, with the approval of the commission, enter into a voluntary settlement of the subject matter of the complaint if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The matter in controversy affects only the parties involved.

(2) The issue has no direct or substantial impact upon the general public.

(g) In furtherance of a voluntary settlement, the parties may be invited by the commission to confer with a designated hearing officer or staff member. These settlement conferences shall be informal and without prejudice to the rights of the parties. No statement, admission, or offer of settlement made at an informal settlement conference shall be admissible in evidence in any formal hearing before the commission. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, 66-106; effective Feb. 15, 1977; amended May 1, 1985; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-220a. Expedited review of disputes between telecommunications service providers. (a) The expedited review process shall be used to resolve disputes between competing telecommunications carriers in an expeditious manner. Except as specifically provided in this regulation, the provisions of K.A.R. 82-1-220 shall apply.

(b) This process may be used to bring expedited resolution to disputes under interconnection agreements entered into pursuant to 47 U.S.C. secs. 251 and 252 of the federal telecommunications act of 1996. This process shall be in addition to any dispute resolution process or procedure specified in the parties' interconnection agreement. Use of this process may be requested if a dispute directly affects the ability of a party to provide uninterrupted service to its customers or affects the provisioning of any service, functionality, or network element. This process shall not be used for disputes that involve consumer complaints against the carriers or requests for damages. The commission or its designated examiner shall have the authority to shorten or lengthen the deadlines specified in this regulation if the circumstances warrant or if all parties agree.

(c) Each request for expedited review shall be filed at the same time and in the same document as those for a complaint filed in accordance with K.A.R. 82-1-220, but shall include the phrase "Request for Expedited Review" in the heading. Each complaint that includes a request for expedited review shall contain the following information:

(1) A description of the specific circumstances that make the dispute eligible for expedited review;

(2) a description of the particular service-affecting issue justifying the expedited review;

(3) a description of the parties' efforts to resolve each disputed issue, including any steps taken in accordance with the dispute resolution process contained within the parties' interconnection agreement;

(4) a list of cross-references to the area or areas of the interconnection agreement that are applicable to each disputed issue; and

(5) any proposed resolution of the dispute.

(d) On the same day on which any complaint or response to the complaint is filed with the commission in accordance with this regulation, the complaint or response shall be served on the other party, the commission legal staff, and the commission advisory counsel by hand delivery or by facsimile or electronic mail with telephonic confirmation of receipt.

(e) Within three business days after the filing of the complaint, the respondent shall respond to the issues that the complainant asserts justify the request for expedited review. If additional time is needed to respond to issues raised in the complaint, the respondent shall specifically designate which issues it will address in a later response, but the respondent shall respond to issues that the complainant has designated for expedited review.

(f) A member of the advisory counsel, legal staff, or technical staff may be designated by the commission to act as an examiner in this expedited proceeding. The designated examiner shall have the discretion to determine whether resolution of the complaint should be expedited in light of the complexity of the issues or other factors relevant to the need for a rapid and efficient decision. After reviewing the complaint and response, the examiner shall decide whether expedited review is warranted. If the examiner decides that an expedited review is warranted, the examiner shall schedule a meeting as soon as practical considering the issues raised, but no more than 10 business days after the request for expedited review was filed.

(g) If the examiner determines that the complaint is not appropriate for expedited review, the examiner shall notify the parties in writing no more than 10 business days after the request for expedited review was filed. The complainant may appeal this decision to the commission within five business days of the written decision. A prompt ruling on the appeal shall be issued by the commission.

(h) Throughout the expedited review process, the examiner shall oversee the discussion between the parties and may act in the capacity of a mediator or negotiator. The examiner may issue an interim ruling that controls the actions of the parties until a formal hearing can be conducted or a subsequent written decision is filed. The interim ruling shall be in effect throughout the complaint process. Each interim ruling shall be considered as a nonfinal agency action.

(i) If the examiner determines that an informal resolution of the issues designated for expedited review is not possible, a hearing on the expedited issues shall commence no later than 15 business days after the complaint was filed. The examiner shall notify the parties not less than two business days before the hearing of the date, time, and location of the hearing.

(j) During the expedited review, each party shall refrain from taking action that would impair the other party's ability to offer service to its end users. Furthermore, both parties shall have at all meetings, unless otherwise agreed by the parties and the examiner, persons who are authorized to resolve the dispute.

(k) The examiner may require the parties to file decision point lists on or before the commencement of the hearing. The decision point lists shall identify all issues to be addressed in the expedited process, any witnesses who will be addressing each issue, and a synopsis of each witness's position on each issue. If the examiner requires the filing of decision point lists, the decision point lists shall be filed simultaneously. Except as provided in K.S.A. 66-1220a, and amendments thereto, relating to confidential information, all materials filed with the commission or provided to the examiner shall be subject to the Kansas open records act, K.S.A. 45-215 et seq., and amendments thereto.

(l) The examiner shall make written findings and recommendations on the expedited issues in the complaint within 10 business days after the close of the hearing. The examiner shall notify the parties by facsimile or electronic mail that the decision has been issued. If necessary to fully advise the commission about the expedited review, the examiner may file supplemental findings and recommendations. The examiner shall designate a time for parties to file objections, if any, to the examiner's findings and recommendations. Pursuant to K.S.A. 77-526(i) and amendments thereto, an order shall be promptly issued by the commission on the examiner's findings and recommendations regarding the issues. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 24, 2003.)

82-1-221. Exhibits and documentary evidence. (a) (1) The applicant shall file an original and at least seven copies of all exhibits and documentary evidence unless otherwise provided in these regulations.

(2) If an applicant is required to file with its application any map, profile, certificate, statement, or other document that has already been filed with the commission, the applicant may reference rather than attach the document. The applicant shall include in its application the fact that the document has been previously filed, and the date and the proceeding in which, or occasion on which, the filing was made. The application may request that the previously filed document be incorporated by reference.

(3) Court records may be offered into evidence by reference, but shall not be received over the objection of any party unless opportunity for examination has been afforded to the objecting party.

(b) Unless otherwise directed by the commission or hearing examiner, an original and seven copies of any exhibit a party intends to offer into evidence, other than in rebuttal, shall be filed with the commission at least 10 days before the date of the hearing, and one copy of any such exhibit shall be furnished to every other party to the proceeding at least 10 days before the date of hearing. For conservation division matters, an original and four copies of any exhibit an applicant intends to offer in evidence, other than in rebuttal, shall be filed with the conservation division at least 20 days before the hearing; an original and four copies of any exhibit an intervenor or protestant intends to offer in evidence, other than in rebuttal, shall be filed with the conservation division at least 10 days before the hearing. Exceptions to these requirements may be granted only for good cause shown.

Each party desiring to introduce an exhibit during the course of the hearing shall furnish six copies to the commission and one copy to every other party to the proceeding. Any exhibit that is not filed within the required time limit may be refused by the commission.

(c) The presiding commissioner or hearing examiner shall assign numbers to the exhibits at the time they are marked for identification at the hearing.

(d) If relevant and material matter offered as documentary evidence by any party is embraced in a book, paper, or document containing other matter not material or relevant, the party offering the documentary evidence shall plainly designate the matter offered. If other matter is in a volume that would encumber the record, the book, paper, or document shall not be received in evidence. In this case, the voluminous matter may be marked for identification, and, if properly authenticated, the relevant or material matter may be read into the record. Alternately, a true copy of the matter, in proper form, may be received as an exhibit if the presiding commissioner or examiner so directs.

(e) The party offering the exhibit shall deliver copies of the exhibit to opposing parties or their attorneys. The opposing parties or their attorneys shall be afforded an opportunity to examine the book, paper, or document, and to offer into evidence in like manner other material and relevant portions of the exhibit. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-221a. Confidentiality. (a) Any document, data, customer-specific contract, proprietary information, trade secret, or other commercial information filed with or furnished to the Kansas corporation commission (commission) as confidential shall, in addition to the requirements set forth in the Kansas statutes annotated and the Kansas administrative regulations, comply with the following requirements:

(1) The term “document” or “documents,” as used in this regulation, means any original, copy, or draft of any handwritten, typewritten, printed, graphic, or electronically recorded material, and shall include the following:

- (A) Correspondence;
- (B) notes;

- (C) memoranda;
- (D) studies;
- (E) reports;
- (F) records;
- (G) charts;
- (H) invoices;
- (I) bills;
- (J) diaries;
- (K) calendars;
- (L) books;
- (M) statements;
- (N) appointment books;
- (O) tape recordings;
- (P) videos;
- (Q) faxes;
- (R) computer printouts and software;
- (S) electronically recorded media; and
- (T) any other writing or tangible record of any kind, type, or nature, and however produced.

(2) The party seeking to classify documents as confidential shall file with or furnish to the executive director of the commission each document clearly marked “CONFIDENTIAL,” accompanied by a cover letter requesting confidential status.

(3) Confidential information contained on a floppy disk or other electronic device shall be filed or furnished separately from other devices containing nonconfidential information. The electronic device containing the confidential material shall be clearly marked “CONFIDENTIAL.”

(4) The information contained on floppy disks or other electronic devices shall also contain the “CONFIDENTIAL” designation on each page or other subdivision of information when printed.

(5) A written explanation of the confidential nature of each document shall accompany each page for which confidential status is sought. One written explanation may apply to more than one page of confidential information, if the identity and confidential nature of each individual page is clearly stated in the explanation. The explanation shall be specific to the document in question and shall state whether the information constitutes a trade secret or confidential commercial information. The explanation shall further specify the harm or potential harm that disclosure would cause to the entity seeking nondisclosure.

(b) Requests for information classified as confidential shall be made by filing a written request with the executive director of the commission and using a form provided by the commission for this purpose, or by motion from a party to the docket in which the information is sought.

(1) If a request for information classified as confidential is not filed as a motion in an active KCC docket, the entity seeking to maintain the confidential status of the information shall be notified by the commission of the request. The entity seeking to maintain the confidential status shall have five working days after service, plus three days if service is by mail, to respond to this request. Any response filed with the commission in opposition to a request shall substantiate the basis for nondisclosure and shall be served upon the commission and the entity requesting disclosure. The entity requesting disclosure may reply to the response within five working days after service, plus three days if service is by mail, by serving a reply upon the entity seeking to maintain nondisclosure and upon the commission.

(2) A request made by a party to a docket for disclosure of confidential documents or information contained within the docket shall be made by motion. No party shall request disclosure from the commission of information classified as confidential until the party has requested the information in writing from the party seeking to maintain its confidential nature and this request has been denied. The motion shall proceed in accordance with the Kansas corporation commission's rules of practice and procedure, K.A.R. 82-1-201 et seq.

(3) A determination of the confidential nature of the information and whether or not to require the disclosure of the confidential information requested under paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) above shall be issued by the commission in accordance with K.S.A. 66-1220a and amendments thereto.

(c) Each person making a request pursuant to K.S.A. 45-215 et seq., and amendments thereto, for nonconfidential information shall submit the request in writing and shall include the requester's name, address, telephone number, and the name of the business or entity represented.

(d) Confidential documents submitted to the corporation commission before the adoption of this regulation, including information required by statute, regulation, or order of the commission, shall be handled in accordance with statutes, regulations, and orders applicable at the time the document was submitted. Requests for access to any of this information shall be handled in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(e) Documents filed pursuant to K.A.R. 82-3-107 shall be exempt from the requirements of this regulation. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-1220a; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-

101c, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-117, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-151, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-2010, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-1,190, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-1,203 and K.S.A. 55-704; effective March 12, 1999.)

82-1-221b. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-1220a; implementing K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-101c, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-117, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-151, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-2010, K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-1,190, and K.S.A. 1997 Supp. 66-1,203; effective March 12, 1999; revoked Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-222. Prehearing conferences; procedure. (a) In any matter pending before the commission and not governed by the KAPA, the attorneys for the parties to appear before the commission for a prehearing conference may be directed by the commission at its discretion or on the request of any party to consider any of the following:

- (1) The simplification of the issues;
- (2) the trial of issues of law, the determination of which may eliminate or affect the trial of issues of fact;
- (3) the necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (4) the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents that will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (5) the limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (6) the advisability of a preliminary reference of issues of fact to an examiner or an investigator appointed by the commission; or
- (7) any other matters that may aid in the disposition of the proceeding.

(b) Preliminary reference. If in the course of a prehearing conference any issues are referred to a presiding officer or an investigator appointed by the commission, the findings of fact of the presiding officer or investigator shall be reduced to writing, filed as an exhibit, and admitted into evidence at the hearing.

(c) Prehearing order. A prehearing order shall be made to reflect the action taken at the prehearing conference, any amendments allowed to the pleadings, and any agreements by the parties relating to any of the matters considered at the prehearing conference. Any agreements by the parties or their attorneys that limit the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel shall be in writing and shall be filed. The preliminary order, when entered, shall control the subsequent course of the proceeding, unless modified by the commission to prevent manifest injustice. A calendar on which proceedings may be placed for consideration at prehearing conferences may be published by the commission at its discretion, or the attorneys for the parties may be summoned, or the parties themselves, or both, to a prehearing conference upon notice as may be deemed reasonable by the commission. 82-1-223. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; revoked July 23, 1990.)

82-1-224. Joinder of proceedings and parties. (a) For good cause shown, the joinder of any proceeding with another proceeding may be permitted by the commission. However, issues that are not germane to each other and that require separate and distinct proof shall not be joined in the same proceeding.

(c) The broadening of issues may be permitted by the commission in any proceeding before the commission.

(d) Two or more grounds of complaint involving the same purposes, subjects, or statement of facts may be included in one complaint, but shall be separately stated and numbered.

(e) Two or more complainants may join in one complaint if their respective causes of complaint are against the same defendant or defendants and involve substantially the same purposes, subjects or subject matter and a similar statement of facts. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-225. Intervention. This regulation shall apply to both KAPA and non-KAPA proceedings. (a) The presiding officer shall grant a petition for intervention if the following conditions are met:

named in the presiding officer's notice of the hearing, at least three days before the hearing.

(2) The petition states facts demonstrating that the petitioner's legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities, or other legal interests may be substantially affected by the proceeding or that the petitioner qualifies as an intervenor under any provision of law.

(3) The presiding officer determines that the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings will not be impaired by allowing the intervention.

(b) The presiding officer may grant a petition for intervention at any time upon determining that the intervention sought is in the interests of justice and will not impair the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.

(c) If a petitioner qualifies for intervention, the presiding officer may impose conditions upon the intervenor's participation in the proceedings, either at the time that intervention is granted or at any subsequent time. The conditions may include the following:

(1) Limiting the intervenor's participation to designated issues in which the intervenor has a particular interest demonstrated by the petition;

(2) limiting the intervenor's use of discovery, cross-examination, and other procedures so as to promote the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings; and

(3) requiring two or more intervenors to combine their presentations of evidence and argument, cross-examination, discovery, and other participation in the proceedings.

(d) The presiding officer, at least 24 hours before the hearing, shall issue an order granting or denying each pending petition for intervention, specifying any conditions, and briefly stating the reasons for the order. The presiding officer may modify the order at any time, stating the reasons for the modification. The presiding officer shall promptly give notice of an order granting, denying, or modifying intervention to the petitioner for intervention and to all parties. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

either the commission or a hearing examiner shall commence at the time and place fixed in the notice, but may be adjourned from time to time or from place to place by the presiding commissioner or the hearing examiner without further notice. Continuances and adjournments may be requested orally, and an oral request may be granted or denied at the discretion of the hearing examiner or the commission. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-227. Subpoenas. (a) Subpoenas may be issued by the commission or by any commissioner, or by the presiding officer, upon written petition by any party to the proceeding. Every subpoena shall contain the caption of the docket and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at the time and place specified.

(b) A subpoena duces tecum shall be issued in the same manner and form as a subpoena for the attendance of a witness, and may command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible items designated in the subpoena. Upon a prompt motion, and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena duces tecum for compliance, any of the following actions may be taken by the commission:

(2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the party on whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible items.

(c) Service of a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall be made by delivering a copy of the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum to the person and by tendering to the person the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. A subpoena or subpoena duces tecum may be served by means of any of the following:

(1) Restricted mail;

(2) the sheriff;

(3) the sheriff's deputy; or

(4) any other person who is designated by the commission or the party requesting issuance thereof, who is not a party to the proceeding, and who is not less than 18 years of age.

(d) If the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is not served by the sheriff or the sheriff's deputy, proof of service shall be shown by affidavit or by return receipt of restricted mail.

(e) Each person who is ordered by commission subpoena to appear as a witness before the commission, or any person authorized by the commission to preside at a hearing, in answer to a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall receive fees and mileage as provided by law.

(f) The party petitioning for the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall forward to the commission, along with the written petition, fees made payable to the person being subpoenaed in an amount equal to the statutory fee for one day's attendance, plus mileage computed at the rate allowed by law for travel over the most direct route from the party's place of residence to the designated place for hearing and back. The subpoena or subpoena duces tecum and fees may then be issued by the commission as requested in the petition. The petitioning party shall be directly responsible for the payment of any and all costs incurred by the sheriff, the sheriff's deputy, or any other person in serving the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-228. Hearings. (a) General provisions. Public hearings shall be held in the hearing rooms of the commission, in any district courtroom, at any other place in Kansas that the commission may deem appropriate, or at any place required by statute. All hearings before the commission shall be conducted by the commission or by a presiding officer, who may be a commissioner, a hearing examiner, or any other person duly authorized by the commission to conduct the hearing. The provisions of these regulations governing hearings before the commission shall be applicable to hearings conducted by the presiding officer.

(b) Convening of hearings. On the date and at the place and time stated in the notice of the hearing, the presiding officer conducting the hearing shall call the docket by announcing the docket number and by reading the caption of the case into the record. Commission hearings shall be opened in a formal way on each day upon which commission business is transacted.

(c) Scope of hearing. The presiding officer may make a concise statement of the scope and the purpose of the hearing and the issues involved at the beginning of the hearing.

(d) Appearances. Each attorney for a party, and any other representative authorized by the commission according to paragraph (3) of this subsection, shall enter an appearance by giving the attorney's or representative's name and address for the record.

(1) Except as otherwise specified in paragraph (2) of this subsection, any party may perform any of the following:

(A) Appear before the commission and be heard in person and on that party's own behalf;

(B) appear before the commission and be represented by an attorney who is regularly admitted to practice in the courts of record of the state of Kansas; or

(C) appear before the commission and be represented by any regularly admitted practicing attorney in the courts of record of another state of the United States, if the nonresident attorney complies with the requirements set forth in K.S.A. 7-104, and amendments thereto. The local counsel shall first enter the local counsel's own appearance and shall then orally move for the admission of the nonresident attorney with whom local counsel is associated. The oath required by K.S.A. 7-104, and amendments thereto, shall be administered to any nonresident attorneys by the presiding officer. An oral order admitting them as attorneys or representatives in the proceeding then pending shall be made by the presiding officer, and they shall enter their appearances on the record.

(2) Except as otherwise specified in paragraph (3) of this subsection, a corporation shall not be permitted to enter an appearance, except by its attorney.

(3) In any intrastate railroad proceeding that comes before the commission, a resident of the state of Kansas who is not an attorney-at-law may represent a party before the commission if both of these conditions are met:

(B) The person has obtained the approval of the commission to appear as a representative upon a motion. The motion shall include the individual's qualifications, the name of the party, and the proceeding in which the individual wishes to appear.

(e) Preliminary matters. Preliminary matters shall be disposed of in the following order:

(1) Petitions for intervention;

(2) any other pending petitions or motions;

(3) stipulations of the parties by which parties may make written or oral stipulations in conformance with these regulations. These stipulations shall be regarded as evidence at the hearing and shall not be binding upon the commission; and

(4) opening statements of attorneys or other representatives for the parties, if requested by the commission. Opening statements, if any, shall be made immediately before the introduction of testimony.

(f) Hearing room conduct.

(1) The conduct of attorneys and other representatives during a hearing shall be the same as the conduct required of attorneys in the district courts of Kansas. Attorneys and other representatives shall examine witnesses from a position at the counsel table, except when handling exhibits. Anyone whose conduct before the commission is deemed inappropriate may be refused permission to appear by the commission.

(2) Smoking shall not be permitted on commission premises.

(3) The use of photographic equipment or recording devices shall not be prohibited during hearings, except that the presiding officer may regulate the use of this equipment or these devices to insure the orderly conduct of the proceedings. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 66-103, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106, K.S.A. 66-165; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended, T-83-12, June 9, 1982; amended May 1, 1983; amended July 23, 1990; amended March 22, 1993; amended March 12, 1999; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-229. Use of prefiled testimony. (a) In lieu of oral examination, the examination of witnesses may be presented or, if required by the commission or by these regulations, shall be presented in written question-and-answer form. Presentation of prefiled testimony may be required by the commission in accordance with this regulation if it is deemed that doing so would be in the public interest and would be conducive to a fair and expeditious disposition of the proceeding. Any party may object to the use of prefiled testimony by a witness, and the objecting party shall have a right to be heard by the commission or the presiding officer at the hearing on the objection.

(b) All prefiled testimony shall be in typewritten form, double-spaced, on paper that is 8½ inches wide and 11 inches long. The lines on each page shall be numbered consecutively down the left side of the page. The left-hand margin of each page shall be not less than 1¼ inches wide, and the remaining margins shall be not less than one inch wide.

(c) Prefiled testimony shall be filed 10 days before the hearing unless otherwise specified. For conservation division matters, an original and four copies of any prefiled testimony that an applicant intends to offer into evidence, other than rebuttal, shall be filed with the conservation division at least 20 days before the hearing. An original and four copies of any prefiled testimony that an intervenor or protestant intends to offer into evidence, other than rebuttal, shall be filed with the conservation division at least 10 days before the hearing.

(d) At the hearing, after any prefiled testimony has been properly identified and authenticated under oath by the witness, upon motion, the prefiled testimony may be incorporated into the record in the same way as if the questions had been asked of the witness and the answers had been given by the witness orally. The prefiled testimony shall be subject to the same rules of evidence as if given orally, and the witness presenting the prefiled testimony shall be subject to cross-examination. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended, E-82-1, Jan. 21, 1981; amended May 1, 1981; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-230. Hearings; evidence and procedure. (a) Rules of evidence. The rules of evidence as stated in article four of the Kansas code of civil procedure shall be applied by the commission at all of its hearings. However, the presiding officer may relax the rules of evidence if the presiding officer believes that it is in the public interest to do so and will aid in ascertaining the facts. If an objection is made to the admissibility of evidence, the presiding officer may rule upon the objection or may receive the evidence subject to a subsequent ruling on the objection by the commission. The presiding officer may exclude inadmissible evidence on the presiding officer's own motion and may order cumulative evidence discontinued. All parties may note their exceptions on the record to any ruling or other action of the presiding officer.

(b) Order of procedure at hearings. The presiding officer shall determine the order of procedure at hearing.

(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, the following shall apply:

(A) The applicants shall open and close at hearings on applications.

(B) The complainant shall open and close at hearings on formal complaints.

(C) The staff counsel shall open and close at hearings on investigations initiated by the commission.

(2) In a hearing in which several proceedings have been consolidated for hearing on a common record, the presiding officer shall designate the party who may open and close.

(3) The presiding officer shall designate when each intervenor may be heard.

(4) In all hearings, the presiding officer may direct departures from the suggested order of procedure.

(c) Examination and cross-examination of witnesses.

(1) Subject to the provisions of K.A.R. 82-1-229, concerning the use of prefiled testimony, each witness shall be examined and cross-examined orally and under oath in the order determined by the presiding officer. The direct examination of each witness shall be followed by cross-examination of the witness. Redirect examination, if any, shall be limited in scope to the testimony upon cross-examination. Recross examination, if any, shall be limited in scope to the testimony upon redirect examination.

(2) No more than one attorney for each party shall examine or cross-examine a witness. The presiding officer may require that only one attorney be allowed to cross-examine a witness on behalf of all parties united in interest. To facilitate the orderly and expedient conduct of hearings, the presiding officer may appoint a member of the commission's legal staff to assist any party not represented by counsel in cross-examining witnesses and in presenting evidence.

(d) Going off the record. All testimony shall be taken on the record unless permission to go off the record is first granted, upon request, by the presiding officer.

(e) Excluded evidence. If an objection to a question propounded to a witness is sustained by the presiding officer, the examining attorney may make a proffer of the excluded evidence. The presiding officer may add other statements to clearly show the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling made. Upon request, the excluded testimony ny or evidence shall be marked and preserved for the record upon appeal.

(f) Further evidence. At any stage of the hearing, or after the close of the testimony, the presiding officer may call for further evidence upon any issue and may require such evidence to be presented by the party or parties concerned or by the staff counsel, either at the hearing or at a further hearing.

(g) "Late-filed" exhibits. The presiding officer may authorize any party to the proceeding to file, within a designated time period, specific documentary evidence as part of the record. Exhibit numbers may be assigned in advance at the hearing to these items of documentary evidence.

(h) Administrative notice. In addition to matters that are required or permitted to be judicially noticed by K.S.A. 60-409 and amendments thereto, the presiding officer may take administrative notice of commission files and records in deciding matters pending before it.

(i) Briefs. Submission of briefs by the parties may be authorized or required by the presiding officer or the commission. The period of time in which briefs and reply briefs shall be filed may be fixed by order setting the procedural schedule or at the close of the hearing by the presiding officer. Any brief required by an order setting the procedural schedule may be waived by the presiding officer at the close of the hearing or by further commission order. Briefs shall be served in the same manner and upon the same persons as required for other pleadings.

(j) Closing the record. A hearing shall be concluded and the matter shall be submitted to the commission when all parties have submitted any requested briefs and all parties have completed oral arguments. If the parties submit no briefs and make no oral arguments, the presiding officer shall announce that the record of exhibits and testimony is closed and that the matter is taken under advisement. The matter shall then be submitted to the commission.

(k) Reopening the record. After the record of testimony has been closed by the presiding officer, any party may apply to reopen the record for good cause shown. However, no record shall be reopened for further hearing except upon order of the commission. Any record of any hearing may be reopened by the commission on its own motion. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-106; effective Jan. 1, 1966; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended May 1, 1985; amended July 23, 1990; amended Oct. 10, 2003.)

(1) "Settlement agreement" means an agreement between parties to a proceeding submitted to the commission to dispose of all or any part of the issues pending for decision.

(2) "Unanimous settlement agreement" means an agreement that is entered into by all parties to the proceeding or an agreement that is not opposed by any party that did not enter into the agreement.

(3) "Nonunanimous settlement agreement" means an agreement that is entered into by fewer than all parties to the proceeding and is opposed by one or more parties.

(b) Unanimous settlement agreements and nonunanimous settlement agreements shall be filed as pleadings and may be approved, rejected, or modified by the commission. A settlement agreement may contain or refer to explanatory material or information in support of the justness and reasonableness of the settlement agreement. A hearing may be conducted by the commission for the purpose of receiving evidence or argument concerning the settlement agreement.

(c) Each party objecting to the settlement agreement shall file a written objection within 10 days after the filing of the settlement agreement or within a shorter time period as directed by the commission. Failure to object in a timely manner shall constitute a waiver of that party's right to object to the settlement agreement. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 74-616; effective Oct. 10, 2003.)

82-1-231. Filing requirements for rate proceedings. (a) Each electric, gas, telecommunications, or water utility whose rates are under review by the commission at the request of the utility shall comply with this regulation and shall be prepared to establish, by appropriate schedules and competent testimony, all relevant facts and data pertaining to its business and operations that will assist the commission in arriving at a determination of rates that are fair, just, and reasonable both to the utility and the public. However, a telecommunications utility subject to price cap regulation pursuant to K.S.A. 66-2005(b), and amendments thereto, shall not be required to file the information described in this regulation with applications requesting a change in rates pursuant to K.S.A. 66-2005(g), (i), (j), (n), (o), (p), (r), and (s), and amendments thereto. Electric, gas, telecommunications, or water utilities whose rates are under review as a result of an investigation, complaint, or any other procedure may be required by the commission, on its own motion or by party request, to submit the same information described in subsection (c) of this regulation.

(b) Procedures for different classes of utilities.

(1) For filing purposes, each utility shall be classified according to K.A.R. 82-1-204a.

(2) Each class A electric, gas, water, and telecommunications utility that files a major rate application, on its own initiative or as directed by the commission, shall prepare and submit its application and schedules in conformity with subsection (c) of this regulation. Any rural electric cooperative distribution system providing service to fewer than 15,000 customers may elect to follow the procedures outlined in K.A.R. 82-1-231a. Electric, gas, water, and telecommunications utilities, other than class A, may elect to follow the procedures outlined in K.A.R. 82-1-231b.

(3) Any utility that proposes a change in rates within 12 months after a commission order following a general rate proceeding and investigation may submit schedules eliminating data that duplicates information provided in the original schedules if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The utility is willing to adopt all the regulatory procedures, principles, and rate of return established by the commission in that order.

(B) The utility receives prior approval from the commission.

(4) An application by a class A utility shall be construed to be a major rate application if any of the following conditions is met:

(A) The application relates to a general increase in revenues for the purpose of obtaining an alleged fair rate of return.

(B) Material changes in operations, facilities, or cost of service occur subsequent to the test year employed in any major rate decision, except for proposals that are for the sole purpose of compensating for the increased production or purchase cost of a principal product.

(C) The application will, in the opinion of the commission, materially affect the public interest if it is granted.

(c) Class A utility rate proceedings: application and evidence.

(1) Each major rate application by a class A utility shall be accompanied by schedules that will indicate to the commission the nature and extent of the relief requested.

(2) Each application shall be based upon data submitted for a test year. The test year selected by the applicant may be disapproved by the commission for cause.

(3) The original, nine photocopies, and one electronic copy of the application and supporting schedules shall be filed with the commission. The supporting schedules shall be organized by topical sections with page numbers for each schedule. Negative numbers shall be shown in parentheses. Amounts included in the application shall be cross-referenced between the appropriate summary schedule and supporting schedules as well as between the various sections. Referencing shall include allocation ratios. All items shall be self-explanatory, or additional information, cross-references or explanatory footnotes shall be presented on the schedule.

(A) Original and photocopies. The original and each photocopy of the application and schedule shall be bound together under one loose-leaf binder. If the bulk of the material would make such handling impractical, two or more volumes in loose-leaf form shall be filed. The size of print used in the application and schedules shall not be smaller than elite type reduced 25 percent. The application shall be assembled with index tabs for each section.

(B) Electronic copy. The electronic application and schedules shall be submitted in a format and type of disk that the applicant and staff have agreed upon. All formulas shall be imbedded in the schedule, and all schedules shall be linked where appropriate. Reports required by paragraphs (c)(4)(A), (B), (M) and (P) shall be exempted from the electronic filing requirement. A waiver may be granted from all or any part of the electronic filing requirement.

(4) The form, order, and titles of each section shall conform to the following requirements:

(A) Section 1: Application, letter of transmittal, and authorization. This section shall contain a copy of the application, a copy of the letter of transmittal, and the appropriate document or documents authorizing the filing of the application, if any.

(B) Section 2: General information and publicity. This section shall describe the means generally employed by the utility to acquaint the general public that would be affected by the proposed rate change with the nature and extent of the proposal.

This section may include statements concerning newspaper articles and advertisements, meetings with public officials, civic organizations, and citizen groups, and shall include general information concerning the application that will be of interest to the public and suitable for publication. This information shall include the following, if applicable:

(i) The aggregate annual revenue increase that the application proposes;

(ii) the names of communities affected;

(iii) the number and classification of customers to be affected;

(iv) the average, per customer increase sought in dollars and cents;

(v) a summary of the reasons for filing the application;

(vi) any other pertinent information that the applicant may desire to submit or that the commission may require; and

(vii) copies of any press releases issued by the applicant before or at the time of filing the application for a rate review that relate to that review.

(C) Section 3: Summary of rate base, operating income, and rate of return. This section shall contain schedules that show the components of the test year rate base, operating revenues, expenses, and income as well as the rate of return under the present and proposed tariff or tariffs. The schedules shall be presented as follows:

(i) The first schedule shall summarize, for each utility service for which the rate change is sought, the total Kansas and commission jurisdictional components of the rate base, operating revenues, expenses, net income, and rate of return.

(ii) Supporting schedules shall show the unadjusted commission jurisdictional figures and shall further set out each adjustment to arrive at the total adjustments. When added to the unadjusted total, the adjusted commission jurisdictional figures shall correspond with the commission jurisdictional figures presented on the first schedule of this section.

(iii) Additional schedules not applicable to other sections of the application may be set out in this section.

(D) Section 4: Plant investments. This section shall contain the items of plant investment, presented in the following manner:

(i) The first schedule shall detail, by functional classification, unadjusted amounts, adjustments to these amounts, and jurisdictional allocations.

(ii) Supplemental schedules, by primary account, shall set forth year-end plant investment for the three calendar years preceding the test year, for the test year, and for the 12-month period preceding the test year. Additional schedules setting forth pertinent information related to the plant may be submitted under this section. "Primary account," as utilized in this regulation, shall mean the account classification provided in the uniform system of accounts prescribed by the commission for the utility.

(E) Section 5: Accumulated provision for depreciation, amortization, and depletion. This section shall contain schedules that shall show by functional classification, using dates corresponding with the dates of plant investment data submitted under section 4, the balances of the reserve accounts in which the credits representing provisions for depreciation, amortization, depletion, any adjustments thereto, and jurisdictional allocations are accumulated. Upon commission request, or if considered relevant by the utility, schedules may be submitted showing analysis of the activities of the reserve accounts relating to the plant in service, segregated by primary accounts, or other segregation as is required by the uniform system of accounts prescribed by the commission for that utility.

(F) Section 6: Working capital. This section shall set forth in detail each component of the working capital items the applicant proposes to submit as elements in the composition of the rate base. This section shall be presented as follows:

(i) The first schedule shall contain the components included in working capital, adjustments to this, and jurisdictional allocations.

(ii) The method of calculation for each component of working capital and a complete explanation of any pro forma adjustments shall be included in supporting schedules.

(G) Section 7: Capital and cost of money. This section shall contain the following:

(i) A schedule indicating the amounts of the major components of the capital structures of the utility, including long-term debt, preferred stock, and common equity, outstanding at the beginning and at the end of the test year. This schedule shall contain the ratios of each component to the total capital including the percentage cost and the requested overall rate of return. If only a portion of the capital serves the utility operations involved in the proceeding, as would be the case in a multiutility or multistate operation, the schedule shall show an appropriate allocation of the capital items;

(ii) a schedule disclosing the cost of each issue of debt and preferred stock outstanding, with due allowance for premiums, discounts, and issuance expense. Data relating to the other components of capital as may be appropriate shall also be included;

(iii) a schedule displaying historical interest coverage for at least the three calendar years preceding the test year, the test year, and the 12-month period preceding the test year. The method used in the calculation shall be indicated and shall be consistent with the applicant's bond and indenture requirements; and

(iv) the consolidated capital structure, if the applicant is a part of a consolidated group or a division of another company.

(H) Section 8: Financial and operating data. This section shall contain the following, for each of the three calendar years immediately preceding the test year, the test year, and the 12-month period preceding the test year:

(i) A balance sheet by primary account;

(ii) comparative income and retained earnings statements. The primary account numbers shall be shown, and dividends paid, by class of stock, shall be indicated;

(iii) operating revenue and expenses by primary accounts;

(iv) operating statistics appropriate to the type of utility, including kwh or mcf sales by rate schedules and customer consumption, power cost per kwh, minutes of use identified by access or toll and toll, and recurring and nonrecurring, and maintenance cost per subscriber. The statistics shall be presented in at least the same detail as is required in the annual reports to the commission; and

(v) annual payrolls by primary account.

(I) Section 9: Test year and pro forma income statements. The first schedule shall present an operating income statement depicting the unadjusted test year operations, pro forma test year operations, and allocations to jurisdictions. Supporting schedules shall set forth a full and complete explanation of the purpose and rationale for the pro forma adjustments. These pro forma adjustments may include the following:

(i) Adjustments to reflect the elimination or normalization of nonrecurring and unusual items; and

(ii) adjustments for known or determinable changes in revenue and expenses.

(J) Section 10: Depreciation and amortization. This section shall include the schedules indicating depreciation rates by primary account, depreciation expense for the test year, and amounts charged to operations, clearing accounts, and construction. If items of amortization appear in the

(B) If at the close of the 90-day comment period, substantial comment has not been received, a final order making the temporary rates permanent shall be issued by the commission. If at the close of the 90-day comment period, substantial comment has been received, further investigation and hearing may be ordered by the commission.

82-1-241. Application for compensation. An intervenor who wishes to apply for an award of compensation shall file within thirty (30) days after filing of an application, a complaint, or an order of the commission initiating a proceeding:

(a) A petition to intervene.

(b) An application setting forth:

(1) A statement of the PURPA position which the intervenor intends to raise in the proceeding.

(2) A statement identifying the consumer interest represented by the intervenor, the relevance of the proceeding to that interest, and why participation is necessary for a full and fair determination of the issues.

(3) A statement of the intervenor's financial position and a showing that without compensation preparation for and participation in the proceeding in order to advocate a PURPA position will impose a significant financial hardship on the intervenor.

(4) A detailed schedule of expected expenses for attorneys' fees, expert witness fees, and other reasonable expenses of preparing for, and participating in the proceeding. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106, 66-1,185; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,185; effective, E-81-42, Dec. 17, 1980; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-1-242. Preliminary hearing. To determine eligibility for compensation, a preliminary hearing for the presentation of evidence by all parties to the proceeding shall be held within a reasonable time after the final date for intervenor filing of an application for compensation. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106, 66-1,185; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,185; effective, E-81-42, Dec. 17, 1980; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-1-243. Preliminary commission determination. The preliminary commission determination shall contain a ruling on the following: (a) Whether the intervenor has met its burden of showing significant financial hardship.

(b) A designation, if appropriate, to join as one (1) party all intervenors with the same or similar interests.

(c) Whether the intervenor has or represents an interest which would otherwise not be adequately represented in the proceeding and representation of which is necessary for a fair determination in the proceeding.

(d) A preliminary award of compensation to eligible intervenors based on the evidence presented of the cost to prepare for and participate in the proceeding in order to advocate the PURPA positions which the intervenor intends to raise, subject to evaluation and determination by the commission at the close of the hearing.

(e) No payment will be made prior to the final order in the proceeding. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106, 66-1,185; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,185; effective, E-81-42, Dec. 17, 1980; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-1-244. Accounting of costs. (a) Within ten (10) days after the close of the hearing any intervenor seeking compensation shall file with the secretary of the commission a complete itemized accounting of its actual costs.

(b) All records of the intervenor pertaining to costs for which compensation is sought shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times by the commission and the utility from which such compensation is sought. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106, 66-1,185; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,185; effective, E-81-42, Dec. 17, 1980; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-1-245. Award of compensation. (a) At the close of the hearing the commission shall permit all parties to submit written briefs commenting on intervenor compensation.

(b) The commission shall make a final award of compensation to eligible intervenors if in its opinion the intervenor substantially contributed to the approval, in whole or in part, of a position which relates to any subtitle B standard.

(c) The award of compensation shall be measured against the prevailing market rates for persons of comparable training and experience who are offering similar services. In no event shall the fees exceed those paid by the commission or the utility, whichever is greater, for persons of comparable training who are offering similar services. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106, 66-1,185; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,185; effective, E-81-42, Dec. 17, 1980; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-1-246. Payment of compensation. (a) Costs of compensation shall be assessed against the utility or utilities participating in the proceeding.

(b) Payment shall be made by the affected utility or utilities directly to the intervenor within thirty (30) days after service of the commission's order determining the reasonable amount of compensation. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106, 66-1,185; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,185; effective, E-81-42, Dec. 17, 1980; effective May 1, 1981.)

(83) "Well history" means the chronological record of the development and completion of a well.

(84) “Well log” means the written record progressively describing the well’s down-hole development.

(b) Any term not defined in this regulation or in any applicable commission rule, regulation, or order shall be interpreted to be consistent with its common use in the industry. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, 55-602, 55-604, 55-704, and 55-901; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, 55-171, 55-172, 55-602, 55-704, 55-901, and 74-623; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended, T-84-19, July 26, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended May 1, 1986; amended, T-87-46, Dec. 19, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 1, 1988; amended May 8, 1989; amended April 23, 1990; amended July 29, 1991; amended March 20, 1995; amended Oct. 25, 1996; amended March 19, 1999; amended April 23, 2004; amended Dec. 22, 2006.)

(1) The operator shall use a drill bit that is at least two and one-quarter inches larger in diameter than the surface casing, when measured from the outside of the casing.

(2) The annular space between the surface casing and the borehole shall be filled with a portland cement blend and maintained at surface level.

(3) If cement does not circulate, the operator shall notify the appropriate district office immediately and perform remedial cementing sufficient to prevent fluid migration. If the surface casing is perforated, the operator shall pressure-test the surface casing according to district office specifications to ensure mechanical integrity.

(4) The use of any material other than a portland cement blend shall be prohibited.

(5) The cemented casing string shall stand and further operations shall not begin until the cement has been in place for at least eight hours and has reached a compressive strength of 300 pounds per square inch.

(A) If the surface casing is 300 feet or less, a centralizer shall be installed at the top of the shoe joint.

(B) If the surface casing is more than 300 feet, a centralizer shall be installed at approximately 300 feet and at every fourth joint of casing to the bottom of the surface casing.

(7) When total depth has been reached during drilling operations, the operator or contractor shall not move the rig off of the well until the required casing has been run or the well has been plugged. All wells that are subject to the documents adopted in paragraph (b)(2) shall be exempt from the requirements in this paragraph.

(e) Each operator of a well not in compliance with this regulation shall shut the well in until compliance is achieved.

(f) Upon written, timely request by an operator, the director may provide an exception to any of the requirements of this regulation. In considering a request for an exception, the director may require the operator to provide financial assurance sufficient to cover the plugging costs for the well. Each request shall demonstrate that fresh and usable water will be protected by the proposed exception. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 55-152, K.S.A. 55-159, K.S.A. 55-162; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended, T-85-1, Jan. 13, 1984; amended, T-85-51, Dec. 19, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended May 1, 1986; amended, T-87-46, Dec. 19, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 1, 1988; amended May 8, 1989; amended April 23, 1990; amended Feb. 24, 1992; amended March 20, 1995; amended Aug. 14, 2015.)

(b) All formation samples or drill cuttings normally saved in drilling or recompletion operations and any cores taken shall be retained by the operator for 120 days after the spudding of the well.

(c)(1) Upon request of the Kansas geological survey as specified in paragraph (c)(2), the samples shall be washed and cut into splits or sets. One set shall be placed in labelled sample envelopes and delivered, at the prepaid expense of the operator, to the Kansas geological survey, sample library, Wichita, Kansas. Upon request of the Kansas geological survey, all cores or core longitudinal sections not required by the operator for well evaluation purposes shall be placed in stratigraphic sequence in adequate boxes, labelled with the well name, location, and footage, and delivered, at the prepaid expense of the operator, to the Kansas geological survey, Lawrence, Kansas.

(2) The operator shall be given notice that samples or cores are required by a notice appended to or on a copy of the notice of intention to drill returned to the operator by the conservation division or the Kansas geological survey. Delivery of the processed samples or cores shall be made within 120 days of the spud date or date of commencement of recompletion of the well.

(3) If retention of the core is required by the operator, designated Kansas geological survey staff members shall be provided unrestricted access to the core at the operator's facility during the operator's normal business hours. This access shall be subject to any confidentiality requests made under subsection (e).

(4) Operators in physical possession of cores requested by the Kansas geological survey shall not dispose of the cores without permission of the Kansas geological survey.

- (ii) an image file.

If electronic log files are available, these files shall be delivered to the conservation division in lieu of the paper logs required by this regulation.

(2) For good cause shown, an extension of 60 days may be granted by the supervisor of the production department or the supervisor's designated agent for the submission of the required information. The request for extension shall be submitted in writing and received before the expiration of the 120-day period.

(3) The conservation division shall deposit the information with the Kansas geological survey.

(4) Failure to deliver the information to the conservation division shall be punishable by a $500 penalty and operator license review.

(e)(1) If a written request for confidentiality is made to the conservation division within 120 days of the spud date or the date of commencement of recompletion of the well, all information, samples, or cores filed as required in subsections (c) or (d)

(g) Approval of intent to drill. Upon the issuance of a written permit by the conservation division for the well location exception, the proposed notice of intention to drill shall be approved in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-103, if all other applicable requirements for approval have been met.

(h) Allowable required. Each operator of any well drilled nearer than the minimum distance required by subsection (a) or (b) from any lease or unit boundary line without a previously obtained well location exception shall be prohibited from producing either oil or gas until an appropriate allowable is determined.

(i) Factors considered for allowable. Whenever authority is granted to drill a well at a location other than a location specified by this regulation, the allowable shall be determined by the conservation division for the protection of the correlative rights of all persons entitled to share in the common source of supply in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-207 and K.A.R. 82-3-312. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, 55-603, 55-605, 55-703a, 55-706; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended, T-85-51, Dec. 19, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended May 1, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 1, 1988; amended April 23, 1990; amended Jan. 14, 2005; amended Oct. 24, 2008.)

(d) Except as otherwise specified in this subsection, the drilling of any wells within an area subject to an application for spacing or proration shall be prohibited until the commission has issued a final order on the application. However, any operator may drill a well during the pendency of the application if the well location conforms to the most restrictive location provisions in the application. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704; implementing K.S.A. 55-603, K.S.A. 55-703a, K.S.A. 55-704; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended, T-85-51, Dec. 19, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 1, 1988; amended May 8, 1989; amended April 23, 1990; amended Aug. 14, 2015.)

82-3-110. Penalties for violations of well spacing, basic proration orders. (a) Any well drilled or being drilled in violation of an order or rule of the commission in effect at the time drilling commences shall be considered to be an unlawful location. Such a well shall be presumed to be in violation of correlative rights and to constitute waste. A show cause order to determine whether the drilling of the well was necessary to protect correlative rights or prevent waste may be issued by the commission, either upon receipt of a complaint or on the commission's own motion. A hearing shall be held after notice to all interested parties.

(b) If the commission determines that good cause has not been shown or that an exception should be denied, an order may be issued by the commission requiring the well to be permanently capped or plugged and abandoned in accordance with the rules of the commission, or production at a reduced rate may be permitted by the commission to ensure protection of correlative rights and the prevention of waste. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 55-604, 55-605, K.S.A. 55-703a, 55-704; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended April 23, 1990.)

82-3-111. Temporarily abandoned wells; penalty; plugging. (a) Temporary abandonment approval or plugging required. Within 90 days after operations cease on any well drilled for the purpose of exploration, discovery, service, or production of oil, gas, or other minerals, the operator of that well shall perform either of the following:

- (1) Plug the well; or
- (2) file an application with the conservation division requesting temporary abandonment authority, on a form prescribed by the conservation division.

(b) Approval of temporary abandonment. No well shall be temporarily abandoned as described in subsection (a) unless first approved by the conservation division. If the operations on any temporarily abandoned well or other inactive well are not resumed within one year after the application has been approved, the well shall be deemed a permanently abandoned well, and the operator of the well shall comply with regulations of the commission relating to the plugging of wells. Upon application to the conservation division before the expiration of the one-year period and for good cause shown, the period may be extended by the conservation division for one year. Additional one-year extensions may be granted by the conservation division. A well shall not be eligible for temporary abandonment status if the well has been shut in for 10 years or more without an application for an exception pursuant to K.A.R. 82-3-100 and approval by the commission. The failure to file a notice of temporary abandonment shall be punishable by a $100 penalty.

(c) Right of denial. After an application for temporary abandonment has been filed, the well shall be subject to inspection by the conservation division to determine whether its temporary abandonment could cause pollution of fresh and usable water resources. If necessary to prevent the pollution of fresh and usable water, temporary abandonment may be denied by the conservation division, and the well may be required to be plugged or repaired according to the direction of the conservation division and in accordance with its regulations.

(d) Plugging of temporarily abandoned wells. At the expiration of any approved temporary abandonment period, each well temporarily abandoned shall be plugged, repaired, or returned to operation in accordance with applicable regulations.

(e) Certain wells exempted. The requirements of this regulation shall not apply to any well that meets all of the following criteria:

- (1) The well is fully equipped for production of oil or gas or for injection.
- (2) The well is capable of immediately resuming production of oil or gas or of injection.
- (3) The well is subject to a valid, continuing oil and gas lease.
- (4) The cessation period for the well is less than 365 consecutive days.
- (5) The well is otherwise in full compliance with all of the commission's regulations.

(f) Post-exemption requirements. The date on which a well ceases to qualify for the exemption specified in subsection (e) shall be deemed to be the date operations ceased on the well, for purposes of subsection (a). (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 55-152 and 55-164; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended April 23, 1990; amended Jan. 25, 2002; amended Oct. 24, 2008.)

82-3-112. Shut-off test; when required.

Whenever it appears to the conservation division that any water from any well is migrating or infiltrating into oil-bearing or gas-bearing strata or that any detrimental substances are infiltrating any fresh and usable water, a shut-off test may be required by the conservation division, to be made at the expense of the operator or owner of that well. The time and procedure for the taking of the test shall be fixed by the conservation division. Reasonable notice of the test shall be given to the owner or operator.

The person legally responsible for the proper care and control of any abandoned oil or gas well from which water is migrating or infiltrating into any oil-bearing or gas-bearing strata, or from which any detrimental substances are infiltrating any fresh or usable water, shall immediately plug or repair the well in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-114 or 82-3-115 and shall prevent the infiltration of oil, gas, salt water or other detrimental substances into underground fresh and usable water strata. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-602; implementing K.S.A. 55-157; effective, T-83-44, Dec.

82-3-113. Notice of intention to plug and abandon a well; supervision; penalty.

(a) Notice required; penalty. Before any work is commenced to plug and abandon any well drilled for the discovery of oil or gas, for underground porosity gas storage, or for disposal of salt water, or to plug and abandon any injection well for enhanced recovery, including any well drilled below the fresh and usable water level, the operator shall give written notice to the conservation division of the intention to plug and abandon that well. The notice shall be submitted upon a form furnished by the conservation division and shall contain all of the information requested on it. The failure to file a notice of intention to plug and abandon a well shall be punishable by a $100 penalty.

(b) Plugging instructions; scheduling.

(1) Upon receipt of the notice, the notice shall be acknowledged by the conservation division by letter to the operator. The letter shall provide instructions to the operator, including the name of the district office that is to be notified, and a requirement that the operator submit a proposed plugging plan.

(2) The operator shall notify the appropriate district office of the operator's proposed plugging plan no later than five days before the plugging.

(c) Exceptions. Exceptions from the notice requirement on the plugging of wells may be granted by the district office if either of the following conditions is met:

(1) A drilling rig already at work on location is ready to commence plugging operations on a dry and abandoned well.

(2) An emergency situation exists. In this case, the operator shall orally notify and present the plugging proposal to the district office.

This regulation shall be effective on and after October 29, 2002. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152 and K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-1,115 and 74-623; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, 55-159, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-164, K.S.A. 55-173, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-1,115 and 74-623; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended April 23, 1990; amended, T-82-6-27-02, July 1, 2002; amended Oct. 29, 2002.)

82-3-114. Plugging methods and procedure. (a) Plugging of producing, storage, and injection wells. In addition to any other applicable requirements in these regulations, the methods and procedure for plugging a well drilled for exploration of oil or gas, for underground porosity gas storage, or for injection shall be as follows:

(1) For productive or past-productive oil or gas formations, a cement plug not less than 50 feet in length or a bridge capped with cement shall be placed above each such formation.

(2) Cement plugs of 50 feet or more in length shall be placed both above and below any fresh or usable water horizons. The lower plug shall extend at least 50 feet below the base of water zones, and the upper plug shall extend at least 50 feet above the top of the water zones.

(3) In each well plugged, a cement plug shall be placed near the surface of the ground in a manner that does not interfere with soil cultivation.

(b) Rathole and mousehole plugging. Each rathole and each mousehole shall be plugged by displacing any mud or water with cement from the bottom of the hole to near the surface in a manner that does not interfere with soil cultivation.

(c) Highly permeable formations. If the wellbore has penetrated both a highly permeable formation and an overlying major salt formation, a cement plug of 50 feet or more in length shall be set above the highly permeable formation. Additionally, a cement plug of 50 feet or more in length shall be set in the first formation compatible with cement in each of the following locations:

(1) Immediately above the salt formation; and

(2) immediately below the salt formation.

(d) Well location exceptions. In wells located within 330 feet from the lease or unit boundary or located within less than the minimum distance specified in K.A.R. 82-3-108(b), all zones that are perforated or open in the well and that are being produced on the lease adjacent to that boundary shall be plugged. This requirement shall not apply to zones that are not producing within one-half mile of the well to be plugged.

(e) Plugging intervals. All intervals between plugs within the same wellbore shall be filled with an approved heavy, mud-laden fluid of not less than 36 viscosity as measured using the marsh funnel method described in sections 4.1 and 4.2 of the "recommended practice standard procedure for field testing water-based drilling fluids," second edition, dated September 1997 and published by the American petroleum institute. Sections 4.1 and 4.2 of this document are hereby adopted by reference. The approved heavy, mud-laden fluid shall have a weight of not less than nine pounds per gallon. If the requirements of this subsection are not met, a bridge shall be set at all plugging intervals.

(f) Alternative plugging methods; when authorized.

(1) If the procedures specified in this regulation cannot be followed due to conditions in the casing or wellbore, alternative plug placement while ensuring the protection of fresh and usable water may be authorized by a representative of the commission.

(2) The operator, with the approval of the representative of the commission, may place cement in the well by using a dump bailer, pumping through tubing, or using any other method approved by the commission.

(g) Tagging plugs. Plugs may be tagged by the commission at the direction of the director of the conservation division.

This regulation shall be effective on and after October 29, 2002. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152 and K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-1,115 and 74-623; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, 55-156, 55-157, 55-159, and K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-1,115 and 74-623; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended, T-87-3; amended May 1, 1986; amended May 1, 1988; amended May 8, 1989; amended, T-82-6-27-02, July 1, 2002; amended Oct. 29, 2002.)

82-3-115. Plugging methods and procedure for core and other stratigraphic holes; fees. The methods and procedure for plugging core and other stratigraphic holes shall be as follows:

(a) The owner or operator shall notify the commission prior to the plugging of each core or stratigraphic hole pursuant to the requirements of K.A.R. 82-3-113. An on-site inspection of the plugging operation may be conducted by a representative of the commission.

(b) Each core or stratigraphic hole that penetrates a regionally confined salt water aquifer shall be plugged so as to prevent the migration of salt waters into fresh or usable water.

(1) As used in this regulation, a "regionally confined salt water aquifer" means a salt water-bearing zone overlain by an aquitard which, in area, is coextensive with the salt water zone and restricts the movement of the salt water. Aquitard means a zone of low permeability.

(2) The hole shall be filled with a cement plug from a point 20 feet below the base of the regionally confined salt water aquifer to within 10 feet of the surface. The remaining hole shall be filled to surface with coarse ground bentonite.

(c) Each core or stratigraphic hole that does not penetrate a regionally confined salt water aquifer shall be plugged as follows:

(1) A bridge and cement plug shall be placed at the depth set forth as the base of the deepest fresh and usable water. The cement plug shall be not less than 50 feet in length or shall be placed to a point within 12 feet of the surface, whichever is the lesser length. The remaining hole shall be filled to the surface with coarse ground bentonite as defined in K.A.R. 82-3-101(a)(12);

(2) The interval or intervals between the bottom of any hole and the plug or plugs set in any hole shall be filled with an approved heavy mud-laden fluid of not less than 9.4 pounds per gallon.

(d) Each core or stratigraphic hole that penetrates multiple usable or fresh water aquifers regionally confined by consolidated rock or strata, as distinguished from usable or fresh water zones in an unconsolidated stratum, shall be filled with cement from the bottom of the hole to the top of the highest aquifer, if identifiable and the remaining hole shall be filled with fine grain materials to within 20 feet of the surface, then with impermeable material to within 12 feet of the surface and the top 12 feet of the hole filled with coarse ground bentonite. If the top of the highest aquifer is not identifiable the hole shall be filled with cement from the bottom to within 12 feet of the surface and the remaining hole filled with coarse ground bentonite.

(e) Each core or stratigraphic hole that penetrates a usable or fresh water zone resulting in an artesian flow to the surface shall have a cement plug placed immediately above the top of the artesian water zone. The plug shall not be less than 25 feet in length or shall be placed to a point within 12 feet of the surface, whichever is the lesser length. The remaining hole shall be filled with coarse ground bentonite.

(f) If circulation is lost in the drilling of any hole and circulation cannot be regained, a cement plug shall be placed immediately above the zone of lost circulation. The plug shall not be less than 25 feet in length or shall be placed to a point within 12 feet of surface, whichever is the lesser length. The remaining hole shall be filled with coarse ground bentonite.

(g) Alternative plugging methods may be specified by the district supervisor when geological conditions warrant.

(h) Alternative plugging materials may be substituted for coarse ground bentonite upon approval by the Director of the Conservation Division. The Director shall base approval or denial upon material specifications including experimental results supplied by the manufacturer of such material and will keep a list available of all materials approved. The approval process for alternative plugging materials shall also be applicable to K.A.R. 82-3-115b.

(i) All core and stratigraphic holes shall be plugged as soon after being used as is reasonably practicable. However, such holes shall not remain unplugged for a period of more than 10 days after the drilling of the hole. An extension may be granted by the district supervisor if access to the hole is prevented by force of nature.

(j) A minimum fee of $5 shall be assessed for plugging of core and other stratigraphic holes. The minimum fee for any hole which penetrates a regionally confined salt water aquifer shall be assessed pursuant to K.A.R. 82-3-118. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1992 Supp. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 55-152, 55-156, 55-157; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended March 20, 1995.)

(c) Emergency situation. When an emergency situation exists, the operator shall orally notify and present the proposal to the district office. The written notice of intention to drill shall be filed with the commission within 24 hours.

(d) Drilling seismic shot holes without an approved notice of intent of emergency notice shall be punishable by a penalty of up to $1000.

(e) Exemption. Seismic operations which do not require the drilling or digging of a hole shall be exempt from the requirements of this regulation. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 1992 Supp. 55-151, 55-152, 55-164; effective March 20, 1995.)

82-3-115b. Plugging methods and procedures for seismic shot holes; retention of logs; penalty; exception; fees. (a) Each seismic shot hole shall be plugged in accordance with the specified methods applicable to the geologic conditions or drilling method used as described in this regulation and in Table IV.

(b) Each hole drilled with water or water-based muds and each hole that encounters water and does not encounter artesian pressure shall be plugged using the following method.

(1) Each seismic shot hole drilled in a single aquifer area shall be plugged from the point of collapse of the last shot with one 50-pound bag of coarse ground bentonite followed by cuttings to within 12 feet of the surface. The top 12 feet of the hole shall be filled with coarse ground bentonite. A non-metallic retrievable plug with identifying mark shall be placed three feet from the surface.

(2) Each seismic shot hole drilled in a multiple aquifer area and which penetrates only the upper aquifer, may be plugged using the single aquifer method.

(3) Seismic shot holes drilled into or through multiple aquifers shall be pre-plugged by filling the hole with coarse ground bentonite to a point at which the bentonite no longer encounters water followed by cuttings to within 12 feet of the surface. The top 12 feet of the hole shall be filled with coarse ground bentonite. A non-metallic retrievable plug with identifying marks shall be placed three feet from the surface. (4) Each seismic shot hole that penetrates a salt-water formation shall be plugged from bottom to top with cement. The blend of cement shall be approved by the district supervisor.

(5) Alternate plugging material may be substituted for coarse ground bentonite in accordance with procedures set forth in K.A.R. 82-3-115(h).

(c) Each hole that penetrates a strata which causes water to flow at the surface shall not be charged nor shot and shall be immediately plugged with cement. The plug shall be placed from bottom to top using tubular goods for placement. Prior to plugging, the company shall immediately notify the appropriate district office for plugging instructions.

(d) If groundwater is not encountered in a seismic shot hole that is drilled with air, dry augured, or otherwise drilled, the hole shall be either pre-plugged or post-plugged by filling the hole with clay or silt sized cuttings from the point of collapse of the last shot to within 12 feet of the surface. The top 12 feet of the hole shall be filled with coarse ground bentonite. A non-metallic retrievable plug with identifying mark shall be placed three feet from the surface.

(e) The district supervisor may make changes in the plugging requirements on a case-by-case basis and may prescribe other methods where the district supervisor deems other plugging methods to be more appropriate due to geological or hydrologic conditions.

(f) The operator shall submit plugging reports to the Conservation Division Central Office on forms provided by the commission within 90 days after the commencement of each project. All plugging reports shall include:

(1) a description of the placement of plugs and the material used;

Requests for confidentiality of plat map information should be made to the Director in accordance with procedures set forth in K.A.R. 82-3-107(e) and will be subject to time limits established in that regulation.

(g) The operator shall notify the appropriate district office prior to the plugging if the plugging of seismic holes is to occur anytime other than immediately after shooting takes place.

(h) When an emergency situation exists, the operator shall verbally notify and present the plugging proposal to the district office. A written plugging report shall be filed with both the district and conservation division office within five days of the completion of the plugging operation.

(i) A listing of those areas in which complex, multiple or divided aquifers occur shall be prepared by the commission. This list shall be made available to all drillers of seismic shot holes. Seismic shot holes drilled in these areas shall be plugged in accordance with the guidelines described in subsection (b)(3) of this regulation or as determined by the district supervisor.

(j) The driller or on-site geologist shall keep well logs of each hole drilled on forms approved by the commission. The logs shall be retained by the operator. If requested by the Conservation Division, the logs shall be made available contingent upon client approval.

(k) A minimum fee of $5 shall be assessed for plugging of seismic holes. The minimum fee for any hole which penetrates a regionally confined salt water aquifer shall be assessed pursuant to K.A.R. 82-3-118.

(1) Seismic operations which do not require the drilling or digging of a hole shall be exempt from the requirements of this regulation.

(m) Failure to comply with the provisions of this regulation shall result in the following penalties:

(1) $250 fine for the first offense, plus correction of the violation;

(2) Up to $1000 fine for the second offense and review of operator's license, plus correction of any violations; and

(3) Up to $2000 fine per hole for the third offense, plus 30 days suspension of license, which may be extended if correction of violation does not occur during suspension period, and review of license. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 55-151, 55-152, 55-164; effective March 20, 1995.)

82-3-116. Core and other stratigraphic holes to be plugged; affidavit. Before any core or other stratigraphic hole is abandoned, it shall be plugged in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-115 to properly protect all fresh and usable water formations. The person, firm, association or corporation actually conducting the core or stratigraphic field operations requiring use of the hole, regardless of whether these operations are for their own account or under contract or agreement for the account of others, shall file with the conservation division an affidavit on the form prescribed by the commission. The affidavit shall state the date of drilling, the location of each hole, the method used to plug such hole, and all other information requested by the prescribed form. The affidavit shall be filed within 60 days after the core or other stratigraphic holes in a specifically platted area have been plugged. (k) Revocation. Failure of the operator of any dual or multiple-completed well to comply with any of the provisions of this regulation shall constitute grounds for the revocation of the order granting the dual or multiple completion, or the suspension or cancellation of current or future allowables of that well. If the order granting the dual or multiple completion of any well is revoked, all but one of the producing sources of supply shall immediately be sealed off under the direction of the commission.

(l) Approval. Tentative approval for dual or multiple-completed wells may be granted by the commission based on extenuating circumstances. Final approval may be granted after proper application. and docket number of the proceeding. The protest shall include a clear and concise statement of the direct and substantial interest of the protester in the proceeding, including specific allegations as to the manner in which the grant of the application will cause waste, violate correlative rights, or pollute the water resources of the state of Kansas.

(b) If the protester opposes only a portion of the proposed application, the protester shall state with specificity the objectionable portion.

(c)(1) The protest shall be filed with the conservation division according to the following deadlines:

(A) For each protest of production matters, within 15 days after publication of the notice of the application required in K.A.R. 82-3-135a; and

(B) for each protest of environmental matters, within 30 days after publication of the notice of the application required in K.A.R. 82-3-135a.

(2) Failure to file a timely protest shall preclude the interested person from appearing as a protester.

(d) Each protester shall serve the protest upon the applicant at the same time or before the protester files the protest with the conservation division. The protest shall not be served on the applicant by the conservation division.

(e) To secure consideration of a protest, the protester shall offer evidence or a statement or participate in the hearing. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, 55-704, and 55-901; implementing K.S.A. 55-605, 55-901, 55-1003; effective April 23, 1990; amended Oct. 24, 2008.)

(c) Transfers shall not be made to any individual, partnership, corporation, or municipality not currently licensed as an operator, gas gatherer, or gas storage operator.

(d) Within 90 days of any transfer, the new operator shall change the tank battery identification sign provided for in K.A.R. 82-3-126 to show the new operator information.

(e) Violations of this regulation shall be punishable by a penalty of up to $1,000 for the first violation, $2,000 for a second violation, and $3,000 plus license review for a third violation. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1996 Supp. 55-164, K.S.A. 1996 Supp. 55-604, and K.S.A. 55-704; effective May 1, 1985; amended Aug. 29, 1997.)

82-3-200. Prevention of waste, protection of correlative rights, and prevention of discrimination between pools. (a) Any person having the right to drill, complete and operate wells from which oil from any common source of supply or pool is produced may produce on a monthly basis not more than that amount of crude oil from any well or lease than the allowable specified by the commission.

(b) Oil market demand.

(1) A monthly hearing may be held by the commission to determine the total statewide oil allowable.

(2) The statewide oil allowable shall be the amount of crude petroleum that can be produced daily throughout the state, during the next succeeding proration period, without causing waste.

(3) The total statewide allowable shall be allocated by the commission among the prorated pools, leases and wells.

(4) Any crude oil which is removed from a lease shall be charged against the allowable established for that lease, except in cases where permission is granted to use waste oil for oiling roads leading to the lease.

(c) The crude oil allowable shall be that amount of oil which may be produced currently from any pool without causing waste or injury to correlative rights, and without discriminating between pools.

(1) In determining allowables, the statistical status of each well or lease, as of the first day of the preceding proration period shall be considered by the commission.

(2) Any applicable overages and shortages for each well or lease shall be used in determining the statistical status of that well or lease.

(d) The provisions of this regulation shall be construed in conjunction with K.A.R. 82-3-202 through K.A.R. 82-3-208. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 55-602, 55-604; implementing K.S.A. 1993 Supp. 55-603; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1986; amended June 6, 1994.)

82-3-201. Oil production in prorated areas: balancing of underages. Whenever an oil well producing in a prorated area fails to produce its allowable, this shortage or underage shall be carried forward for two months upon the monthly proration report of the commission. The well shall be permitted to produce the underage in addition to its designated allowable. If the commission determines, however, that a proration unit is incapable of producing its allowable, the accrued underages shall be cancelled. Whenever shortages are attributable to the lack of transportation facilities, these shortages shall not be accrued for more than 60 days from the date of the initial productivity test, except as otherwise ordered by the commission. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1999 Supp. 55-604; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1986; amended April 23, 1990; amended June 1, 2001.)

82-3-202. Productivities, methods of determining, when required. The productivity of all wells in prorated pools in this state shall be determined in accordance with the following rules.

(a) Type of test. The productivity of each well shall be determined by a physical test conducted in the manner in which the well is normally produced. The initial physical test shall be conducted within 30 days of the filing of the affidavit of completion for the well.

(b) Supervision. Each test shall be conducted under the supervision of the commission.

(c) Notice and witnesses. Each operator of a well on which a test is to be conducted shall notify the commission's agent at least 12 hours before the beginning of a test. Any offset operator may witness the test.

(d) Temporary allowable of a well. After the operator files an affidavit of completion, a temporary allowable for the well shall be established and shall be effective for 30 days.

(e) Production considered. Only pipeline oil produced during the test shall be considered in determining a well's productivity.

(f) Pool and productivity tests.

(1) Pool and productivity tests shall be taken initially and on an annual basis, except on wells which produced less than 25 barrels of oil per day at the time of the last current test.

(2) Those wells producing less than 25 barrels of oil per day shall be exempt from further testing unless the well becomes capable of producing more than 25 barrels of oil per day or unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

(3) Whenever, due to some act or omission of the operator, more than 15 months have lapsed since the last productivity test for a well was conducted, the well shall not be entitled to an allowable until tested, unless otherwise exempt.

(4) Any well that was tested less than three months before the date of a scheduled pool test shall not be required to take the pool test.

(5) Operators shall be notified 10 days before the start of a pool test.

(g) Good cause shown. The commission may, on its own motion and for good cause shown, direct the taking of a productivity test of any well or any pool. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 55-604; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1986; amended May 1, 1988.)

82-3-203. Production allowable. (a) An allowable shall be assigned to each well in a nonprorated pool. The allowable shall be set by the following schedule and shall take effect on the date of first production:

Depth of Producing Interval	Daily Production Allowable (barrels per well per day)

Reports by producers. The producer or operator of each well in prorated pools, including minimum wells, shall file each month a verified statement showing the amount of crude petroleum actually produced by each well and lease. The verified statement shall be filed with the conservation division on or before the 15th day of each month following the month in which the production occurred. The filing of production reports by producers shall be required for the purpose of obtaining allowables. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-604; implementing K.S.A. 55-603; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1986; amended May 1, 1988.)

(a) A charge of 144.00 mills on each barrel of crude oil or petroleum marketed or used each month shall be assessed to each producer. The charge and assessment shall apply only to the first purchase of oil from the producer.

(b) Each month, the first purchaser of the production shall perform the following:

(1) Deduct the assessment per barrel of oil marketed or used from the lease before paying for production;

(2) remit the assessment in a single check to the conservation division when making regular oil payments; and

(3) account for the deductions on the regular payment statements to producers, royalty owners, and other interested persons. (b) Notice of the application shall be published in at least one issue of the official county newspaper of each county in which lands affected by the application are located and in the Wichita Eagle newspaper. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 55-704, K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 55-706; effective April 23, 1990.)

82-3-301. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-704; implementing K.S.A. 1982 Supp. 55-703; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; revoked Jan. 14, 2005.)

82-3-302. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 55-704; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; revoked May 1, 1988.)

82-3-303. Determination of open flow of a gas well. In the absence of field rules to the contrary, the open flow capacity of a gas well shall be determined by flowing the well into a pipeline for a period of 24 to 72 hours, as required to attain stabilization through approved metering equipment. This procedure shall be known as a one point stabilized flow test. The rate of flow shall be recorded on a standard orifice meter chart, either graphically or mathematically, or recorded electronically in a flow computer connected to a metering device. The rate of flow at the end of the period shall be extrapolated to atmospheric pressure by using the characteristic well slope as determined from a multipoint back-pressure test.

(a) Multipoint back-pressure test. A multipoint back-pressure test shall be taken for determination of characteristic well slope, "n," as determined from the equation

where:

Q = the rate of flow, using MCF per day at 14.65 pounds per square inch absolute and 60°F;

C = the performance coefficient of the well;

P<sub>c</sub> = wellhead shut-in pressure, expressed in pounds per square inch absolute and using the casing or tubing pressure, whichever is higher;

P<sub>w</sub> = static wellhead working pressure, expressed in pounds per square inch absolute, at the termination of each flow period. Except as otherwise provided, the casing pressure shall be used if the annulus is open to the formation. If the annulus is not open to the formation so that the pressure cannot be measured on a static column, the tubing pressure shall be used if the flowing pressure is corrected for friction. All squared pressures shall be expressed in thousands; and n = a numerical exponent characteristic of the particular well, referred to as "slope."

Multipoint back-pressure tests shall be limited to one per commercial gas well. A second test shall be permitted for a commercial gas well only if the well is recompleted into a separate common source of supply or for good cause shown.

The basic procedures for taking a multipoint back-pressure test shall be as follows:

(1) The well shall be shut in for 72 hours, plus or minus six hours, and the shut-in pressure shall be taken. This shut-in pressure shall be considered stabilized unless readings taken with commission-approved equipment at a shorter period are higher. In this event, the highest recorded pressure during the test shall be used as the shut-in pressure. If the shut-in period appreciably affects the surface pressure, appropriate correction of the surface pressure shall be made in order to account for the pressure due to the liquid column.

(2) If the well being tested has a pipeline connection, it shall be flowed for at least 24 hours before the shut-in period at a rate high enough to clear the well of liquids.

(3) A series of at least four flow tests shall be taken. The tests shall be run in an increasing flow rate sequence. In the case of high liquid-to-gas ratio wells, a decreasing flow rate sequence may be used if the increasing sequence method will not give point alignment. If the decreasing sequence method is used, a statement giving the reasons why the use of this method is necessary, with a copy of the data taken on increasing sequence, shall be furnished to the commission.

(4) Each flow test shall extend for not more than two hours. If the wellhead working pressure does not decline more than 0.1 percent of the wellhead shut-in pressure during any 15-minute period before the end of the two-hour flow period, the pressure may be recorded and the next flow test started. All subsequent flow periods shall be of the same duration.

(5) If the back-pressure curve cannot be drawn through at least three of the plotted points, the well shall be retested. If upon retest a curve cannot be drawn through at least three of the plotted points, an average curve shall be drawn through the points of the test if the slope of the curve will be not more than 1.0 and not less than 0.5.

(6) If the curve drawn through at least three points of the back-pressure test has a slope greater than 1.0 or less than 0.5, the well shall be retest-

ed. If upon retest the slope of the curve is greater than 1.0, a curve with a slope of 1.0 shall be drawn through the data point corresponding to the highest rate of flow. If upon retest the slope of the curve is less than 0.5, a curve with a slope of 0.5 shall be drawn through the data point corresponding to the lowest rate of flow.

(7) All tests shall be subject to review and approval by a representative of the state corporation commission.

(8) The lowest rate of flow on the test shall be at a rate high enough to keep the well clear of liquids.

(9) If possible, the working wellhead pressure at the lowest rate of flow shall be drawn down at least five percent of the well's shut-in pressure and, if possible, 25 percent of the well's shut-in pressure at the highest rate of flow. If data cannot be obtained in accordance with this paragraph, a written explanation shall be furnished to the commission.

(10) Correction for the compressibility of flowing gas shall be made in accordance with approved commission methods.

(11) If the static wellhead working pressure reading cannot be obtained due to packer or dual completion, the pressure shall be calculated by using appendix A in the document adopted by reference in paragraph (b)(4).

(12) If a satisfactory test cannot be obtained on wells whose indicated open flow is 500 mcf or less, an exception to the foregoing procedure may be granted by the commission and a slope of 0.85 may be assigned to the well.

(13) Upon completion of the test, all the calculations shall be shown on any approved form and shall be accompanied by a back-pressure curve neatly plotted on equal scale log paper of at least three-inch cycles.

(b) One-point stabilized flow test.

(1) An initial one-point stabilized flow test shall be made within 30 days from the date of first production of gas into a pipeline, and additional tests shall be taken yearly or as ordered by the commission. Upon the completion of all flow tests, a copy of the flow calculations shall be submitted to the commission.

(2) Immediately after the shut-in wellhead pressure is taken, the well shall be opened into the pipeline and gas shall be produced for the subsequent 24 to 72 hours at the test rate as required to reach stabilization. During this time, the working pressure at the wellhead shall be maintained as nearly as possible at 85 percent of the wellhead shut-in pressure, expressed in pounds per square inch gauge, or as close to 85 percent as operating conditions in the field will permit.

(3) The wellhead working pressure shall never be more than 95 percent or less than 75 percent of the wellhead shut-in pressure of the well being tested unless, in the judgment of the commission's representative, it is impractical to maintain the pressure within these limits. In this case, the well shall be produced at maximum capacity through either the tubing or the annulus, whichever will give the greater drawdown.

(4) The open flow shall be calculated by use of the formula specified in this paragraph. Flow shall be measured by an approved meter throughout the test period, and the wellhead and meter pressures shall be measured at the close of the test period by gauges approved for use in the state corporation commission's "manual of back pressure testing of gas wells," written pursuant to commission order dated May 15, 1957, docket number 34,780-C (C-1825), which is hereby adopted by reference, including the appendices.

The rate at which the well is producing at the end of the flow period shall be considered the stabilized producing rate corresponding to the wellhead working pressure existing at that time, if the rate is not greater than the average producing rate for the entire flow period. The observed stabilized producing rate shall be converted to open flow by use of the following formula:

where:

OF = Open flow, expressed in MCF/D.

R = Stabilized producing rate, expressed in MCF per day at 14.65 pounds per square inch absolute and 60°F.

P<sub>a</sub> = Atmospheric pressure, expressed in pounds per square inch absolute.

P<sub>c</sub> = Wellhead shut-in pressure of the well, expressed in pounds per square inch absolute.

P<sub>w</sub> = Stabilized wellhead working pressure at rate R, expressed in pounds per square inch absolute.

n = Characteristic well slope as determined by the multipoint back-pressure test.

(5) Shut-in wellhead pressure shall be measured after the well has been shut in for approximately 72 hours. The well shall have been shut in for not less than 66 hours and not more than 78 hours when the shut-in pressure is taken. If the representative of the commission believes that the shut-in pressure taken upon a well is incorrect, the representative may require that the well be blown to clean fluids from the well bore or may take any other reasonable steps that may be necessary to get a true pressure reading upon the well. If more than one shut-in pressure is taken upon a well during the test period, the highest shut-in pressure obtained shall be used in calculating the open flow of the well.

(c) Metering devices. An orifice meter, a critical flow prover, or a turbine meter in good operating condition and properly calibrated in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendation shall be the only acceptable metering devices. The owner of the metering device shall have documentation of any recalibration or refurbishment of the metering device and shall furnish the documentation to the conservation division upon request.

(d) Gas venting. Gas shall not be vented except when absolutely necessary. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-704; implementing K.S.A. 55-703; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1987; amended April 23, 1990; amended June 1, 2007.)

82-3-304. Tests of gas wells. (a) Initial test.

(1) Each operator shall conduct a multipoint back-pressure test and a one-point stabilized flow test, as specified in K.A.R. 82-3-303, on each gas well producing at least 250 mcf per day. The tests shall be conducted within 30 days of the first gas sales. The test results shall be filed with the commission within 60 days of the first gas sales.

(2) Each operator shall conduct a 24-hour shut-in pressure test on each gas well producing less than 250 mcf per day. Each test shall be conducted within 120 days of the first gas sales. The test results shall be filed with the commission within 150 days of the first gas sales.

(b) Annual test. Before April 1 of each calendar year, each operator shall conduct a one-point stabilized flow test on each gas well producing at least 500 mcf per day. The test results shall be filed with the commission before May 1 of each calendar year.

(c) Test witnessing. Each test shall be conducted under the supervision of the conservation division, which may have an employee witness any test. A test of any individual well may be required by the commission at any time.

(d) Coalbed natural gas exemption.

(1) Any operator of a well producing only coalbed natural gas may seek an exemption from subsection (a) or (b) by filing an application with the conservation division stating that only coalbed natural gas is produced from the well and that testing would be physically impossible or contrary to prudent practices. No well shall be exempt unless the application has been approved by the conservation division.

(2) If the exemption is granted, the exemption shall continue in effect until the well no longer meets the criteria for exemption. The operator shall notify the conservation division immediately if the well begins producing oil or gas other than coalbed natural gas or if the well characteristics change so that testing becomes possible. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-704; implementing K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 55-164 and K.S.A. 55-703; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 1, 1988; amended April 23, 1990; amended Aug. 29, 1997; amended Jan. 25, 2002; amended Jan. 14, 2005; amended June 1, 2007; amended Oct. 23, 2015.)

lease, or unitized property. All gas, when produced or sold, shall be metered with an approved meter of sufficient capacity. Gas may be metered from a lease or unitized property as a whole if it is shown that ratable taking can be maintained. Meters shall not be required for gas produced and used on the lease for development purposes and lease operations or for use in primary dwellings.

(b) Meters: calibration, testing, charts, and records. Each party who owns, maintains, or operates the metering device used to record gas sales from each well or lease in gas fields shall at a minimum test and calibrate the metering device on an annual basis by a method approved by the conservation division and retain the record of the testing and calibration for at least two years. Each party shall also retain for at least two years the original field record consisting of magnetic tapes, meter charts, electronic records, or records of gas purchases. All information retained shall be made available to the conservation division upon request.

(c) By-passes. By-passes shall not be connected around meters in a manner that will permit the improper taking of gas.

(d) Penalties. Each failure to comply with any of the requirements of this regulation shall be punishable by a $1,000 penalty. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 55-164 and 55-703; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 8, 1989; amended Dec. 22, 2006.)

82-3-306. Report of gas produced. (a) Each party who owns, maintains, or operates the metering device used to record gas produced from each well in any prorated gas field shall file a monthly volume report showing the amount of gas actually metered on each well. The volume report shall be filed with the conservation division on or before the 20th day of the succeeding month in which the production occurred. Extensions of the time period within which the volume report shall be filed may be granted by the director. The form or electronic format used for reporting the volume shall be furnished or approved by the commission.

(b) Each party who owns, maintains, or operates the metering device used to record gas produced from each lease or well in any gas field under statewide general rules and regulations may be directed by the commission to file a volume report showing the amount of gas actually metered on each lease or well for a specified time period. The form or electronic format used for reporting the volume shall be furnished or approved by the commission. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 55-704; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1988; amended April 23, 1990; amended June 1, 2001.)

82-3-307. Gas conservation assessment. In order to pay the conservation division expenses and other costs in connection with the administration of the gas conservation regulations not otherwise provided for, an assessment shall be made as follows:

(a) A charge of 20.50 mills shall be assessed on each 1,000 cubic feet of gas sold or marketed each month. The assessment shall apply only to the first purchaser of gas.

(b) Each month, the first purchaser of the production shall perform the following:

(1) Before paying for the production, deduct an amount equal to the assessment for every 1,000 cubic feet of gas produced and removed from the lease;

(2) remit the amounts deducted, in a single check if the purchaser desires, to the conservation division when the purchaser makes regular gas payments for this period; and

(3) show all deductions on the regular payment statements to producers, royalty owners, and other interested persons.

(c) The assessment established by the commission shall not apply to gas that is being returned to the ground for repressuring purposes within the field, but shall apply to gas that is produced and removed from the lease and returned to the ground for storage purposes. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2017 Supp. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 2017 Supp. 55-176; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended April 23, 1990; amended Aug. 19, 1991; amended Dec. 6, 1993; amended Nov. 15, 1996; amended June 1, 2001; amended Dec. 22, 2006; amended June 15, 2018.)

82-3-308. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1982 Supp. 55-703; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; revoked Aug. 29, 1997.)

82-3-310. Natural gas pipeline maps. Upon the request of the conservation division, each operator shall file natural gas pipeline maps of a size and scale prescribed by the commission, indicating the location, size, and extensions of the pipeline, and any portions abandoned or not used. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-704; implementing K.S.A. 55-703; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended June 1, 2001.)

82-3-311. Drilling through gas storage formations. (a) Any person, firm, or corporation who, for any purpose, drills or causes the drilling of a well or test hole that penetrates or bores through any underground stratum or formation utilized for the underground storage of natural gas shall seal off the natural gas storage stratum or formation by either of the following:

(1) The methods and materials recommended by the operator of the gas storage facility and approved by the commission or its duly authorized representative; or

(2) any methods and materials that the commission determines to be fair, equitable, and reasonable.

(b) That person, firm, or corporation shall maintain the well or test hole in a manner that protects the stratum or formation at all times against pollution and the escape of natural gas.

(c) Not less than 30 days before commencing or plugging a well or test hole as referred to in subsection (b), the person, firm, or corporation desiring to commence drilling or plugging operations shall give the operator of the gas storage facility and the commission notice in writing, by registered mail, of the date desired for commencement of drilling or plugging the well.

(d) Within 10 days after receipt of notice, the operator of the gas storage facility shall forward to the commission its recommendations as to the manner, methods, and materials to be used in the sealing off or plugging operation. The operator of the gas storage facility shall give notice of the recommendations by mailing or delivering a copy to the person, firm, or corporation who seeks to drill or plug a well or test hole. The notice shall be mailed or delivered on or before the date on which the recommendations are mailed to or filed with the commission.

(f) If any objections or complaints are filed or if the commission deems that there should be a hearing on the recommendation of the operator of the gas storage facility, a hearing shall be held. Notice of the hearing shall be published according to K.A.R. 82-3-135.

(g) Following receipt of the recommendations proposed by the operator of the gas storage facility or the hearing, the manner, methods, and materials to be used in the sealing off or plugging operation shall be prescribed by the commission. Operations shall not commence until the manner, methods, and materials to be used have been prescribed by the commission.

(h) Any operator of the gas storage facility involved may have a representative present at all times during the drilling, completing, or plugging of the well or test hole and shall have access to all records relating to the drilling, equipping, maintenance, operation, or plugging of the well.

(i) Each operator of the gas storage facility involved, in conjunction with the commission or its representative and the operator of the well, shall have the right to inspect or test the well to discover any leaks or defects that may affect the underground natural gas storage stratum or formation.

(j) Each cost and expense necessarily incurred in sealing off the stratum or formation or in plugging, maintaining, inspecting, or testing the well, as recommended by the operator of the gas storage facility and subsequently approved or independently determined by the commission or its representative, that is over and above the ordinary expense of operations using similar methods, shall be paid upon completion by the operator of the gas storage facility involved.

This regulation shall be effective on and after October 29, 2002. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-1,115 and 55-604, K.S.A. 55-704, and K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 74-623; implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 55-1,115, K.S.A. 55-605, 55-706, 55-1203, and K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 74-623; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended, T-85-51, Dec. 19, 1984; effective May 1, 1985; amended May 1, 1988; amended May 8, 1989; amended April 23, 1990; amended, T-82-6-27-02, July 1, 2002; amended Oct. 29, 2002.)

The operator shall file an affidavit with the conservation division. The affidavit shall be submitted on a form supplied by the commission and shall meet the following requirements:

(A) Identify the geographic area included in the proposed pilot project;

(B) state that there are no gathering or pipeline facilities available;

(C) state that venting or flaring of gas is necessary to dewater wells while they are being tested to determine the economic feasibility of installing gathering or other facilities to make the gas marketable and to determine the required capacity of the facilities;

(D) state the maximum daily volume of gas anticipated to be vented or flared; and

(E) state that the applicant will comply with the department's applicable air quality regulations.

(2) Venting or flaring for any reason shall not exceed 180 days without reapplication with the commission. Without a hearing, one extension not to exceed 180 days may be granted by the commission.

(3) The operator shall publish notice of the affidavit and any request for an extension of the venting or flaring period, pursuant to K.A.R. 82-3-135. In addition, the operator shall give notice to the local emergency planning commission (LEPC). If any part of the proposed project area falls within the corporate limits of any city, the operator shall give notice to the city clerk. The operator shall file with the conservation division a certificate of mailing indicating the date on which service of a copy of the affidavit was made to the LEPC or city clerk.

(b) Natural gas.

(1) Without a hearing, the venting or flaring of natural gas, other than sour gas, may be permitted by the commission if necessary for any of the following purposes:

(A) Dewatering or well cleanup;

(B) well testing;

(C) well cleanup after stimulation or workover;

(D) evaluation and testing before connecting to a pipeline;

(E) emergencies; or

(F) those purposes and conditions specified under K.S.A. 55-102(a), and amendments thereto.

(2) If a well is to be vented or flared for more than seven days, either pursuant to K.S.A. 55-102(a) and amendments thereto or for any other reason, the operator shall notify the appropriate district office and shall file an affidavit with the conservation division, on a form supplied by the commission. The affidavit shall state that the extended period of time to vent the well is necessary for at least one of the following:

(A) The efficient operation of the well;

(B) evaluation and determination of whether the quality of gas meets pipeline specifications; or

(C) evaluation and determination of whether the well is capable of producing in economic quantities.

(c) Gas measurement; continuing jurisdiction. The volume of gas vented or flared under this regulation shall be metered, measured, or monitored, and the charts or records shall be retained for two years. This information shall be reported to the commission semiannually or as designated by the commission. The continuing jurisdiction with authority to terminate the venting or flaring of gas when necessary shall lie with the commission.

(d) Protection of persons and property. All gas vented or flared under this regulation shall be done in a manner designed to prevent damage to property and injury to persons who are reasonably expected to be in the vicinity for work, pleasure, or business.

(e) The venting or flaring of natural gas under conditions not addressed in this regulation may be authorized if the operator files an application and the commission approves the application before the start of the venting or flaring activity. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152; implementing K.S.A. 2003 Supp. 55-102; effective Jan. 14, 2005.)

82-3-400. Injection allowed only by permit; penalty. (a) Authority to inject. Injection shall be permitted only after both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The operator has filed an application for injection authority with the conservation division in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-401 and provided notice in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-402.

(2) The conservation division has issued a written permit granting the application.

(b) Penalty for unauthorized injection. The failure to obtain a written permit from the conservation division before beginning injection operations shall be punishable by a penalty of $1,000 for first-time violators, $5,000 for second-time violators, and $10,000 and operator license review for third-time violators. In addition, each injection well found to be operating without a conservation division permit shall be shut in until compliance is achieved. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-151, 55-152, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191; implementing K.S.A. 55-151, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1986; amended, T-87-46, Dec. 19, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 1, 1988; amended May 8, 1989; amended April 23, 1990; amended April 5, 2002.)

82-3-401. Application for injection well; content. (a) Application form; content. The original and two copies of each application shall be signed and verified by the operator, and filed with the conservation division on a form approved by the commission, and shall provide the following information:

(2) a plat showing the location of all oil and gas wells, including producing wells, abandoned wells, drilling wells and dry holes within a ½-mile radius of the injection well, and indicating producing formations and the subsea top of the producing formations;

(3) the name and address of each operator of a producing or drilling well within a ½-mile radius of the injection well;

(4) the name, description, and depth of each injection interval. The application shall indicate whether the injection is through perforations, an open hole, or both;

(5) the depths of the tops and bottoms of all casing and cement used or to be used in the injection or disposal well;

(6) the size of the casing and tubing and the depth of the tubing packer;

82-3-403. Permitting factors; application approval. (a) Permitting factors. When a permit authorizing injection is issued, the following factors shall be considered by the conservation division:

- (1) Maximum injection rate;
- (2) maximum surface pressure, formation pressure, pressure at the formation face, or all of the above;
- (3) the type of injection fluid and the rock characteristics of the injection zone and the overlying strata;
- (4) the adequacy and thickness of the confining zone or zones between the injection interval and the base of the lowest fresh and usable water; and
- (5) the construction of all oil and gas wells within a ¼-mile radius of the proposed injection well, including all abandoned, plugged, producing, and other injection wells, to ensure that fluids introduced into the proposed injection zone will be confined to that zone. If deemed necessary by the conservation division to ensure the protection of fresh and usable water, this radius may be determined pursuant to 40 C.F.R. 146.6(a)(2), as published July 1, 2000, which is hereby adopted by reference.

(b) Conditions for simultaneous injection. Simultaneous injection may be permitted if, in addition to the requirements of subsection (a) above, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) Injection will not adversely affect offsetting production or endanger fresh and usable groundwater.

(2) Injection pressure is limited to less than the local injection formation fracture gradient.

(3) The injection well is continuously cemented across the injection and producing intervals.

(4) The well demonstrates mechanical integrity.

(c) Protection of fresh and usable water. Before any formations may be approved for use, determinations shall be made that these formations are separated from fresh and usable water formations by impervious beds to give adequate protection to the fresh and usable water formations.

(d) In reviewing applications for injection wells, the protection of hydrocarbons and water resources and oil and gas advisory committee recommendations concerning safe depths for injection for all producing areas in the state shall be considered by the conservation division.

(e) Minimum depth for injection. If no additional information, including well logs, formation tests, water quality data, and water well data, is made available by the operator, table II, "established minimum depths for disposal wells," revised August 1, 1987, and hereby adopted by reference, shall be used by the conservation division in determining the minimum depth for the injection of saltwater.

(f) For all injection well applications that require wellhead pressure to inject fluids, filed on and after December 8, 1982, the operator shall inject the fluids through tubing under a packer set immediately above the uppermost perforation or open-hole zone, except as specified in K.A.R. 82-3-406. A packer run on the tubing shall be set in casing opposite a cemented interval at a point immediately above the uppermost perforation or open-hole interval.

(g) Design approval. If the application requests design approval, approval of the design of the proposed well may be obtained before actual construction of the well.

(1) Each applicant shall be notified by the conservation division of its approval of the well design if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) All requirements set forth in K.A.R. 82-3-401(a), K.A.R. 82-3-402(a), and K.A.R. 82-3-403(a) have been met.

(B) The design of the proposed well will protect fresh and usable water.

(2) Upon completion of each well, the applicant shall submit a copy of the well completion report, on the form furnished by the commission, to the conservation division. The application for the injection of fluid into the proposed well for injection purposes shall be approved, if there are not significant differences between actual construction and the approved designed construction of the proposed well and if the mechanical integrity of the well has been tested according to K.A.R. 82-3-407.

(h) Emergency authority. Emergency authority to inject or dispose of fluids at an alternate location, if a facility is shut in for maintenance, testing, or repairs, or by order of the commission, may be granted by the conservation division. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-151, 55-152, 55-605, 55-901; implementing K.S.A. 55-151, 55-605, 55-901, 55-1003; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended April 23, 1990; amended April 5, 2002.)

82-3-404. Notice of commencement and discontinuance of injection operations; cessation of production from dually completed well; penalty. (a) Immediately upon the commencement of injection operations, the applicant shall notify the conservation division of the date of commencement.

(b) Within 90 days after permanent discontinuance of injection operations, the operator of the project shall notify the conservation division of the date of the discontinuance and the reasons for discontinuance, and shall follow the provisions of K.A.R. 82-3-111.

(c) Cessation of production from dually completed well. Upon cessation of commercial production from the producing interval of a dually completed injection well, the injection authority shall be canceled by the conservation division unless the operator, through the filing of a modification, shows all of the following:

(1) The perforations at the producing interval are sealed.

(2) The casing above the injection packer has mechanical integrity according to K.A.R. 82-3-407.

(3) The tubing-casing annulus is filled with a corrosion-inhibiting fluid.

(d) The failure to notify the commission of commencement or permanent discontinuance of injection operations shall be punishable by a $100 penalty. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, 55-156, 55-157, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191, and K.S.A. 55-901, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 198; implementing K.S.A. 55-156, 55-157, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-

164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191, and K.S.A. 55-1003; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended, T-87-46, Dec. 19, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended April 23, 1990; amended April 5, 2002.)

82-3-405. Casing and cement. Injection wells shall be cased and the casing cemented so that damage will not be caused to hydrocarbon sources or fresh and usable water resources. Steel surface casing shall be set and cemented in the following manner:

(a) In existing wells to be converted to injection use, all additional casing that is next to the bore hole shall be cemented by circulating cement to the surface from a point at least 50 feet below the base of the lowest known fresh and usable water. If cement fails to circulate to the surface, staged squeezes shall be required to protect and isolate fresh and usable water resources. Cementing shall be completed with a portland cement blend, except as provided by K.A.R. 82-3-106(d)(3).

(b) The operator shall notify the appropriate district office before the cementing of the additional casing. A backside squeeze, the uncontrolled placement of cement in the annular space between the surface casing and the production casing from the surface down, shall be permitted only upon request to the appropriate district office. Each request shall be granted only upon the approval of the cement evaluation method to be utilized and submitted as verification of cement placement.

(c) An exception to the cementing requirements of subsection (a) may be granted by the director or the director's designee. A written request for exception shall be submitted to the conservation division and shall include cement evaluation logs demonstrating that the proposed alternate process adequately protects fresh and usable water resources. The alternate process shall be proposed to be performed between the casing and the borehole at a point at least 50 feet below the base of the lowest known fresh and usable water resources to ensure protection of fresh and usable water resources.

(d) If the injection zone lies stratigraphically above the Wellington salt and the wellbore has penetrated into or through the salt, a cement plug of at least 50 feet in length shall be placed in the borehole or casing below the injection zone and above the salt. However, if the plug is inside the casing, the annular space between the casing and the well bore shall be protected with cement through the same interval. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, 55-157, and 55-901, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 198; implementing K.S.A. 55-1003, 55-152, and 55-157; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 8, 1989; amended April 23, 1990; amended April 5, 2002.)

(1) The well shall be equipped to inject through tubing below a packer.

(2) A packer run on the tubing shall be set in casing opposite a cemented interval at a point immediately above the uppermost perforation or open-hole interval. The annulus between the tubing and the casing shall be filled with a corrosion-inhibiting fluid or hydrocarbon liquid.

(3) With the prior approval of the conservation division, packerless or tubingless completions may be authorized under the provisions of subsection (b) or (c) of this regulation.

(b) Injection through tubing without a packer may be authorized by the conservation division if the following requirements are met:

(1) Surface wellhead injection pressure shall not exceed zero psig.

(2) The tubing shall be run to a depth equal to or below the uppermost perforation or open hole of the injection interval.

(3) The annular space between the tubing and the casing shall be filled with a corrosion-inhibiting fluid or hydrocarbon liquid that has a specific gravity less than 1.00 and that is displaced and maintained at a point within 50 feet of the bottom of the tubing.

(4) Each wellhead shall be equipped with a pressure observation valve on the tubing and the tubing-casing annulus.

(5) A positive annulus pressure shall be maintained and monitored.

(6) Annulus pressure and injection surface pressure shall be monitored and recorded monthly and kept by the operator for five years.

(7) All pressure readings recorded shall be taken during actual injection operations and under static conditions.

(c) Injection without tubing may be authorized by the conservation division if all five of the following requirements are continuously met during the life of the well:

(1) The casing shall be cemented continuously from setting depth to surface.

(2) Surface wellhead injection pressure shall be recorded monthly and kept by the operator for five years.

(3) All pressure readings recorded shall be taken during actual injection operations.

(4) Mechanical integrity tests shall be performed at least every five years by running a retrievable plug to a depth of no more than 50 feet above the uppermost perforation or open hole of the injection zone or by another method approved by the conservation division.

(5) It shall be the sole responsibility of the operator of the tubingless completion to maintain the well so that the mechanical integrity tests can be performed as specified, or the well shall be immediately plugged and abandoned by displacing cement from the bottom of the well to the surface. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, 55-901, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 198; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, 55-901, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 198, 55-1003; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended May 1, 1984; amended, T-87-46, Dec. 19, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended April 23, 1990; amended April 5, 2002.)

82-3-407. Mechanical integrity requirements; penalty. (a) Each injection well shall be completed, equipped, operated, and maintained in a manner that will prevent pollution of fresh and usable water, prevent damage to sources of oil or gas, and confine fluids to the interval or intervals approved for injection.

An injection well shall be considered to have mechanical integrity if there are no significant leaks in the tubing, casing, or packer and no fluid movement into fresh or usable water. Mechanical integrity shall be established on each well by one of the following:

(1) Pressure test. The annulus above the packer, or the injection casing in wells not equipped with a packer, shall be pressure tested at least once every five years under the supervision of a representative of the operator. The date for this test shall be mutually agreed upon by the operator's representative and a representative of the commission. Test results shall be verified by the operator's representative. A minimum of 25 percent of the tests conducted each year shall be witnessed by a representative of the commission. The test shall be conducted in accordance with subsection (b). Injection wells within tubing shall be tested in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-406.

(2) Alternate tests. Alternative test methods approved by the commission, including radioactive tracer surveys and temperature surveys, may be used to establish mechanical integrity if conditions are appropriate. The test shall be run at least once every five years under the supervision of a representative of the operator. The date for this test shall be mutually agreed upon by the operator's representative and a representative of the commission. Test results shall be verified by the operator's representative and shall be interpreted as specified in commission-approved procedures. A minimum of 25 percent of the tests conducted each year shall be witnessed by a representative of the commission.

(3) Monitoring. Once a month, the operator shall monitor and record, during actual injection, the pressure or fluid level in the annulus and any other information deemed necessary by the conservation division. An annual report of information logged shall be submitted to the conservation division in accordance with K.A.R. 82-3-409.

(4) Dually completed injection wells. For dually completed injection wells, the testing requirements shall include the following:

(A) The operator shall determine the fluid level in the annular space in the production casing and the fluid level within the injection tubing. All fluid level determinations shall be performed under static well conditions. The minimum shut-in time shall be 24 hours before determining the fluid level. Fluid level tapes shall be submitted as verification of measurements.

(B) The operator shall measure and report the oil-to-water ratio of produced fluids from the well. In the case of gas wells, the operator shall report changes in monthly production volumes.

(C) The fluid level determination and oil-to-water ratios shall be performed once every three months during the first year of the well's five-year test cycle, and then once a year for the next four years. The repeat test cycle of quarterly reports for one year and annual reports for four years shall begin on the five-year anniversary of the first fluid level test.

(b) Before operating a well drilled or converted to injection after December 8, 1982, an operator choosing to use a pressure test for the initial mechanical integrity test shall perform the test in the following manner:

(1) Wells constructed with tubing and a packer shall be pressure tested with the packer in place. A fluid pressure of 300 psig shall be applied. If the operator requests a pressure in excess of 300 psig on the injection application, a test pressure up to the requested pressure may be required. The duration of the test shall be at least 30 minutes. Maintenance of the fluid pressure during the test shall provide assurance of the integrity of the injection casing.

(2) For wells constructed with tubing and no packer, a retrievable plug or packer shall be set immediately above the uppermost perforation or open hole zone. A fluid pressure of 300 psig shall be applied. The duration of the test shall be at least 30 minutes. Maintenance of the fluid pressure during the test shall provide assurance of the integrity of the injection casing.

(3) For wells constructed with tubing and no packer, a method of pressure testing known as fluid depression may be conducted with prior approval and under guidelines established by the appropriate district office. The fluid in the well shall be depressed with gas pressure to a point in the wellbore immediately above the perforations or open hole interval. The minimum calculated pressure required to depress the fluid in the wellbore shall be no less than 100 psig.

(4) For simultaneous injection wells, the following requirements shall be met:

(A) Mechanical integrity shall initially be demonstrated at a pressure of 300 psig before installation of downhole simultaneous injection equipment and shall be demonstrated in the same manner each time that the downhole simultaneous injection equipment is removed; and

(B) after the initial mechanical integrity test, the operator shall monitor the well once each month and record the oil-to-water or gas-to-water ratio. The operator shall report the oil-to-water or gas-to-water ratio to the commission within 30 days for the first month and then annually at the time of filing the annual report according to K.A.R. 82-3-409. The operator shall immediately report an oil-to-water or gas-to-water ratio at or in excess of 10% over the prior month's ratio to the appropriate district office.

(5) In lieu of paragraph (b)(3), the casing may be tested before perforating, upon approval of the conservation division. A fluid pressure of 300 psig shall be applied. If the operator requests a pressure in excess of 300 psig on the injection application, a test pressure up to the requested pressure may be required. The duration of the test shall be at least 30 minutes. Maintenance of the fluid pressure during the test shall provide assurance of the integrity of the injection casing.

(c) The operator of any well failing to demonstrate mechanical integrity by one of the above methods shall have no more than 90 days from the date of initial failure in which to perform one of the following:

(1) Repair and retest the well to demonstrate mechanical integrity;

(2) plug the well; or

(3) isolate the leak or leaks to demonstrate that the well will not pose a threat to fresh or usable water resources or endanger correlative rights.

(d) Mechanical failures or other conditions indicating that a well is not, or may not be, directing the injected fluid into the permitted or authorized zone shall be cause to shut in the well. The operator shall orally notify the conservation division of any of these failures or conditions within 24 hours of knowledge of any failure or condition. The operator shall submit written notice of a well failure to the conservation division within five days of the occurrence together with a plan for testing and repairing the well. Results of the testing and well repair shall be reported to the conservation division, and all information shall be included in the annual monitoring report to the conservation division. Any mechanical down-hole well repair performed on the well that was not previously reported shall also be included in the annual report.

(e) If the district office has approved the use of any chemical sealant or other mechanical device to isolate the leak before use, the injection pressure into the well shall not exceed the maximum mechanical integrity test pressure. Additionally, the well shall demonstrate mechanical integrity on an annual basis for the duration the well is completed in this manner.

(f) Each operator choosing a pressure mechanical integrity test on a well permitted for injection before December 8, 1982 or on a well having passed an initial pressure mechanical integrity test as specified in subsection (b) shall conduct the test in the following manner:

(1) Wells located in areas having saltwater-bearing zones with sufficient bottom-hole pressure to sustain a static fluid level at or above fresh or usable water bearing zones shall be pressure tested as specified in paragraphs (b)(1) and (2), except that the maximum required test pressure shall be limited to 300 psi.

(2) Wells located in areas without saltwater-bearing zones with sufficient bottom-hole pressure to sustain a static fluid level at or above fresh or usable water bearing zones shall be pressure tested as specified in paragraphs (b)(1) and (2), except that the maximum required test pressure shall be limited to 100 psi.

(3) For wells constructed with tubing and no packer, a method of pressure testing known as fluid depression may be conducted with prior approval and under guidelines established by the commission. The fluid in the well shall be depressed with gas pressure to a point in the wellbore immediately above the perforations or open-hole interval. The minimum calculated pressure required to depress the fluid in the wellbore shall be no less than 100 psi unless otherwise approved by the appropriate district office.

(g) No injection well shall be operated before having passed a mechanical integrity test. The operator's failure to test a well to show its mechanical integrity or to report the oil-to-water or gas-to-water ratio as required under paragraph (b)(4)(B) above shall be punishable by a $1,000 penalty, and these wells shall be shut in until the required test has been passed or the reports have been furnished. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191, K.S.A. 55-901, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 198; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191, K.S.A. 55-901, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 198, and K.S.A. 55-1003; effective, T-83-44, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended, T-87-46, Dec. 19, 1986; amended May 1, 1987; amended May 8, 1989; amended April 23, 1990; amended April 5, 2002.)

82-3-408. Duration of injection well permits; modification penalty. (a) Permits authorizing injection into wells shall remain valid for the life of the well, unless revoked by the commission for just cause.

(b) Modifications of any injection well permit may be made only upon application to the conservation division. Each application shall be submitted on the form furnished by the conservation division. The applicant shall give notice of the application to modify according to the provisions of K.A.R. 82-3-135a.

(c) An operator shall not be required to file an application to modify any injection well permit but shall file with the conservation division a notice of modification on a form furnished by the conservation division for permit modifications for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) The operator seeks to decrease the maximum injection pressure.

(2) The operator seeks to decrease the maximum injection rate.

(3) The operator seeks to add or delete leases disposing into the well but will not exceed the maximum authorized injection rate and pressure.

(3) prevent surface drainage from entering the pit.

(g) A pit permit shall not be required for the construction of a dike at an oil and gas facility. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-164, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 5, sec. 191, K.S.A. 55-171, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 74-623, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 191, sec. 16; effective, T-87-46, Dec. 19, 1986; effective May 1, 1987; amended July 29, 1991; amended April 23, 2004.)

82-3-600a. Pit permit revocation. A pit permit may be revoked by the director of the conservation division if fresh or usable water resources are in danger of becoming polluted by the use of the pit or if the operator of a pit is not in compliance with the permit requirements. Each pit for which the permit has been revoked shall be closed according to K.A.R. 82-3-602. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-152, K.S.A. 55-171; implementing K.S.A. 55-152, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 55-162, K.S.A. 55-171, K.S.A. 2000 Supp. 74-623, as amended by L. 2001, ch. 191, sec. 16; effective April 23, 1990; amended April 23, 2004.)

(b) Pit construction. If required by the conservation division to be sealed, pits shall be constructed so that the bottoms and sides have a hydraulic conductivity no greater than  $1 \times 10^{-7}$  cm/sec. during their use. The hydraulic conductivity shall be established by liners, which shall include any of the following:

(1) A natural clay liner;

(2) a soil-mixture liner composed of soil mixed with cement, bentonite, clay-type, or other additives to be applied to pits whose walls do not exceed a slope of three to one;

(3) a recompacted clay liner composed of in situ or imported clay soils that are compacted or restructured to be applied to pits whose walls do not exceed a slope of three to one;

Alternately, the hydraulic conductivity of natural liners shall be determined by using another field or laboratory test approved by the commission and conducted by either the operator or the operator's contractor.

(2)(A) Test results for pits required to be sealed according to subsection (b) shall be reported to the appropriate district office at the time of spud notification.

(B) Written documentation of test results shall be filed with the conservation division on a form prescribed by the commission within five days after spudding the well.

(C) Test results for work-over and emergency pits shall be reported to the conservation division when the pit application is filed.

(2) Any operator may request a pit permit extension of not more than three months, and the request may be granted by the director. An extension may be granted due to pit conditions or for other good cause shown by the operator. Any pit permit extension may be renewed upon additional request by the operator, but no pit permit extension shall be extended beyond six months after the original deadline. Failure to close any pit or to file an extension within the prescribed time limits specified in paragraphs (1)(A) through (C) of this subsection shall be punishable by a $250 penalty.

This notification shall meet the requirements of subsection (c) and shall be made not later than the next business day following the date of discovery or knowledge of the spill.

(3) The notification requirement for spills in paragraph (b)(2) shall not apply to very minor amounts of saltwater, oil, or refuse that unavoidably or unintentionally leak or drip from pumps, machinery, pipes, valves, fittings, well rods, or tubing during the conduct of normal prudent operations and that are not confined in dikes or pits or within the vicinity of the well. This exception shall not apply to ongoing, continual, or repeated leaks or drips, or to leaks or drips that are the re-ceptable to the commission: physical removal, dilution, treatment, and bioremediation. Each operator shall accomplish this cleanup upon completion of the routine operation or condition that caused the leak, drip, or escape or within 24 hours of discovery or knowledge of the leak, drip, or escape, whichever occurs sooner.

(3) If refuse is transferred in conjunction with a cleanup pursuant to paragraph (e)(1) or (e)(2), each operator shall submit any required forms according to K.A.R. 82-3-608.

This notification to the landowner or landowner's representative shall meet the requirements of subsection (b) and shall be made no later than five business days following the discovery or knowledge of the spill or escape.

(b) Required information. Each notification shall include the following information:

- (1) The operator's name;
- (2) the lease name and approximate spill location;
- (3) the time and date the spill or escape occurred;
- (4) a description of the escaped materials, including each type and amount; and
- (5) the methods being used to clean up the spill.

(c) "Discovery and knowledge" defined. For the purpose of this regulation, the point of "discovery and knowledge" shall mean the point at which the operator knew or reasonably should have known of the spill or escape.

(1) A meeting with the complainant, the person offering gas-gathering services, and commission staff.

(2) A mediation conference conducted under the following procedures:

(A) Upon the request of any party and acceptance of the other party, the commission shall schedule a mediation conference. The purpose of the mediation shall be to assist the parties in reaching agreement on any disputed issues by the intervention of a third party who has no decision-making authority, is impartial to the issues being discussed, assists the parties in defining the issues in dispute, facilitates communication between the parties, and assists the parties in reaching resolution.

(B) Mediation conferences shall be conducted by mediators appointed by the commission who are qualified as mediators pursuant to the dispute resolution act, K.S.A. 5-501 et seq., and amendments thereto, and any relevant rules of the Kansas supreme court as authorized pursuant to K.S.A. 5-510, and amendments thereto.

(g) A formal hearing shall be scheduled by the commission if the complaint is not resolved by informal procedures within 60 days of its filing or upon notice that no party wishes to utilize any informal procedure. A scheduling order providing notice to the affected parties of the date of hearing and setting forth any additional conditions as the commission deems appropriate shall be issued by the commission.

(h) The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the Kansas administrative procedure act, K.S.A. 77-501 et seq., and with the commission's rules of practice and procedure, K.A.R. 82-3-201 et seq.

(i) The costs of a proceeding may be assessed to a party or parties based on the findings of the commission.

(j) In determining whether or not to grant access to a system, factors including the following may be considered by the commission:

(1) whether or not the natural gas can be reasonably carried by a gatherer;

(9) any other matters that the commission determines to be relevant.

(k) In evaluating or establishing a fee, term, or practice for a gathering service, whether or not the fee, term, or practice is a just, reasonable, not unjustly discriminatory, and not unduly preferential fee that would result from good faith negotiations in a competitive market shall be determined by the commission. In evaluating or establishing a fee, term, or practice, all economically relevant factors including the following may be considered by the commission:

(1) the fees or terms that the gatherer receives from other shippers;

82-3-803. Abuse of complaint procedure.

No person shall abuse the complaint process in any manner, including causing a delay in the proceedings that may damage a party's ability to pursue or defend the complaint. Any action deemed necessary to protect the rights of a party against abuse of the complaint process may be taken by the commission. (Authorized by and implementing L. 1997, Ch. 132, § 25; effective April 3, 1998.)

82-3-804. Notice of termination.

In the event of an adverse decision at the director's level, an appeal may be made by requesting a hearing before the full commission pursuant to the Kansas administrative procedures act.

(b) Upon the certification by the director of the conservation division or by the commission after hearing, the certification shall be forwarded by the conservation division to the operator for submission to the department of revenue.

(c) All records submitted in connection with an application for exemption from the severance tax under this provision shall be retained by the corporation commission. These records shall be subject to the confidentiality provision of K.A.R. 82-3-107(e). The records shall be retained for no fewer than four years and shall be open at all times to the department of revenue.

(d) Either the first purchaser and the operator or an operator who has duly elected to report the severance tax shall be notified by the department of revenue of its acceptance of the certification from the state corporation commission.

(e) The willful filing of false documents, fraudulent documents, or both, in order to obtain an exemption from the severance tax with the conservation division shall constitute a simultaneous false filing with the department of revenue under K.S.A. 79-4225, and amendments thereto, and its provisions shall apply with respect to civil penalties, criminal prosecution, or both. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

Determination of base production. "Base production," as defined in K.S.A. 79-4217(b)(6)(A)(2), and amendments thereto, shall be determined with respect to production decline by the operator certifying under penalty of perjury as to the 12-month history of any well or wells that are part of the production enhancement project. The production decline curve shall be prepared and certified to by either a petroleum geologist or petroleum engineer under penalty of perjury. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

82-3-902. Relief from severance tax; when available. Relief from the severance tax under K.S.A. 79-4217, and amendments thereto, shall be available only to a well that has been in existence for no fewer than 12 months in order that an accurate production decline curve can be calculated and substantiated, except if the increase in production is a result of projects utilizing secondary recovery projects or new discoveries from the use of new technology, as defined in K.S.A. 79-4217(b)(6)(A)(4)(iii) or (vii), and amendments thereto. If the increase in production is the result of new technology, the base production shall be zero. Base production for secondary recovery projects shall be as determined under K.A.R. 82-3-906. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

The right to review any of this documentation shall be reserved by the commission. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

82-3-904. Wells qualifying for both new pool and production enhancement severance tax exemptions. When a new well or the opening of a new zone in an existing well would qualify for a severance tax exemption both as a new pool under K.S.A. 79-4217(b)(4), and amendments thereto, and as a production enhancement project under

K.S.A. 79-4217(b)(6)(A)(4)(ii), and amendments thereto, the operator shall elect which exemption is being claimed. The seven-year exemption for any other production enhancement project for a well already qualifying for a new pool exemption shall begin on the date of the first sale after the enhancement project is completed. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

New technology; qualification for severance tax exemption. “New technology,” as used in K.S.A. 79-4217 and amendments thereto, shall include three-dimensional seismic studies and other technology that may be certified by the KCC technical staff. The applicant shall furnish to the Kansas corporation commission proof that the production is the result of new technology, as may be required by the commission staff. All wells drilled as a result of the utilization of new technology shall qualify for the severance tax exemption. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

(a) Aggregate production of all producing wells within the boundaries of the secondary recovery project if unitized; or

(b) total production from the enhanced recovery project. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

82-3-907. Production enhancement project; multiple well lease. When a production enhancement project is performed on a multiple well lease producing into a common battery or meter, the operator shall make a separate filing for each well. A production test shall be performed on each individual well before the enhancement project and immediately following the enhancement project so that total lease production may be allocated to the individual wells for the purpose of establishing base production and production decline as referenced in K.A.R. 82-3-901. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

82-3-908. Definition, “start-up date.” The term “start-up date” shall be defined as the date of the first sale following the production enhancement procedure. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 79-4217, as amended by L. 1998, ch. 130, sec. 28; effective March 19, 1999.)

However, the conservation division's inability to witness a minimum of 25 percent of all mechanical integrity tests shall not result in any penalty to the operator of the underground porosity gas storage facility if the operator has complied with subsections (a) and (b) of this regulation.

(d) Requirements upon test failure. If a gas storage well fails to demonstrate mechanical integrity by an approved method, the operator of the well shall immediately isolate the leak or leaks in a manner that contains natural gas and associated fluids in the well or storage reservoir and demonstrates that the well does not pose a threat to fresh and usable water resources or to public safety. #### COMMON CARRIER TARIFFS

82-4-53. Common motor carrier rates and charges. (a) Common motor carriers of household goods or passengers that are engaged in intrastate commerce in Kansas shall maintain on file with the commission a copy of the tariff publications applicable to their lines between points in Kansas. The carriers shall keep open for public inspection, at their principal offices and locations at which they have employed exclusive agents, all intrastate tariff publications applicable to their lines from or to their stations.

(b) Each change to a tariff publication shall be made subject to 30-day notice to the public and the commission, unless otherwise authorized by the commission. Tariff publications of motor carriers effecting changes resulting in increases in charges, either directly or by means of any change in the regulation or practice affecting a charge or value of service, may be filed on one-day notice to the commission and the public. Applicants granted new authority may file tariffs to be effective on one-day notice. Transferees may adopt the existing tariffs of transferors to be effective on one-day notice.

(c) Tariff publication, except general rate increases, shall not go into effect without prior approval of the commission. The publications shall be subject to protest and suspension. All publications shall be accompanied by a full and complete statement citing the reasons and justifications for the changes.

(d) General rate increases shall be made only by filing an application and after approval of the commission.

(e) Protests of tariff publications shall be considered only if received by the commission at least 12 days before the published effective date of publications. Pursuant to protest or on the commission’s own motion without protest, postponement of an effective date may be ordered by the commission to permit the matter to be properly investigated. Unless otherwise ordered by the commission, publication shall become effective as filed. Publications shall not be postponed to exceed 90 days.

(f) All tariff publications shall be made in compliance with the commission’s regulations governing the publication and filing of household goods and passenger rates and charges. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-1,112; implementing K.S.A. 66-117, K.S.A. 66-1,112; effective Jan. 1, 1971; amended May 1, 1981; amended Jan. 4, 1999; amended Oct. 22, 2010; amended July 26, 2019.)

82-4-54. Tariff publication to become effective on less than 30-day notice. (a) Departure from the commission’s requirement in K.A.R. 82-4-53(b) that tariff publications become effective on 30-day notice may be permitted by the commission, if good and sufficient cause is shown to convince the commission that publication should be made on short notice.

(b) The applicant shall provide all related facts or circumstances that could aid the commission in determining if the request is justified. If permission to establish provisions on less than the required notice is sought, the applicant shall state why the proposed provisions could not have been established upon 30-day notice.

(c) Permission to allow a tariff to become effective on less than 30-day notice shall be granted in cases for which good cause is shown. The desire to meet tariff publications of a competing carrier that has been filed on 30-day notice or one-day notice may be considered a factor for permitting publication on short notice. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-1,218 and K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1,112; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,218 and K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1,112; effective Jan. 1, 1971; amended May 1, 1981; amended May 1, 1987; amended Jan. 4, 1999; amended Oct. 22, 2010.)

Procedure for filing a request for postponement of tariff publications. (a) Each protested tariff publication sought to be postponed shall be identified by making reference to the name of the publishing carrier or agent, to the motor carrier's K.C.C. tariff number, and to the specific items or particular provisions protested. The protest shall state the grounds, indicate in what respect the protested tariff publication is considered unlawful, and state what the protestant offers as a substitution. Each protest shall be addressed to the commission. A protest shall not include a request that it also be considered as a formal complaint. If a protestant desires to proceed further against a tariff publication that is not postponed or that has been postponed and the postponement vacated, a separate, later, formal complaint or petition shall be filed.

(b) Protests against, and requests for, postponement of tariff publications filed under this regulation shall not be considered unless made in writing and filed with the commission in Topeka, Kansas. The original and five copies of each request for postponement shall be filed with the commission at least 12 days before the effective date of the tariff publication, unless the protested publication was filed on less than 30-day notice under the authority of this commission, in which event the protests shall be filed at the earliest possible date. In an emergency, protests submitted by fax shall be acceptable if they fully comply with subsection (a) and copies are simultaneously faxed by protestants to the respondent carriers or their publishing agents. An original and five copies of the fax shall simultaneously be mailed by the protestants to the commission in Topeka.

(c) An original and five copies of each protest or reply filed under this regulation shall be filed with the commission no later than 10 days after the publication of the tariff, and one copy of the protest shall simultaneously be served upon the publishing carrier or agent and upon other known interested parties.

(d) Each order instituting an investigation shall be served by the commission upon respondents. If the respondent fails to comply with any requirements or time period specified in the order, the respondent shall be deemed to be in default and to have waived any further hearing. The investigation may then be decided without further proceedings. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1,112; implementing K.S.A. 66-117 and K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1,112; effective Jan. 1, 1971; amended May 1, 1981; amended Jan. 4, 1999; amended Oct. 22, 2010.)

(b) If a household goods or passenger carrier wants to concur in tariffs issued and filed by another carrier or by its agent, a concurrence in substantially the same form as that prescribed by the USDOT for use in similar instances, with references to the interstate tariffs, shall be issued in favor of the issuing carrier.

(c) The original of all powers of attorney and concurrences shall be filed with the commission, and a duplicate of the original shall be sent to the agent or carrier on whose behalf the document is issued.

The quorum requirement shall apply to any meeting when discussion includes general rate increases and decreases, tariff restructuring, commodity classification, or rules and classifications changes proposed for tariff publication. However, changes in the rates may be effected, with the written consent of the carrier or carriers that initiated the independent action, for the purpose of tariff simplification, removal of discrimination, or elimination of obsolete items.

(b) Collective adjustments pursuant to K.S.A. 66-1,112, and amendments thereto, shall not cancel rate or rule differentials or differences in rates or rules existing as a result of any independent action taken previously, unless the proponent and any other participant in that independent action desires to eliminate the rate differential or application and notifies the organization in writing of its consent.

(c) Independent action shall mean any action taken by a common carrier member of an organization to perform any of the following:

(1) Establish a rate to be published in the appropriate rate tariff or cancel a rate for that carrier's account;

(2) instruct the organization publishing the rate tariff that the existing rate or rates, whether established by independent action or collective action, proposed to be changed or cancelled be retained for that carrier's account and published in the appropriate tariff; or

(3) publish for the common carrier's account, in the appropriate tariff, a rate established by the independent action of another carrier. This definition shall apply regardless of the manner in which the carrier joins in the rate, if the rate published for the joining carrier's account is the same as the rate established by the other carrier under independent action. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1,112; effective, T-83-45, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983; amended Oct. 22, 2010.)

82-4-82. Burden of proof of violations and effects of violations. In any proceeding in which a party alleges that a carrier voted, discussed, or agreed on a rate or allowance in violation of collective ratemaking regulations of the commission, that party shall have the burden of showing that the vote, discussion, or agreement occurred. A showing of parallel behavior shall not satisfy that burden by itself. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1982 Supp. 66-1,112; effective, T-83-45, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983.)

82-4-83. Revoking collective rate making agreements. Upon proper notice and hearing, and a finding that the collective rate making procedures are not being followed, the commission may revoke its approval or order corrections to the activities and procedures of persons, groups, agencies, bureaus and other entities engaging in collective rate making before the commission. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1982 Supp. 66-1,112; effective, T-83-45, Dec. 8, 1982; effective May 1, 1983.)

This statement shall be adjusted to show pro forma test year operations. Supporting schedules shall set forth a full and complete explanation of the purpose and rationale for the pro forma adjustments. The pro forma adjustments may include adjustments to reflect the elimination or normalization of nonrecurring and unusual items, and adjustments for known or determinable changes in revenue and expenses.

Regulations relating to construction, reconstruction and maintenance of walkways adjacent to the railroad trackage; control of vegetation and removal of debris and trash. (a) In all switching areas within and outside of the yard limits, each railroad shall provide reasonably safe and adequate walkways adjacent to its tracks. All such walkways shall be maintained and kept as reasonably free of vegetation, trash and debris as may be appropriate to prevailing conditions. Each railroad shall provide for the abatement of weeds and brush adjacent to and upon walkways that is necessary to prevent the objectionable vegetation from encroaching upon such walkways.

(b) The commission may order the railroad corporation to eliminate any unsafe walkway condition and may specify a reasonable time for completion of the improvement as may be appropriate under the circumstances.

The application shall include a full statement of the conditions which prevail at the time and place involved and the reasons why deviation is deemed necessary. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-231b; effective, E-71-15, March 5, 1971; effective Jan. 1, 1972; amended May 1, 1984.)

82-5-10. Speed restrictions. Whenever a railroad deems it necessary to protect the movement of trains by placing a speed restriction on a portion of trackage, and the speed restriction remains in force over sixty (60) days, the existence of the speed restriction must be reported to the commission, the reasons stated for the speed restriction and the reasons why corrective action has not been completed. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-141, 66-156; effective, E-71-15, March 5, 1971; effective Jan. 1, 1972.)

Regulation relating to transportation of hazardous materials by railroads. (a) When the track condition on any railroad makes the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles hazardous, restriction of the movement over the track may be imposed by the state corporation commission until track conditions are corrected or a satisfactory alternate route is available.

(b) The following parts of the federal hazardous materials rules and regulations promulgated by the U.S. department of transportation are incorporated by reference as the rules and regulations of the state corporation commission of the state of Kansas: Title 49 CFR, Parts 171, 172, 173, 174, 177, 178, and 393.77, except sections 49 CFR 174.45, 174.104(c) and (d), 174.700, 177.825, 177.842, 177.843 and 177.861, as in effect on September 26, 1986.

(2) Each railroad operating in the state of Kansas shall file with the commission any change or reissue, either in whole or in part, of the rules and regulations of the operating department within 30 days after any change or reissue. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-141; effective, E-71-15, March 5, 1971; amended, E-71-22, May 28, 1971; effective Jan. 1, 1972.)

82-5-13. Overhead clearance. Each railroad shall comply with the following provisions regarding the minimum overhead clearance allowed for railroad safety.

(a) Overhead clearance shall be a minimum of 22 feet, six inches, unless excepted in another subsection of this regulation.

(b) In buildings, clearances may be reduced to 18 feet, for those tracks terminating:

(1) within the building; or

(2) in the immediate plant area, if the tracks extend through the building. Overhead clearance of doors may be reduced to 17 feet, no inches.

(c) In tunnels, the minimum clearance shall be defined by the half-circumference of a circle having a radius of eight feet and a tangent to a horizontal line 23 feet above the top of the rail at a point directly over the center line of track.

(d) The clearance under bridges shall be a minimum of 22 feet.

(e) All other structures, except as specifically provided in these regulations, shall have a minimum clearance as defined by starting at the center of the track at the top of the rail, then eight feet, six inches laterally from the center line of track, then vertically upward to a point 16 feet above the top of the rail, then diagonally upward to a point 22 feet, six inches above the top of the rail and four feet horizontally from the center of track, then horizontally to the center of the track. Overhead clearance may be reduced if overhead telltales are maintained for clearance less than 22 feet, six inches. However, any reduction of clearance below 22 feet, six inches shall be approved by the commission.

The minimal vertical clearance requirements under all wires, including wires, conductors, and cables over railroad tracks, shall be those specified in K.A.R. 82-12-2. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-231b and 66-1201; effective, E-82-2, Jan. 21, 1981; effective May 1, 1981; amended May 1, 1984; amended Aug. 11, 1995.)

(h) Platforms defined under subsection (b) of this regulation may be combined with platforms defined under subsections (c) and (e) of this regulation, provided that the lower platform presents a level surface to the face of the wall of the platform with which it is combined. No other combinations will be permitted.

(i) bridges and tunnels shall have a minimum side clearance of eight (8) feet. Further, the lower section with structure of bridges including bridges supporting track affected; handrails, water barrels and refuge platforms on bridges and trestles, water columns, oil columns, block signals, cattle guards, or portions thereof, four (4) feet or less above the top of the rail may have clearances decreased to the extent defined by a line extending diagonally upward from a point level with the top of the rail and five (5) feet six (6) inches distant laterally from the center line of track to a point four (4) feet above the top of the rail and eight (8) feet distant laterally from the center line of track. However, the clearance authorized in this subsection is not permitted on through bridges where the work of trainmen or yardmen requires them to be upon the decks of such bridges for the purpose of coupling or uncoupling cars in the performance of switching service on a switching lead;

(b) minimum clearance between parallel team, house or industry tracks shall be thirteen (13) feet between center lines;

(c) minimum clearance between ladder track and any parallel track shall be seventeen (17) feet except that the clearance between ladder track and another parallel ladder track shall be at least twenty (20) feet between center lines. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-141; effective, E-82-2, Jan. 21, 1981; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-5-16. General conditions. The space between or beside such tracks as is ordinarily used by train and yard personnel and other employees in the discharge of their duties shall be kept clear of air and water pipes, grass, weeds, and other foreign obstacles which might interfere with the work of the employees or subject the employees to unnecessary hazard. Such space between or beside the tracks and between the rails of the track must be kept in such condition as to permit the employees to pass over or between the tracks or to use the same day or night and under all weather conditions without unnecessary hazard. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-141; effective, E-82-2, Jan. 21, 1981; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-5-17. Special provisions. (a) Exemptions from any of the requirements contained in these rules shall be considered by the commission upon proper application from a carrier, industry or other interested person. A request for such exemption shall be accompanied by a full statement of the conditions existing, and the reasons for requesting the exemption. Any exemption shall be limited to the particular case covered by the application.

(b) No restricted clearance set out in this article shall apply to false works, shoofly tracks or other temporary emergency conditions caused by derailments, washouts, slides, or other unavoidable disasters.

(c) None of the restricted clearances set out shall apply to ballast, track material, or construction material unloaded on or adjacent to tracks for contemplated use thereon or in the immediate vicinity, nor shall they apply to falseworks or temporary construction necessary on any construction project.

(d) All existing structures, operating appurtenances, pole lines, service facilities, and track arrangements shall be exempt from these regulations except as specifically provided.

(e) No change in track location or elevation shall be made which will reduce existing vertical or horizontal structural clearance below the minimum allowed by these rules, except where tracks are constructed as part of the existing facility, and in such cases the clearance shall conform to existing conditions.

(f) No repair or maintenance work shall be done on structures, facilities or appurtenances adjacent to tracks which will reduce existing vertical or horizontal structural clearance below the minimum allowed by these rules.

(g) Where an existing structure does not provide clearance equal to the minimum set out in K.A.R. 82-5-13 or such other minimum herein specified, the portion of the structure producing the impaired clearance may be repaired and maintained by partial replacements, which shall in no case reduce the clearance available at the time this order takes effect.

(h) When the owner shall replace in its entirety the portion of a structure which has not previously provided standard clearance, the rebuilt portion must, when complete, provide the full standard clearance unless otherwise ordered by the commission.

(i) Existing tracks of all kinds may be maintained by rebalasting, resurfacing and replacing rails and ties subject to the limitations of these rules. Where existing yards are completely replaced or are partially replaced as a unit or section of a master plan, the arrangement must meet the provisions of the rules both as to track centers and clearances to structures and other facilities being built in connection with and as a part of such plan. Existing structures which are to remain and which do not provide the minimum clearance with respect to the proposed new track must be approved by the commission for exemption from the requirements of these rules. Existing tracks having less vertical clearance than that specified by these rules may be maintained but the top of the rail may not be raised without a corresponding raise of the overhead structure to maintain the existing available clearance. Existing tracks having less horizontal clearance between them than is specified for new construction or having less horizontal clearance to structures than is specified by these rules may be maintained but they may not be shifted horizontally to reduce either the existing track centers or the existing structural clearance. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-141; effective, E-82-2, Jan. 21, 1981; effective May 1, 1981.)

(A) A study of 10 years of historical load growth. Data for each year shall be subdivided into actual or modeled simulation by residential, commercial, industrial, and other load components;

(B) a trending methodology and detailed explanation of it, making use of the historical load growth study and modifying the study results to account for trend changes caused by conservation, load management, price elasticity, econometrics, and additional factors that are themselves trend makers; and

(C) a load forecasting methodology incorporating the results of paragraph (g)(7)(B) above and a detailed explanation of it;

(h) data on the geology and seismology of the site and region surrounding the proposed site including the following:

(1) Maps and charts showing the topography, which shall include the following:

(A) A location map of the proposed structures, test holes, and excavation;

(B) a geologic map of rock types and structural features;

(C) geologic cross sections showing subsurface conditions; and

(D) a map, drawn to a scale not less than four inches equal one mile, showing bedrock contours where the site is covered by unconsolidated material;

(2) the physiographic significance of topographic features and their relationship to the regional pattern;

(3) the stratigraphic significance of the genesis, composition, extent, sequence, and correlation of rock units;

(4) the lithologic significance of the composition and textural character, including the results of any studies necessary to obtain a complete determination, of rock type and mineral composition;

(5) the subsurface structure showing faults, joints, distortion, alteration, weathering, slip planes, fissures, and cavities, and an explanation of the relationship of significant regional structure to site geology, including faulting;

(6) a description of soil types at the site;

(7) information concerning slope stability at the site; and

(8) copies of all studies or other bases used to furnish any information in this subsection;

(i) information on fuel to be used at the proposed facility, including the following:

(1) The specific type of fuel expected to be used; and

(2) a description of the method of fuel delivery to the site as well as the frequency of delivery that will be necessary;

(j) an evaluation of the effect on the environment, which shall be prepared for each alternative site for a new generating facility. The evaluation shall consider the following, at a minimum:

(1) The cultural, scenic, archaeological, and historical characteristics of the site; and

(2) the fauna and flora and, in particular, any endangered species existing in or traversing the site; and

(k) a discussion of the anticipated noise level of the proposed facility and the need and proposals for noise control. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 2001 Supp. 66-1,159; effective May 1, 1981; modified, L. 1981, ch. 425, May 1, 1981; amended Jan. 31, 2003.)

82-8-4. Waiver provisions. The commission may for good cause shown waive any of the requirements of these regulations to the extent permitted by law. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-1,159; effective May 1, 1981.)

82-8-100. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective May 1, 1983; amended July 23, 1990; revoked Aug. 11, 1995.)

82-8-102 to 82-8-107. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective May 1, 1983; revoked Aug. 11, 1995.)

Article 9.—RAILROAD RATES

82-9-1. Railroad tariff filing requirements. (a)(1) Each railroad tariff for rates or provisions published in connection with a new service, and each railroad tariff change that would result in increased rates, shall be on file with the commission at least 20 days prior to its effective date.

(2) Each railroad tariff which would result in decreased rates or increased value of service shall be on file at least 10 days prior to its effective date.

(3) Each rate publication filed with the commission shall be on forms prescribed by the commission and shall contain such information as the commission may require, including, but not limited to:

(A) a tariff containing all relevant and material provisions relating to the rate and its application; and

(B) a statement as to whether the rate will increase, decrease, or produce no change in the carrier's revenue.

(4) Each railroad tariff which would result in a decrease in the value of service shall be on file at least 20 days prior to its effective date.

(5) Each railroad tariff which would result in neither increases or reductions of rate or services shall be filed at least 10 days prior to its effective date.

(6) Independently filed new and reduced rail rates may become effective on one day's notice pursuant to 3 I.C.C. 323 (1987) and 49 C.F.R. § 1312.39(h) as in effect on October 1, 1989.

(7) Shorter notice will be available for changes in rail rates upon a showing of good cause pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 1312.2 as in effect on October 1, 1989.

(b) The interstate commerce commission's decision in ex parte No. 355, cost standards for railroad rates 364 I.C.C. 898 (1981) is hereby adopted by reference in implementing minimum rate regulation.

(c) Rate Discrimination.

(1) Differences between rates, classifications, rules and practices of rail carriers providing transportation subject to the jurisdiction of this commission shall not constitute unlawful discrimination if such differences result from different services provided by rail carriers.

(2) The commission recognizes that the following matter are not unjust, unreasonably discriminating or unduly preferential:

(A) contracts approved by the commission except as provided in 49 U.S.C. 10713;

(B) surcharges or cancellations pursuant to 49 U.S.C. 10705a;

(C) separate rates for distinct rail services;

(D) rail rates applicable to different routes; and

(E) expenses authorized under 49 U.S.C. 10751.

(3) The discrimination limitations of 49 U.S.C. § 10741 do not restrict the commission's mandate to eliminate discrimination in the rail transportation of recyclables.

(d) The commission hereby adopts 49 U.S.C. § 10730 by reference, authorizing railroads to publish rates under which the liability of the carrier is limited to a value established by the written declaration of the shipper or by written agreement between the carrier and the shipper.

(e) All actions regarding the operation of railroads within the state of Kansas will be consistent with 49 U.S.C. § 10101a. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-107, 66-110 and K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-2. Commencement of proceedings.

(a) To determine whether a new individual or joint rate, or an individual or joint classification, rule, or practice related to a rate filed with the commission by a rail carrier, is discriminatory, unreasonable or in any way violates the law, the commission may:

(1) on its own initiative, commence an investigation proceeding; or

(2) upon protest of an interested party, commence an investigation proceeding; or

(3) upon protest of an interested party, commence an investigation and suspension proceeding.

The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to general rate increases, inflation-based increases, or fuel adjustment surcharges filed under the provisions of 49 U.S.C. § 11051(b)(6), over which the commission has no jurisdiction.

(b) Rates based on limited carrier liability may be published and filed with the commission, without prior approval. However, those rates shall be subject to protest on grounds including unreasonableness or nonconformance with the tariff publication requirements found in 49 CFR 1300.4 (i) (11), as in effect on September 23, 1983, which are hereby adopted by reference.

(c) The commission shall give reasonable notice to each interested party before beginning a proceeding. However, the commission may begin the proceeding without allowing an interested party to file an answer.

(d) The commission recognizes that the interstate commerce commission has exclusive authority to prescribe an intrastate rate for transportation provided by a rail carrier, pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 11051 (d) when:

(1) a rail files with the appropriate state authority a change in an intrastate rate, or a change in a classification, rule, or practice that has the effect of changing an intrastate rate, that adjusts the rate to the rate charged on similar traffic moving in interstate or foreign commerce; and

(2) the state authority does not act finally on the change by the 120th day after it was filed. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985.)

82-9-3. Grounds for suspension. (a) A proposed rate, classification, rule, or practice shall not be suspended unless it appears, from the specific facts shown by a verified statement of a protestant, that:

(1) there is a substantial probability that the protestant will prevail on the merits;

(2) without suspension, the proposed rate change will cause substantial injury to the protestant or the party represented by the protestant; and

(3) because of the peculiar economic circumstances of the protestant, the provisions of K.A.R. 82-9-11 of these rules do not protect the protestant.

(4) A state agency shall not suspend a proposed rail rate classification, rule or practice on its own motion. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-4. Duration of suspension period.

(a) Each proceeding commenced under these procedures shall be completed within five months from the effective date of the proposed rate, classification, rule or practice. However, if the commission reports to the interstate commerce commission that it cannot make a final decision within that time and explains the reason for the delay, an extension of three months may be allowed to complete the proceeding and make a final decision.

(b) If the commission does not render a final decision within the applicable time period, the rate, classification, rule or practice shall become effective immediately or, if already in effect, shall remain in effect. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-5. Market dominance. (a) When any new individual or joint rate is alleged to be unreasonably high, a determination of whether or not the railroad proposing the rate has market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies shall be made by the commission within 90 days after the start of a proceeding under these rules.

(b) If the railroad proposing the rate has market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies, a determination of whether or not the proposed rate exceeds a maximum reasonable level for that transportation shall be made.

(c) If the railroad proposing the rate does not have market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies, no determination on the issue of reasonableness will be made.

(d) Any finding by the commission that the proposed rate has a revenue-variable cost percentage which is equal to or greater than the percentages found in 49 U.S.C. § 10709(d)(2) as in effect on September 23, 1983, which is hereby adopted by reference, shall not establish a presumption that:

(1) The railroad has or does not have market dominance over such transportation; or

(2) the proposed rate exceeds or does not exceed a reasonable maximum level.

(e) The interstate commerce commission's decision in Market Dominance Determinations 365 ICC 118, applying to the market dominance standards, is hereby adopted by reference.

(f) Evidentiary guidelines in determining market dominance as set out in 365 I.C.C. 118 (1981) and 2 I.C.C.2d 1 (1985) are hereby adopted by reference. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-6. Reasonableness. (a) Except for nonferrous recyclables, the reasonableness of a rate shall be evaluated by the commission only after market dominance has been established. Authority to determine and prescribe reasonable rules, classifications and practices may not be used directly or indirectly to limit the rates that rail carriers are otherwise authorized to establish. Unless prohibited by specific statutory provision, any reasonable rate may be established. The standards set out in 1 I.C.C.2d 520 (1985) and ex parte no. 347 (Sub-No. 2) (unpublished) as served April 8, 1987, are hereby adopted by reference. In determining whether a rate is reasonable, evidence of the following shall be considered:

(1) The amount of traffic that is transported at revenues which do not contribute to going concern value and the efforts made to minimize that traffic;

(2) the amount of traffic which contributes only marginally to fixed costs and the extent to which, if any, rates on the traffic can be changed to maximize the revenues from the traffic; and

(3) the carrier's mix of rail traffic, to determine whether one commodity is paying an unreasonable share of the carrier's overall revenues.

(b) Any rate on nonferrous recyclable material shall be presumed to be unreasonable when it is set at a revenue to variable cost ratio greater than 147.7 percent.

(c) Revenue adequacy standards as set out in standards for railroad revenue adequacy, 364 I.C.C. 803 (1981) shall be established by the commission. Where there is a prior interstate commerce commission ruling on revenue adequacy of a particular carrier, a certified state agency is bound by the ICC ruling and may not determine revenue adequacy independently. The return on investment/cost of capital standards as set out in 3 I.C.C.2d 261 (1986) are also adopted by reference.

(d) Intrastate rates in existence on October 1, 1980, shall be conclusively presumed reasonable unless a complaint that was filed under § 229 of the staggers rail act of 1980 with the interstate commerce commission not later than March 31, 1981, was submitted to the commission for disposition.

(1) The cost adjustment factor determined by the interstate commerce commission on a quarterly basis shall be used by the commission to determine the adjusted base rate.

(2) Complaints on adjustments to the base rate which cover inflation will not be investigated, suspended or accepted.

(3) Increases within the zone will not be suspended or investigated unless the increases produce ratios exceeding the year's market dominance threshold plus 20%, or 190%, whichever is less. In deciding whether to investigate, the following shall be considered by the commission:

(A) The amount of traffic below going concern value and efforts to minimize it;

(B) amount of traffic contributing marginally to fixed costs;

(C) traffic impact on revenue adequacy and energy; and

(D) cross subsidization of traffic.

(e) The protestant shall have the burden of justifying an investigation.

(f) A rail carrier may petition the interstate commerce commission to review a decision regarding intrastate rates pursuant to 49 U.S.C. § 11501(c). (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended May 1, 1986; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-7. Burden of proof. (a) General. The burden shall be on the protestant to prove the matters described in K.A.R. 82-9-3 of these rules.

(b) Jurisdiction. The respondent railroad shall bear the burden of showing that the commission lacks jurisdiction to review the proposed rate because the rate produces a revenue—variable cost percentage that is less than the percentages found in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10709(d)(2), which is hereby adopted by reference, as in effect on September 23, 1983. The railroad may meet its burden of proof by showing the revenue—variable cost percentage for that transportation to which the rate applies is less than the threshold percentage cited in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10709(d)(2). The protestant may rebut the railroad's evidence with a showing that the revenue—variable cost percentage is equal to or greater than the threshold percentage in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10709(d)(2).

(c) Intramodal and intermodal competition. The protestant shall bear the burden of demonstrating that there exists no effective intramodal or intermodal competition for the transportation to which the rate applies. The respondent railroad may rebut the protestant's showing with evidence that effective intramodal or intermodal competition exists.

(d) Product and geographic competition. The railroad shall also introduce evidence of product or geographic competition by identifying such competition. Once the railroad has made this identification, the party opposing the rate shall have the burden of proving that the product or geographic competition identified by the railroad is not effective.

(e) Reasonableness of rate increases. Each party protesting a rate increase shall bear the burden of demonstrating its unreasonableness if the rate:

(1) is authorized under 49 U.S.C. § 10707a, as in effect on September 23, 1983; and

(2) results in a revenue—variable cost percentage for the transportation to which the rate applies that is less than the lesser of the percentages described in clauses (i) and (ii) of 49 U.S.C. § 10707a(e)(2)(A), as in effect on September 23, 1983.

(f) Respondent's burden of proof. The respondent railroad shall bear the burden of demonstrating the reasonableness of a rate increase if:

(A) The rate is greater than that authorized under paragraph (e)(1) of this regulation; or

(B) The rate results in a revenue—variable cost percentage, for the transportation to which the rate applies, that is equal to or greater than the lesser of the percentages described in clauses (i) and (ii) of 49 U.S.C. § 10707a(e)(2)(A), as in effect on September 23, 1983; and

(2) the commission initiates an investigation.

(g) Rate decreases. A party protesting a rate decrease shall bear the burden of demonstrating that the rate does not contribute to the going concern value of the railroad, and is therefore unreasonably low. A party may meet its burden by making a showing that the rate is less than the variable cost for the transportation to which the rate applies. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985.)

82-9-8. Zone of rate flexibility. (a)(1) Any rail carrier may raise any rate subject to the limitations described in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a as in effect on September 23, 1983. Base rates increased by the quarterly rail cost adjustment factor shall not be investigated or suspended.

(2) In addition, any railroad may increase any rate by 6% per annum until October 1984. Railroads not earning adequate revenues, as defined by the interstate commerce commission, after that period, may raise rates 4% per year. Neither the 6% or 4% increase shall be suspended. If either increase results in a revenue to variable cost ratio that equals or exceeds 190%, the rate may be investigated either upon the commission's own motion or on complaint of an interested party. The preceding standards regarding the regulation of intrastate rail rates are adopted by the commission to conform to the staggers rail act of 1980.

(b) In determining whether or not to investigate the rate, the following shall be considered:

(1) the amount of traffic which the railroad transports at revenues which do not contribute to going concern value and efforts made to minimize that traffic;

(2) the amount of traffic which contributes only marginally to fixed costs and the extent to which rates on that traffic can be changed to maximize the revenues from that traffic;

(3) the impact of the challenged rate on national energy goals;

(4) state and national transportation policy; and

(5) the revenue adequacy goals incorporated in the interstate commerce act, as in effect on September 23, 1983.

(6) Increased rates resulting from application of the rail cost adjustment factor (RCAF) are conclusively presumed lawful so long as they do not exceed the adjusted base rate. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-9. Monetary adjustments for suspension actions. (a) Rate increases with no suspensions. If the commission does not suspend, but investigates, a proposed rate increase under K.A.R. 82-9-3, the rail carrier shall account for all amounts received under the increase until the commission completes its proceedings under K.A.R. 82-9-4. The accounting shall specify by whom and for whom the amounts are paid. When the commission takes final action, the carrier shall refund to the persons for whom the amounts were paid that part of the increased rate found to be unreasonable, plus interest at a rate equal to the average yield, on the date that the "statement of monetary adjustment" is filed, of marketable securities of the United States government having a duration of 90 days.

(b) Rate increases with suspension. If a rate is suspended and any portion of that rate is later found to be reasonable, the carrier shall collect from each person using the transportation to which the rate applies the difference between the original rate and the portion of the suspended rate found to be reasonable for any services performed during the period of suspension. The carrier shall also collect, from such persons, interest at a rate equal to the average yield, on the date that the "statement of monetary adjustment" is filed, of marketable securities of the United States government having a duration of 90 days.

(c) Rate decreases with suspension. If the commission suspends a proposed rate decrease which is later found to be reasonable, the rail carrier may refund any part of the decrease found to be reasonable if the carrier makes the refund available to each shipper who participated in the rate, in accordance with the relative amount of that shipper's traffic which was transported at that rate. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-10. Filing requirements. (a) The protest, reply and any other pleadings relating to the proceeding shall not be considered unless made in writing and filed with the commission.

(b) The protest, reply or other pleadings relating to the proceeding shall be received for filing at the commission's office within the time limits, if any, for that filing. The date of receipt at the commission, and not the date of deposit in the mail, is determinative.

(c) If, after examination, the commission finds that the protest, reply, "statement of monetary adjustment" or other pleadings relating to the proceeding are not in substantial compliance with the provisions of these regulations, the commission may decline to accept the documents for filing, advise the party submitting the documents of the deficiencies, and require correction of the deficiencies.

(d) The protest, reply, tariff and other pleadings relating to the proceeding shall be signed in ink and the signer's address shall be stated.

(e) The facts alleged in a protest, reply, tariff or other pleading shall be verified by the person on whose behalf it is filed. If a protest or pleading is filed on behalf of a corporation or other organization, it shall be verified by an officer of that corporation or organization.

(f) Identification. The protested tariff shall be identified by making reference to the name of the railroad or its publishing agent, to the KCC docket number, to the specific items of particular provisions protested and to the effective date of the protested publication. Reference shall also be made to the tariff and specific provisions of the tariff that are proposed to be superseded.

(g) Ground for suspension. The protest shall incorporate:

(1) Sufficient facts to meet the criteria for suspension, as set forth in K.A.R. 82-9-3;

(2) Sufficient facts to sustain the applicable burdens of proof, as set forth in K.A.R. 82-9-7; and

(3) Any additional information that would support suspension of the proposed rate.

(h) Timing. When a proposed change is to become effective upon not less than 20 days notice, each protest and request for suspension of a tariff filed by a railroad shall be received by the commission at least 10 days prior to the effective date. When the proposed change is to become effective upon not less than 10 days notice, such protests and requests shall be received at least five days prior to the effective date.

(i) Reply to protest. The reply shall adequately identify the protested tariff. Further, it shall contain sufficient facts to rebut the allegations made in the protest and to sustain the applicable burdens of proof.

(j) When the proposed change is to become effective upon not less than 20 days notice, a reply to a protest shall be received by the commission not later than the fourth working day prior to the effective date. When the proposed change is to become effective upon not less than 10 days notice, the reply shall be received no later than the second working day prior to the effective date. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-11. Refund or collection of freight charges based upon commission findings.

(a) Except as otherwise provided, when the commission finds that a railroad must make refunds on freight charges collected, or that the railroad is entitled to collect additional freight charges, but the amount cannot be ascertained upon the record before it, the party entitled to the refund or the railroad entitled to collect additional monies shall immediately prepare a statement showing details of the shipments involved in the proceeding.

(b) The statement shall not include any shipment not covered by the commission's findings. If the shipments moved over more than one route, a separate statement shall be prepared for each route and each statement shall be separately numbered. However, shipments which, in each instance, have the same collecting carrier may be listed in a single statement if grouped according to routes.

(c) Each prepared, certified statement shall be filed with the commission and it shall then consider entry of an order awarding refunds or authorizing collection of additional freight charges.

(d) If a rail carrier wishes to waive the collection of amounts due when such amounts are more than $2,000, a petition for appropriate authority shall be filed by the carrier on the special docket by submitting a letter of intent to waive insignificant amounts. These petitions shall contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the customer for whom the carrier wishes to waive collection;

(2) The name and addresses of the carriers involved in the intended waiver and a statement certifying that all carriers concur in the action;

(3) The amount intended to be waived;

(4) The points of origin and destination of the shipments and the routes of movement; and

(5) A brief statement of justification for the intended waiver, including the anticipated costs of billing, collection and/or litigation if the waiver is not permitted.

(e) If the amount to be waived is $2,000 or less, no petition need be filed prior to the waiver. A letter of disposition informing the commission of the action taken, the date of the action, and the amount waived shall be submitted to the commission within 30 days of the waiver.

(f) Petitions to waive the collection of undercharges or waive the collection of insignificant amounts shall be made available by the commission for public inspection five days after receipt, and shall remain available for 25 days. Any interested person may protest the granting of a petition by filing a letter of objection with the commission within 30 days of commission receipt of the petition. Letters of objection shall clearly state the reasons for the objection, and shall certify that a copy of the letter of objection has been served on all parties named in the petition. A period of 15 days shall be allowed for reply from the respondent.

(g) Any petition which is not contested within 30 days shall be considered an order of the commission authorizing the action contemplated in the petition. In such a case the order shall take effect 45 days after commission receipt of the petition. Within 30 days after the expiration of the 45-day period, the carrier filing the petition shall file a letter of disposition informing the commission of the date of the action and the amount paid or waived. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985.)

82-9-12. Zone of rate flexibility. Base rates increased by the quarterly rail cost adjustment factor shall not be found to exceed a reasonable maximum for the transportation involved. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-13. Market dominance. (a) The commission shall determine, within 90 days of the start of a complaint proceeding, whether the carrier has market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applies. If the commission finds that the carrier has market dominance, it may then determine that rate to be unreasonable if it exceeds a reasonable maximum for that transportation.

(b) If the rail carrier establishing the challenged rate proves that the rate charged results in a revenue-variable cost percentage which is less than that allowed in K.A.R. 82-9-5, the rail carrier shall not be considered to have market dominance over the transportation to which the rate applied.

(c) If the commission determines that a rail carrier does not have market dominance over the transportation to which a particular rate applies, the rate established by that carrier for the transportation shall be reasonable. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-14. Maximum rates. (a) Rail rates shall not be established below a reasonable minimum. Any rate for transportation by a rail carrier that does not contribute to the going concern value for that carrier is presumed to be not reasonable.

(b) Rail rates which equal or exceed the variable cost of providing the transportation shall be conclusively presumed to contribute to the going concern value of that rail carrier, and therefore shall be presumed not to be below a reasonable minimum.

(c) In determining whether a rate is reasonable, the policy that railroads earn adequate revenues, as well as evidence of the following factors, shall be considered:

(1) the amount of traffic which is transported at revenues which do not contribute to going concern value and efforts made to minimize such traffic;

(2) the amount of traffic which contributes only marginally to fixed costs and the extent to which, if any, rates on that traffic can be changed to maximize the revenues from such traffic; and

(3) the carrier's mix of rail traffic to determine whether one commodity is paying an unreasonable share of the carrier's overall revenues. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-15. Burden of proof. (a) Jurisdiction. Each defendant railroad shall bear the burden of showing that the commission lacks jurisdiction to review a rate because the rate produces a revenue—variable cost percentage that is less than the percentages incorporated in K.A.R. 82-9-7. The railroad shall meet its burden of proof by showing the revenue-variable cost percentage for the transportation to which the rate applies is less than the threshold percentage incorporated in K.A.R. 82-9-7. Any complainant may rebut the railroad's evidence with a showing that the revenue-variable cost percentage is equal to or greater than the applicable threshold percentage.

(b) Reasonableness of existing rates. Any party complaining that an existing rate is unreasonably high shall bear the burden of proving that the rate is not reasonable. Any party complaining that an existing rate is unreasonably low shall bear the burden of demonstrating that the rate does not contribute to the going concern value of the carrier, and that the rate is, for that reason, unreasonably low.

(c) Nonapplicability. Complaints shall not be entertained by the commission to the extent that they challenge the reasonableness of the following rate adjustments:

- (1) general rate increases;
- (2) inflation-based rate increases; or
- (3) fuel adjustment surcharges. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-16. Contracts. (a) Definitions.

(1) "Contract," as used in this regulation, means a written agreement entered into by one or more rail carriers with one or more purchasers of rail services, to provide specified services under specified rates, charges, and conditions.

(2) "Amendment" means written contract modifications signed by the parties.

(b) Filing and approval. Each rail carrier providing transportation subject to commission jurisdiction shall file, with the commission, an original and one copy of all contracts entered into with one or more purchasers of rail services. These contracts shall be accompanied by two copies of the contract tariff that contains a summary of the nonconfidential elements of the contract in the form specified in 49 C.F.R. 1300.300-1300.315, as in effect on September 23, 1983, which is hereby adopted by reference. The following parts of the federal rules and regulations promulgated by the interstate commerce commission, as they existed on September 23, 1984, are hereby incorporated by reference: 49 C.F.R. 1300.300 through 1300.315.

(c) Each contract filed under the section shall specify that the contract is made pursuant to K.A.R. 82-9-16, and shall be signed by duly authorized parties.

(d) Each amendment shall be treated as a new contract. Each amendment shall be lawful only if it is filed and approved in the same manner as a contract. To the extent terms affecting the lawfulness of the underlying contract are changed, remedies shall be revived and review shall again be available.

(e) Grounds for review of contract. A proceeding to review a contract may be initiated within 30 days of its filing date upon the commission's own motion or complaint of an interested party. Such a review shall be based only on an allegation of violations as described in K.A.R. 83-9-17. For purposes of this subsection, the definition of the term for "agricultural commodities," "forest products," and "paper" will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

(f) Enforcement. The exclusive remedy for an alleged breach of a contract approved by the commission shall be an action in an appropriate state district court, unless the parties otherwise agree in the contract. A rail carrier shall not be required to violate the terms of a contract, except to the extent necessary to comply with 49 U.S.C. § 11128.

(g) A rail carrier may enter into contracts for the transportation of agricultural commodities that involve the use of carrier-owned or based equipment if the involved equipment does not exceed 40 percent of the total number of the carrier's owned or leased equipment, by major car type. Agricultural commodities shall include forest products, excluding wood pulp, wood chips, pulpwood or paper.

(h) Any transportation or service performed under a contract or amendment may begin, without specific commission authorization, on or after the date the contract and contract summary or contract amendment and supplement are filed and before commission approval.

(i) Rules governing railroad contracts as set forth in 4 I.C.C.2d 288 (1988) are hereby adopted by reference. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-17. Grounds for complaints. Any contract may be reviewed by the commission on its motion, or upon complaint. Contracts shall be reviewed only on the following grounds:

(a) In the case of a contract other than a contract for the transportation of agricultural commodities, including forest products and paper, a shipper may file a complaint only on the grounds that the shipper individually will be harmed because the contract unduly impairs the ability of the contracting carrier or carriers to meet their common obligations under 49 U.S.C. Sec. 11101 (a), as in effect on September 23, 1983.

(b) In the case of a contract for the transportation of agricultural commodities, including forest produce and paper, a shipper may file a complaint only on the grounds that:

(1) The shipper individually will be harmed because the contract unduly impairs the ability of the contracting carrier or carriers to meet common carrier obligations;

(2) The rail carrier or carriers unreasonable discriminated against the shipper; or

(3) The contract constitutes a destructive, competitive practice.

(c) "Unreasonable discrimination," as used in these rules and when applied to agricultural shippers, means that the railroad has refused to enter into a contract with the shipper for rates and services for transportation of the same type of commodity under similar conditions to the contract at issue, and that the shipper was ready, willing, and able to enter into a contract at a time essentially contemporaneous with the period during which the contract at issue was offered. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-18. Filing and service of complaints.

(a) An original and six copies of a complaint shall be filed with the commission by the 18th day after the filing date of the contract. A copy of the complaint shall also be served on each railroad listed as a railroad participating in the contract, by hand, express mail, or other overnight delivery service.

(b) An original and six copies of a reply shall be filed by the 23rd day after the filing of the contract and a copy shall be served upon the complainants.

(c) Any appeal of the commission's decision shall be made at least two work days prior to the contract approval date. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-19. Commission decision upon review of contract.

(a) Within 30 days after the date a proceeding is begun to review a contract upon the grounds specified in 82-9-17(b), the commission shall decide whether the contract violates the provisions of 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10713, as in effect on September 23, 1983. If the commission finds that a violation exists, it shall:

(1) disapprove the contract;

(2) in the case of agricultural contracts where the commission finds unreasonable discrimination by a carrier, order the carrier to provide rates and services substantially similar to the contract at issue with any differences in terms and conditions that are justified by the evidence; or

(3) allow the carrier to cancel the contract.

(b) Approval date of contract. Each contract shall be approved on the 30th day after the filing date of that contract. If the commission does not institute a proceeding to review the contract, the contract shall be considered "expressly approved" by the commission.

(c) If the commission institutes a proceeding to review a contract, that contract shall be approved:

(1) on the date the commission approves the contract, if the date of approval is 30 or more days after the filing date of the contract;

(2) on the 30th day after the filing date of the contract, if the commission approves the contract prior to the 30th day after the filing date of the contract; or

(3) on the 60th day after the filing date of a contract, if the commission fails to disapprove the contract. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985.)

82-9-20. Limitation of rights of a rail carrier to enter future contracts.

The commission may limit the right of any rail carrier to enter into future contracts if it determines that additional contracts would impair the ability of the rail carrier to fulfill its common carrier obligations. That determination shall be handled on a case-by-case basis. The commission may investigate either on its own initiative or upon the filing of a verified complaint, by a shipper, which demonstrates that the carrier's inability to fulfill its common carrier obligations, as a result of existing contracts, harmed that shipper. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-21. Common carrier responsibility.

(a) The terms of each contract approved by the commission shall completely determine the duties and service obligations of the parties to the contract with respect to the services provided under the contract. The contract shall not affect the parties' responsibilities for any services which are not included in the contract.

(b) The exclusive remedy for an alleged breach of a contract approved by the commission shall be an action in an appropriate state court or United States district court, unless the parties otherwise agree in the contract. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-22. Filing a contract and contract tariff. (a) Each railroad entering into a contract for railroad transportation services (or the originating railroad for a contract involving movement over more than one railroad) with one or more purchasers of rail service shall file, with the commission, the original and one copy of the contract and two copies of the contract tariff.

(b) Each contract filed under these rules shall not be available for inspection by persons other than the parties to the contract and authorized commission personnel, except by a petition demonstrating that the petitioner is likely to succeed on the merits of the complaint and that the matter complained of could not be proved without access to the complete contract.

(c) The contract tariff filed under these rules shall include the information specified in 49 CFR 1300.300-1300.315, as in effect on September 23, 1983, which are hereby adopted by reference. The contract tariff shall be made available for inspection by the general public.

(d) Copies of contract summaries shall be available from the commission. When requesting a summary, reference shall be made to the contract docket number.

(e) Each contract and contract tariff shall be filed with the commission at least 30 days, and not more than 60 days, before the date on which it is to become effective, except as otherwise authorized by the commission. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

82-9-23. Exempt transportation. (a) The commission may exempt a person, class of person, transaction or service from further rail regulation by the commission when it finds that:

(1) further regulation is not necessary to carry out state and national transportation policy; and

(2) either the transaction or service is of limited scope, or further regulation is not needed to protect shippers from the abuse of market power.

(b) The commission may, on its own initiative, or on application by any interested party, begin a proceeding to exempt rail carrier transportation.

(c) The commission may specify the period of time during which the exemption granted is effective.

(d) The commission may revoke, in whole or in part, an exemption if it determines that a revocation is necessary to carry out state and national transportation policy.

(e) When the interstate commerce commission concludes that a particular category of interstate traffic is exempted, this commission will adopt it as a standard for intrastate traffic. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985.)

(b) Rail variable cost and revenue determinations for joint rates subject to surcharge or cancellation shall be made pursuant to 3 I.C.C.2d 703 and 49 C.F.R. Part 1138 as in effect October 1, 1989.

(c) Cancellation of joint rates and complaints seeking prescription of joint rates and reciprocal switching arrangements shall be made pursuant to 1 I.C.C.2d 822 and 49 C.F.R. Part 1144 as in effect October 1, 1989. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 1989 Supp. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984; amended May 1, 1985; amended Oct. 29, 1990.)

82-9-25. Rate discrimination. Differences between rates, classifications, rules and practices of rail carriers that provide transportation which is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission shall not constitute unlawful discrimination if the differences result from different services provided by rail carriers. (Authorized by K.S.A. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 66-146; effective May 1, 1984.)

An oil or natural gas liquid pipeline company whose rates are under review by this commission at the request of the applicant, or as a result of investigation, complaint or any other procedure, shall comply with this regulation. The applicant shall be prepared to establish by appropriate schedules and competent testimony all relevant facts and data pertaining to its business and operations which will assist the commission in arriving at a determination of rates which will be fair, just and reasonable both to the applicant and the public.

(b) In preparing justification statements, prefiled testimony and supporting schedules, the applicant shall utilize the following format:

(1) The first section shall contain a copy of the application, a copy of the letter of transmittal, and the appropriate document or documents authorizing the filing of the application, if any.

(2) The second section shall give general information and shall include:

(A) the amount of dollars of the aggregate annual increase which the application proposes;

(B) a summary of the reasons for filing the application;

(C) such other pertinent information which the applicant may desire to submit or which the commission may in its discretion require;

(D) copies of any press releases issued by the applicant prior to or at the time of filing the application for a rate review, relating to that review; and

82-10-3. Revisions of application and schedules. (a) If an oil or natural gas liquid pipeline company desires to make revisions to its application and schedules, other than minor corrections and insertions which can only be made by interlineation without unduly prolonging a hearing with respect to the application or schedules, the applicant shall file with the commission revised schedules as are necessary to reflect the desired revisions:

(1) Each page of the revised section or schedule shall bear the same section letter designation, schedule number, and page number as the original page with the word "Revised" and the date of the revision immediately below the original section, schedule, or page designation.

(2) There shall be filed the same number of copies of any revised sections, schedules or pages as the number of copies originally required to be filed.

(3) A copy of each revised section, schedule or page shall also be served upon each party whose intervention has previously been permitted by the commission pursuant to K.A.R. 82-1-225.

(4) All revised sections, schedules and pages shall be filed according to the provisions of K.A.R. 82-1-221, unless otherwise ordered by the commission for good cause shown.

(5) Substantial revisions of the schedules, such as changing to a different test year, may constitute grounds for the commission to continue any scheduled hearing to a later date, if necessary for its staff to conduct further investigation or revise its schedules with respect to these revisions.

(6) Revised prefiled testimony shall be filed simultaneously with the filing of the revised application.

(b) For good cause shown the commission may waive any of the requirements of this rule. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-504, K.S.A. 66-106 and K.S.A. 66-1,218; implementing K.S.A. 55-504 and K.S.A. 66-1,218; effective May 1, 1987.)

82-10-4. Annual report. Every oil or natural gas liquid pipeline company subject to the commission's jurisdiction shall file with the commission a copy of form No. 6, "Annual Report of Oil Pipeline Companies" which has been filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission. This report shall be filed by March 31 of each year for the previous calendar year. (Authorized by K.S.A. 55-504, K.S.A. 66-106, and K.S.A. 66-1,218; implementing K.S.A. 55-504 and K.S.A. 66-1,218; effective May 1, 1987.)

82-10-5. Suspension of certificate for failure to comply with regulations. The certificate of any oil or natural gas liquid pipeline company who fails to comply with the rules and regulations of the commission or the laws of the state of Kansas may be suspended. This failure shall be full and sufficient cause for the commission to cancel the certificate upon citation and hearing. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-1,216; effective May 1, 1987.)

82-11-6. Procedures to ensure compliance with minimum safety standards.

The following procedures may be utilized by the commission to ensure compliance with the minimum safety standards of this article of the commission’s regulations: (a) Annual audit-inspection. Inspectors from the gas pipeline safety section of the commission may visit each operator annually, or as needed, to inspect the operator’s operation and maintenance records and to perform field surveys and tests as required by this article of the commission’s regulations. Audit-inspection evaluation forms shall be used to record information and test results obtained in each field inspection. The inspector shall record the observations, findings, and test results on an audit-inspection evaluation form. The inspector shall provide a copy of the audit-inspection evaluation form to the operator following the audit-inspection if the operator so requests. If the results of the audit-inspection indicate that the operator does not meet the requirements of this article of the commission’s regulations, the gas pipeline safety section of the commission may issue a notice of probable violation as described in subsection (b).

(b) Issuance of notice of probable violation. If after an annual audit-inspection or any other audit, inspection, or review conducted by commission staff, the commission staff believes that an operator has violated any regulations adopted pursuant to K.S.A. 66-1,150 and amendments thereto, the minimum safety standards adopted by this article of the commission’s regulations, or any regulation or commission order, commission staff may serve a notice of probable violation against the operator. Service of a notice of probable violation may be conducted by standard U.S. mail, certified mail, hand delivery, or, if the operator consents to electronic service, electronic mail.

(c) Notice. Each notice of probable violation issued pursuant to subsection (b) shall include the following:

(1) A statement of each provision of statute, regulation, or commission order that the operator is alleged to have violated;

(2) a statement of the evidence upon which the allegations are made; and

(3) the recommended civil penalty or remedial action.

(d) Response to notice of probable violation. Within 30 days of receipt of a notice of probable violation, the operator shall respond by U.S. mail or electronic mail. Hard-copy responses shall be sent by U.S. mail to the commission's Topeka headquarters, gas pipeline safety section. Responses by electronic mail shall be electronically mailed to the address listed on the notice of probable violation. An operator's response to a notice of probable violation shall be made in at least one of the following ways:

(1) Submit written explanations, a statement of general denial, or other materials contesting the allegations. The written explanations, statements of general denial, or other materials contesting the allegations shall be verified by a signed statement from an authorized representative of the operator. An operator may verify the written explanations, statements of general denial, or other materials contesting the allegations with an electronic signature;

(2) submit a signed acknowledgment of commission staff's findings of violations or instances of noncompliance. An operator may verify its acknowledgment of commission staff's findings of violations or instances of noncompliance with an electronic signature from an authorized representative of the operator; or

(3) submit a signed proposal for the completion of any remedial action that addresses the commission staff's findings of violations or noncompliance. An operator may verify its proposal of remedial action with an electronic signature from an authorized representative of the operator.

(e) Follow-up inspection. If the inspection specified in subsection (a) reveals any instances of noncompliance or violations, the inspector shall return to the operator's premises within 90 calendar days of the date of the inspection, or as soon as is practicable, to perform a follow-up inspection. The inspector shall reinspect the operator's system and record any instances of noncompliance or violations. A follow-up audit-inspection evaluation form shall then be sent to the operator specifying any further action required by the operator.

(f) Amendment. Commission staff may amend a notice of probable violation at any time before the commission issues a civil penalty assessment. If an amendment includes any new material allegations of fact or proposes an increased civil penalty assessment or additional remedial action, the operator shall have 30 days from service of the amended notice of probable violation to respond in accordance with subsection (d).

(g) Meeting with commission staff. If the inspector determines during the follow-up inspection that the violations or instances of noncompliance have not been corrected, the operator may be requested to attend an informal meeting at the commission offices or by telephone to discuss the operator's violations or instances of noncompliance with the minimum safety standards of this article of the commission's regulations, regulations adopted pursuant to K.S.A. 66-1,150 and amendments thereto, or any applicable regulation or commission order.

(h) Default admissions. Unless good cause is shown or a consent agreement is executed by commission staff and the operator before the expiration of the 30-day time limit specified in subsection (d), the failure of an operator to timely respond to a notice of probable violation shall constitute an admission to all factual allegations made by commission staff and may be used against the operator in future proceedings.

(i) Consent agreement. Commission staff and an operator may agree to modify a proposed civil penalty assessment or remedial action by joint execution of a consent agreement. Modifications to a civil penalty assessment may include a reduction in the civil penalty assessment or nonmonetary remedial action in lieu of monetary penalties. The consent agreement shall become effective if the commission issues an order approving the consent agreement. Each consent agreement shall include the following:

(1) An admission by the operator of all jurisdictional facts;

(2) an express waiver of any further procedural steps and of the right to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of the commission's order approving the consent agreement;

(3) an acknowledgment that the notice of probable violation may be used to construe the terms of the order approving the consent agreement; and

(4) a statement of the actions required of the operator and the date by which the actions shall be completed.

(j) Issuance of order. No sooner than 30 days after service of a notice of probable violation upon an operator, an order against an operator may be issued by the commission. The order may impose a monetary civil penalty or require the operator to undertake remedial action or impose any other obligation or combination thereof for violating the minimum safety standards as adopted by this article of the commission's regulations, regulations adopted pursuant to K.S.A. 66-1,150 and amendments thereto, or any regulation or commission order identified in the notice of probable violation.

(k) Time to remit payment for penalty assessment. If an operator does not request a hearing and the commission issues a penalty order, the operator shall remit payment for any civil penalty assessment imposed by the commission within 20 days of service of a penalty order imposing the civil penalty assessment.

(l) Orders and hearings. Each order issued pursuant to this article of the commission's regulations shall comply with K.A.R. 82-1-232. Any operator may request a hearing on an order issued pursuant to this article of the commission's regulations by filing a request for hearing with the commission within 15 days of service of the order. Each hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the commission's rules of practice and procedure. Except for orders approving a consent agreement, each order issued by the commission pursuant to this article of the commission's regulations shall include information detailing how an operator may request a hearing. Failure to request a hearing within 15 days from service of an order shall be deemed an admission of the alleged violations or instances of noncompliance in the order.

(m) Show cause hearings. A show cause hearing may be held by the commission regarding violations or instances of noncompliance of regulations adopted pursuant to K.S.A. 66-1,150, and amendments thereto, or any regulation or commission order. If the commission issues a show cause order before or during the course of an investigation, the gas pipeline safety section of the commission shall not be required to issue a notice of probable violation before the commission issues an order regarding any actual or potential violations or instances of noncompliance.

(n) Waiver of procedures. The requirements of this regulation may be waived by the commission and an interim order issued pursuant to K.A.R. 82-1-232 if any violations or instances of noncompliance with the safety standards of this article of the commission's regulations present a probable danger to persons or property. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-106 and 66-1,150; effective, T-82-10-28-88, Oct. 28, 1988; effective, T-82-

Each small gas operator shall forward electronic or written notice indicating the probable month of the inspection or survey at the time the consultant is authorized to conduct the survey or inspection. In addition, each small gas operator shall forward electronic or written notice to the gas pipeline safety section at least 10 business days before the survey or inspection is to be conducted by the consultant. On or before the day the application is submitted to the commission, the utility shall send written notice of the proposed construction or changes as required by K.A.R. 82-12-5. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective Aug. 11, 1995.)

82-12-4. Exceptions to 82-12-3 application. (a) Any utility may proceed with necessary construction, in cases of emergency, after written or telephone communication with the commission establishing need and securing emergency approval from the commission, if:

(1) The utility complies with the rules and regulations to the extent practicable under the circumstances; and

(2) the utility files immediately with the commission an application as approved by the commission showing that the construction will ultimately be brought into full conformity with the regulations.

(b) A utility may proceed with construction of any electric supply line without submitting an application under K.A.R. 82-12-3, if all of the following requirements are met.

(1) Prior to beginning construction, the utility shall give written notice to railroads and other utilities having facilities within ½ mile of any contemplated electric supply line construction or change in construction.

(2) The proposed electric supply line shall:

(A) be within the utility's certified area;

(B) not interfere with the supply lines, tracks or facilities of other utilities or railroads; and

(C) be no longer than ½ mile. However, if the proposed extension is to an extension previously made under this exception, then the combined length of the proposed and original extensions shall be considered as the length of the proposed extension for purposes of this subsection. If the combined length exceeds ½ mile, then K.A.R. 82-12-3 application is required for the combined length. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective Aug. 11, 1995.)

82-12-5. Notice of construction of electric supply lines. On or before the day a utility makes an application to the commission for any contemplated electric supply line construction, change in construction, or change in operating conditions to be located outside the corporate limits of any city, the utility shall send written notice of their plan:

(a) To the commission, at least 10 days before commencing construction;

(b) to railroads within ½ mile of the contemplated construction. The application shall not be considered for approval until at least 15 days after that notice is sent; and

(c) to all other utilities within ½ mile of the contemplated construction unless the utilities have executed a joint use or other agreement covering the area in which the construction is proposed. The application shall not be considered for approval until at least 10 days after this notice is sent. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective Aug. 11, 1995.)

82-12-6. Requirements for the installation of warning buoys and warning spheres installed in connection with electric lines crossing water areas suitable for sailboating. (a) Each electric utility in Kansas that maintains electric lines over water areas, other than rivers, streams and creeks, which are suitable for sailboating, or other water sports, shall place warning buoys in the water under electric lines and warning spheres on the electric lines, where they cross water.

(b) A waiver, as deemed appropriate, of the sphere and buoy requirement may be granted by the commission for good cause upon application by the utility. Applications for waivers may be submitted by each electric utility at the same time it supplies the information required by subsection (c). Each application for waiver shall specify the reasons for the requested waiver and assess the safety implications of the commission's waiver of the buoy and sphere requirement.

(c) For each newly constructed or reconstructed electric supply line which crosses water areas suitable for sailboating or other water sports, each electric utility shall report the following facts in an attachment to the application form at the time of application:

(1) The name, type, configuration, and location of the electric line that crosses one or more water areas that are subject to this regulation;

(2) the length and primary voltage of the electric line crossing the water area;

(3) the approximate clearance height of the electric line above water, at its lowest point, using the design high water level;

(4) the number of spheres and buoys installed under and on each line; and

(5) the expected date of the installation of the line, spheres and buoys, and the expected date for which the line will initially be energized.

(d) The placement of warning buoys and warning spheres is the minimum level of safety which shall be provided. Each utility may, at its option, provide a greater level of protection for the general public by relocating the electric line or taking other equivalent measures. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective Aug. 11, 1995.)

82-12-7. Utility requirements for telecommunication supply lines. A utility may proceed with construction of any telecommunication supply line if both of the following requirements are met:

(a) Before beginning construction, the utility shall give written notice to all of the following entities that have facilities within ½ mile of any contemplated telecommunication supply line construction or change in construction:

(1) Railroads; and

(2) any other utilities, unless the utilities have executed a joint use or other agreement covering the area in which the construction is proposed.

(b) The proposed telecommunication supply line construction shall meet the following requirements:

(1) Be within the utility's certified area; and

(2) not result in any objection from other utilities or railroads that have been given written notice as required by subsection (a). (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective Aug. 11, 1995; amended Aug. 5, 2011.)

82-12-8. Coordinated location of lines. In order to provide for the efficient and effective use of the public and private roads, each utility constructing supply lines shall locate those lines in conformance with the following requirements.

(a) When there are two or more practical methods of locating supply lines in a manner that avoids conflicts or prevents objectionable interference between lines, the method involving the least total cost shall be used regardless of which party takes precautionary or special measures.

(b) Each utility shall, to the extent possible, construct and locate supply lines so as to avoid crossing roads or any other features which will cause unnecessary discontinuities. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective Aug. 11, 1995.)

82-12-9. Inductive coordination. When there is inductive interference, each affected utility shall work out an agreement to attain inductive coordination. When such an agreement is necessary, the most convenient and economical method consistent with effectiveness shall be employed whether that method limits inductive influence of the electric circuits, the inductive susceptibility of the communication circuits, the inductive coupling between the two kinds of circuits or employs a combination of these methods. If there is a choice of methods, the one selected shall be applied to one or both systems according to the best engineering solution regardless of which circuit will require the greatest cost in corrective measures. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-183; effective Aug. 11, 1995.)

Article 13.—TELECOMMUNICATIONS

82-13-1. Definitions. The following terms shall have the meanings specified below when used in these regulations: (a) "Commission" means the state corporation commission of the state of Kansas.

(b) "Competitive local exchange carrier" means a corporation, company, individual, or association of persons, and any trustees, lessees, or receivers of that corporation, company, individual, or association of persons providing switched telecommunication service within the state of Kansas. This term shall not include local exchange carriers or incumbent local exchange carriers as defined in this regulation.

(c) "Incumbent local exchange carrier" shall have the same meaning as that assigned to "local exchange carrier" in K.S.A. 66-1,187, and amendments thereto.

(Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-1,188; effective Jan. 24, 2003.)

82-13-2. Procedures to protect customers from loss of telephone service when carriers cease operations. (a) Each competitive local exchange carrier providing local service through a resale arrangement shall provide its customers with at least a 30-day notice before discontinuing service.

(1) The notice shall clearly state the steps that customers must take in order to select another local service provider and shall include a toll-free number that customers with questions can call. The exiting competitive local exchange carrier shall provide sufficient customer support to answer calls to the toll-free number during the 30-day period before discontinuing service. The notice shall also include the customer's billing address and service address, circuit identification number, telephone number, specific service being provided, the date on which service will be discontinued, and any other information that is reasonably necessary to assist the customer in obtaining service from another local service provider. If a customer had a preferred carrier freeze on the account, the exiting carrier shall remove this freeze, and the notice shall inform the customer that the preferred carrier freeze has been removed.

(2) A copy of the notice shall be provided to the commission, each underlying local exchange carrier, and all affected customers' presubscribed interexchange carriers.

(3) Within 10 days after the commission receives a copy of the notice, additional notice requirements may be prescribed by the commission, as it deems necessary.

(4) The exiting competitive local exchange carrier shall not market or solicit the sale of its customer base after notice is provided to customers in accordance with this subsection.

(b) If the competitive local exchange carrier providing local service through a resale arrangement either abandons service without providing notice consistent with the requirements of subsection (a) of this regulation or abandons service after notice is provided but before 30 days have passed, the underlying local exchange carrier shall provide the customer with equivalent service for a limited time as required in this subsection.

(1) Within five days after the transfer of service, the underlying local exchange carrier shall notify each transferred customer that service is now being provided by the underlying local exchange carrier at that carrier's usual rate for the service. The notice shall inform customers that they have 30 days to select a local service provider. The notice shall include a list of providers approved by the commission and a toll-free number that customers with questions can call. The underlying local exchange carrier shall provide a copy of the notice to the commission when the notice is provided to the customers.

(2) At least 15 days but not more than 20 days after the transfer of service, the underlying local exchange carrier shall send a final notice to the transferred customers that have not chosen a new local service provider, reminding the customers of the date by which they must select a local service provider in order to avoid loss of service. The underlying local exchange carrier may discontinue service to customers who have not chosen a new provider by the specified date.

(3) The exiting competitive local exchange carrier that abandoned service without notice to its customers shall be required to reimburse the underlying local exchange carrier for the expense of the notices required in this subsection.

(4) The exiting competitive local exchange carrier shall not market or solicit the sale of its customer base after notice is provided to customers in accordance with this subsection.

(c) Each competitive local exchange carrier providing local service through an arrangement other than resale shall provide the commission and the underlying local exchange carrier with notice at least 45 days before discontinuing service. The notice shall include the billing address and service address, telephone number, circuit identification number, the specific service being provided, the date for discontinuance of service for each affected customer in the underlying local exchange carrier's service area, and any other information that is reasonably necessary to protect the customer from loss of service.

(1) The exiting competitive local exchange carrier and the underlying local exchange carrier shall be contacted by the commission's staff to arrange for continuing service to the affected customers.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the commission, the exiting competitive local exchange carrier shall provide the affected customers with notice at least 30 days before discontinuing service. The notice shall include the information required in subsection (c), a list of providers available to the customer, and a toll-free number that customers with questions can call. The exiting competitive local exchange carrier shall provide sufficient customer support to answer calls to the toll-free number during the 30-day period before discontinuing service. A copy of the notice shall be provided to the commission, the underlying local exchange carrier, and all affected customers' presubscribed interexchange carriers. Within 10 days after the commission receives a copy of the notice, additional notice requirements may be prescribed by the commission, as it deems necessary.

(3) The exiting competitive local exchange carrier shall not market or solicit the sale of its customer base after notice is provided to customers in accordance with this subsection.

(d) The underlying local exchange carrier shall provide notice to the commission and the competitive local exchange carrier before discontinuing service to the competitive local exchange carrier for lack of payment or any other reason. The notice shall be provided in a manner that provides the competitive local exchange carrier with adequate time to comply with the notification requirements in this regulation.

(e) Each carrier that reaches an agreement to purchase or otherwise agrees to serve the entire customer base of another carrier shall provide notice to the affected customers pursuant to 47 C.F.R. 64.1120, as in effect on April 18, 2002, which is adopted by reference. Each carrier shall furnish the commission with a copy of each notice provided pursuant to 47 C.F.R. 64.1120 when the notice is sent to the federal communications commission.

(f) An underlying local exchange carrier shall not be subject to claims of unwanted or unlawful provision of service if the transfers of service are consistent with the requirements of this regulation.

(g) Each competitive local exchange carrier that has discontinued service shall relinquish all assigned central office codes and all assigned blocks of numbers and shall provide written notice of the relinquishment to the North American numbering plan administrator in accordance with the current guidelines of the industry numbering committee. The competitive local exchange carrier shall furnish the commission with a copy of the notice when the notice is sent to the North American numbering plan administrator. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 66-1,188; effective Jan. 24, 2003.)

82-14-6. Violation of act; enforcement procedures. (a) After investigation, if the commission staff believes that there has been a violation or violations of K.S.A. 66-1801 et seq. and amendments thereto or any regulation or commission order issued pursuant to the Kansas underground utility damage prevention act and the commission staff determines that penalties or remedial action is necessary to correct the violation or violations, the commission staff may serve a notice of probable noncompliance on the person or persons against whom a violation is alleged. Service shall be made by registered mail or hand delivery.

(b) Any notice of probable noncompliance issued under this regulation may include the following:

(1) A statement of the provisions of the statutes, regulations, or commission orders that the respondent is alleged to have violated and a statement of the evidence upon which the allegations are based;

(2) a copy of this regulation; and

(3) any proposed remedial action or penalty assessments, or both, requested by the commission staff.

(c) Within 30 days of receipt of a notice of probable noncompliance, the recipient shall respond by mail in at least one of the following ways:

(1) Submit written explanations, a statement of general denial, or other materials contesting the allegations;

(2) submit a signed acknowledgment of commission staff's findings of noncompliance; or

(3) submit a signed proposal for the completion of any remedial action that addresses the commission staff's findings of noncompliance.

(d) The commission staff may amend a notice of probable noncompliance at any time before issuance of a penalty assessment. If an amendment includes any new material allegations of fact or if the staff proposes an increased civil penalty amount or additional remedial action, the respondent shall have 30 days from service of the amendment to respond.

(e) Unless good cause is shown or a consent agreement is executed by the commission staff and the respondent before the expiration of the 30-day time limit, the failure of a party to mail a timely response to a notice of probable noncompliance shall constitute an admission to all factual allegations made by the commission staff and may be used against the respondent in future proceedings.

(f) At any time before an order is issued assessing penalties or requiring remedial action or before a hearing, the commission staff and the respondent may agree to dispose of the case by joint execution of a consent agreement. The consent agreement may allow for a smaller penalty than otherwise required. The consent agreement may also allow for nonmonetary remedial penalties. Upon joint execution, the consent agreement shall become effective when the commission issues an order approving the consent agreement.

(g) Each consent agreement shall include the following:

(1) An admission by the respondent of all jurisdictional facts;

(2) an express waiver of any further procedural steps and of the right to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of the commission's show cause order;

(3) an acknowledgment that the notice of probable noncompliance may be used to construe the terms of the order approving the consent agreement; and

(4) a statement of the actions required of the respondent and the time by which the actions shall be completed.

(h) If any violation resulting in a notice of probable noncompliance is not settled with a consent agreement, a penalty order may be issued by the commission no sooner than 30 days after the respondent has been served with a notice of probable noncompliance.

(i) The respondent shall remit payment for any civil assessments imposed by a penalty order within 20 days of service of the order.

(j) The respondent may request a hearing to challenge the allegations set forth in the penalty order by filing a motion with the commission within 15 days of service of a penalty order. The respondent's failure to respond within 15 days shall be considered an admission of noncompliance.

(k) An order may be issued by the commission to open a formal investigation docket regarding any potential noncompliance with the Kansas underground utility damage prevention act, and amendments thereto, or any regulations or orders pursuant to that act. If the commission finds evidence that any party to the investigation docket was not in compliance, a show cause order may be issued by the commission. If a show cause order is issued during the course of a formal investigation, the staff shall not be required to issue a notice of probable noncompliance. (Authorized by K.S.A 66-106 and K.S.A 66-1812; implementing K.S.A 66-1812; effective July 6, 2009.)

Article 16.—ELECTRIC UTILITY RENEWABLE ENERGY STANDARDS

(a) "Act" means renewable energy standards act (RESA), K.S.A. 66-1256, 66-1257, and 66-1259 and amendments thereto.

(b) "Auxiliary power" has the meaning assigned to "station power" in K.S.A. 66-1,170, and amendments thereto.

(c) "Capacity from generation" means the net capacity of renewable energy resources owned or leased by a utility. Net capacity is the gross capacity minus auxiliary power required to operate the resource as determined in a test conducted as soon as possible after commercial operation begins. This test shall reflect operation of the resource over a four-hour period under conditions that do not limit performance due to ambient conditions, equipment, or operating or regulatory restrictions. The determination for a multiunit resource, including a wind farm, may be made through tests for a representative sample of at least 10% of the units. If the tests specified in this subsection are not practicable, the nameplate capacity of the resource minus the associated auxiliary power may be used as the net capacity unless there are factors that would prevent the resource from achieving nameplate capacity, other than ambient conditions, equipment, or operating or regulatory restrictions.

(d) "Capacity from net metering systems" means the rated generating capacity of systems interconnected with a utility pursuant to the net metering and easy connection act, K.S.A. 66-1263 et seq. and amendments thereto.

(e) “Capacity from purchased energy” means the capacity associated with energy purchased by a utility from renewable energy resources. The capacity from purchased energy shall be the nameplate capacity of the resource minus auxiliary power, adjusted as appropriate to reflect the utility’s share of the output of the resource.

(f) “Capacity from RECs” means the capacity associated with the purchase of renewable energy credits. For each source of RECs, this capacity shall be determined according to the following formulas:

$$\text{Capacity (MWs)} = \frac{\text{RECs}}{\text{Capacity Factor} \times 8760 \text{ hours}}$$

$$\text{Capacity Factor}_i = \frac{12}{n} \sum_{t=1}^n \frac{E_{i,t}}{8760 \times C_{i,t}}$$

where i = the individual renewable generation facility (source of the RECs)

n = the number of months the facility has been in operation over the past 24 months, with n representing at least 12 months

$E_{i,t}$  = the total energy output (MWh) by renewable generation facility i during compliance period t

$C_{i,t}$  = the average total generator capacity (MW) by renewable generation facility i during compliance period t

The capacity factor shall be calculated for the source of the RECs, if possible. If the utility is unable to calculate the capacity factor for the source of the RECs, the capacity factor shall be the capacity factor of the utility’s own renewable generation from the prior calendar year for the same or similar type of resource as the source of the RECs, if known. If the utility has multiple installations of the same or similar type of resource, the capacity factor shall be the average of the facilities. If the utility did not have the same or similar type of resource as the source of the RECs or if the source is unknown, the overall capacity factor of the utility’s total renewable generation shall be used. In the absence of renewable resource generation, a default capacity factor of 34% shall be used.

(g) “Data year” means the calendar year that occurred before the due date of the utility’s report to the commission specified in K.A.R. 82-16-2.

(h) “Electric distribution cooperative” means a cooperative as defined by K.S.A. 17-4603, and amendments thereto, that is engaged in the retail sale and distribution of electricity and does not own or operate any generation or wholesale transmission facilities within the state of Kansas.

(i) “Electric utility” and “utility” mean any “affected utility,” as defined by K.S.A. 66-1257 and amendments thereto.

(j) “Generation and transmission cooperative” means a cooperative as defined by K.S.A. 17-4603, and amendments thereto, that does not engage in the retail distribution and sale of electricity and operates generation facilities and transmission facilities solely for the wholesale distribution and sale of electricity.

(k) “Nameplate capacity” means the maximum rated output of a generator under specific conditions designated by the manufacturer, generally indicated in units of kilovolt-amperes (kVA) and in kilowatts (kW) on a nameplate attached to the generator.

(l) “REC” means “renewable energy credit,” which means a credit representing energy produced by renewable energy resources and issued as part of a program that has been approved by the commission. For purposes of these regulations, this term is reflected on a certificate representing the attributes associated with one megawatt-hour (MWh) of energy generated by a renewable energy resource.

(m) “Renewable energy resources” has the meaning specified in K.S.A. 66-1257, and amendments thereto. For the purposes of K.S.A. 66-1257(d)(9)(A) and (B) and amendments thereto, the following shall apply:

(1) “Existing hydropower” shall mean hydropower that existed on or before May 27, 2009.

(2) “New hydropower” shall mean hydropower that existed after May 27, 2009.

(n) “Renewable energy goal” means the goal established by K.S.A. 66-1256, and amendments thereto, for energy and energy portfolios of each utility subject to the provisions of the act. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-1257 and 66-1259; effective Nov. 19, 2010; amended Feb. 24, 2017.)

82-16-2. Renewable energy goal and report. (a) Any utility may attain the renewable energy goal in K.S.A. 66-1256, and amendments thereto, by maintaining a portfolio of renewable capacity from generation, purchased energy, RECs, or net metering systems.

(b) Each utility planning to seek commission approval for recovery of reasonable costs incurred under RESA and either related to the previous mandatory requirement or due to attaining the renewable energy goal, pursuant to K.S.A. 66-1259 and amendments thereto, shall submit a report to the commission detailing that utility's efforts related to attainment of the renewable energy goal. A generation and transmission cooperative may submit a collective report on behalf of the electric distribution cooperatives it represents. If this collective report is submitted, the electric distribution cooperatives shall not be required to file their own reports as required by this subsection. The report shall specify the renewable generation that has been put into service or the portion of the utility's portfolio of renewable generation resources served from purchased energy, RECs, or net metering systems on or before December 31 of each data year. An annual report shall be due on or before March 31 of each year. Each report shall contain the following information:

(1) A description of each type of renewable energy resource that was purchased or put into service on or before December 31 of the data year, including type, location, owner, operator, date of commencement of operations, nameplate capacity, and for the data year, the monthly capacity factor, monthly availability factor, and monthly and annual amounts of energy generated;

(2) a narrative supporting the rationale for selecting each capacity resource that was purchased or put into service and each purchased power contract that was executed during the data year;

(3) a description of the utility's plans for attaining the renewable energy goal for the current calendar year, including the utility's assessment of the expected impact to revenue requirements;

(4) the Kansas retail one-hour peak demand for each of the three calendar years before the data year and the average for these three years, with supporting data and calculations if the demand differs from the information reported on the federal energy regulatory commission's FERC form 1. Each electric distribution cooperative that does not file FERC form 1 with the commission shall file a Kansas electric cooperative utility annual report with the commission;

(5) the amount of renewable energy capacity that will qualify as a portion of the year's peak demand as calculated pursuant to paragraph (b)(4), broken down by capacity from generation, purchased energy, RECs, and net metering systems;

(6) the renewable energy capacity identified in paragraph (b)(5) from a facility constructed in Kansas after January 1, 2000; and

(7) total retail energy sales, as measured in kilowatt-hours (kWh), in Kansas for the data year. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-1259; effective Nov. 19, 2010; amended Feb. 24, 2017.)

82-16-3. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1261; effective Nov. 19, 2010; revoked Feb. 24, 2017.)

82-16-4. Retail revenue requirement. The retail revenue requirement attributable to attainment of the renewable energy goal shall be calculated as follows for each utility:

(a) In conjunction with the reports required by K.A.R. 82-16-2, each affected utility shall calculate the retail revenue requirement for each capacity resource used to attain the renewable energy goal. A capacity resource may result from generation resources, purchased energy, RECs, or net metering systems.

(b) Each determination of the retail revenue requirement shall reflect the total revenues required to allow the utility the opportunity to do the following:

(1) Earn a return on rate base items;

(2) earn a return on plant investments through depreciation;

(3) recover taxes other than income taxes;

(4) recover fuel and purchased power costs, including incremental fuel expense resulting from the inefficient dispatch of power generation if this expense is known;

(5) recover operating and maintenance costs;

(6) recover administrative and general expenses; and

(7) recover income taxes, including current deferred income taxes.

(c) In order to calculate a return on rate base items, each utility shall use the overall rate of return authorized by the commission from its last litigated rate case or specified in a stipulation and agreement authorized by the commission. If an overall rate of return was not specified in a utility's last rate case, then the average of the utility's proposed rate of return and the rate of return proposed by commission staff shall be used. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-1259; effective Nov. 19, 2010; amended Feb. 24, 2017.)

82-16-5. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1261; implementing K.S.A. 2009 Supp. 66-1257 and 66-1262; effective Nov. 19, 2010; revoked Feb. 24, 2017.)

82-16-6. Renewable energy credit program. (a) Renewable energy credits shall be issued and used as part of a REC program either established or approved by the commission. Each application for approval of any program not approved by the commission in any prior year shall be submitted on or before January 1 of the calendar year in which the RECs are proposed to be included in the portfolio.

(b) Any utility may purchase or sell RECs without commission approval. However, each renewable energy credit shall be counted only once. A REC or any attributes associated with renewable energy generation sold or intended for any purpose other than attainment of the renewable energy goal shall not be applied toward attainment of the renewable energy goal.

(c) For the purpose of RESA, unused RECs shall remain valid for up to two years from the end of the calendar year in which the associated electricity was generated and shall be permanently retired when used for attainment of the renewable energy goal prescribed by the act. To the extent that RECs or attributes associated with renewable energy generation are sold or used for any purpose other than attainment of the renewable energy goal, the utilities shall reduce the capacity used for attainment of the renewable energy goal according to the formula specified in this subsection.

Total Renewable Capacity for Voluntary Attainment =  $TRC - C_{OP}$

$TRC$  = total renewable capacity

$C_{OP}$  = renewable capacity sold or used for any other purpose than attainment of the renewable energy goal

$E_{OP}$  = energy from RECs or renewable energy attributes sold or used for any other purpose than attainment of the renewable energy goal

$CF$  = capacity factor for source of  $E_{OP}$

(d) Each REC created, sold, or purchased by any Kansas utility shall be reported in an approved registry that documents and verifies attributes and other compliance conditions as well as tracks the creation, sale, retirement, and other transactions regarding the REC to prevent double counting and misuse, in accordance with these regulations and commission direction. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-106; implementing K.S.A. 2016 Supp. 66-1259; effective Nov. 19, 2010; amended Feb. 24, 2017.)

82-17-2. Utility requirements pursuant to the act. (a) In addition to the requirements set forth in the act, any utility may install, at its expense, equipment to allow for load research metering for purposes of monitoring each net metered facility.

(b) Responsibilities for maintenance, repair, or replacement of meters, service lines, and other equipment provided by the utility shall be governed by the utility’s current tariffs and terms of service on file with the commission. This equipment shall be accessible at all times to utility personnel.

(c) Each utility’s interconnection with a customer-generator’s net metered facility shall be subject to the utility’s current tariffs and terms of service on file with the commission.

82-17-3. Tariff requirements. Each utility shall file a tariff with the commission setting forth the terms and conditions for net metering interconnection with a customer-generator. In addition to setting forth the terms and conditions required by the act, the tariff shall include the following information:

(a) Any specific criteria and guidelines for determining the appropriate size of generation to fit the expected load;

(b) a provision requiring the customer-generator to furnish, install, operate, and maintain in good repair without cost to the utility any relays, locks and seals, breakers, automatic synchronizers, disconnecting devices, and any other control and protective devices required by an applicable recognized industry standard that is clearly identified in the tariff or in a tariff that is already approved by the commission, or by any requirements adopted by federal, state or local governing authorities for the interconnection of net-metered facilities, for the parallel operation of the net metered facility with the utility’s system;

(d) a statement indicating whether or not the utility requires the customer-generator to install a utility-controlled manual disconnect switch located on the line side of a meter that has the capability to be locked out by utility personnel to isolate the utility’s facilities if an electrical outage in the utility’s facilities occurs. If a manual switch is required, the utility shall give notice to the customer-generator, as soon as possible, when the switch is locked out or used by the utility. The disconnect switch may also serve as a means of isolation for the net metered facility during any customer-generator maintenance activities, routine outages, or emergencies;

(b) Interpretation. These rules shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes and provisions of the act.

(c) Waiver. In the event that the application of these rules would not be feasible or would work an injustice, the rules may be waived or suspended by the board at any time or in any proceeding unless such action would deprive a party of substantial rights.

(d) Separability. If any provisions of these rules be held invalid, it shall not be construed to invalidate any of the other provisions of these rules. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d), 75-4330(b), 75-4334(a), 75-4336, 75-4337; effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

Service of pleadings and orders shall be conducted in accordance with K.S.A. 77-531, and amendments thereto. Complaints, decisions, orders, and other processes and papers of the board may be served personally, by certified mail, by telefacsimile machine, by electronic mail, or by leaving a copy in the proper office or place of business of persons to be served. The return by the individual serving any of these documents, setting forth the manner of service, shall be proof of service. The return post office receipt, when certified and mailed as specified in this subsection, shall be proof of service.

(b) Service by a party. The moving party and respondent in any action shall be required to file the original and five copies of any pleadings with the board or its designee in person, by certified mail, by telefacsimile machine, or by electronic mail. If a party files any pleading with the board by telefacsimile machine or by electronic mail, the party shall file the original and five copies of the pleading with the board either in person or by certified mail within five days of electronically filing the pleading. The moving party shall also cause a copy of the pleading to be served, by regular mail or in person, upon all other parties of record with a statement of certification of service appearing upon the pleading.

(c) Service upon attorney. If a party appears by the party's attorney, all papers other than the complaint, notice of original hearings, and decisions and orders may be served as provided in subsection (d), upon the party's attorney with the same force and effect as though served upon the party.

(d) Service by the board. Once a party has been permitted to intervene in a pending action, upon request of the intervening party the other parties shall be ordered by the board, its designee, or the presiding officer to serve upon the intervening party copies of all pleadings of the other parties filed with the board before the date of intervention. (Authorized by K.S.A. 2007 Supp. 75-4323; implementing K.S.A. 77-519; effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990; amended June 19, 2009.)

84-2-2. Hearings. (a) General provisions.

(1) Hearings may be conducted by the board, or any member or members thereof, or any member of its staff or other individual designated by the board.

(2) The hearing shall be limited to pertinent matters necessary to determine questions relating to the immediate controversy.

(b) Notice of hearing.

(1) Following the filing of a petition, if it appears to the board or its designee that further proceedings are warranted, a notice of hearing, at a place fixed therein, shall be issued and served upon each of the parties and upon any known individuals or employee organizations claiming to represent any employees directly affected, and, except by agreement of the parties or in unusual circumstances, at a time not less than ten days after the service of such notice.

(2) Any such notice of hearing may be withdrawn or amended prior to the hearing by the presiding officer upon reasonable notice to the parties.

(c) Conduct of hearings.

(1) It shall be the duty of the presiding officer to inquire fully into all matters at issue and to obtain a full and complete record.

(2) The presiding officer may continue the hearing from day to day or adjourn it to a later date or another place, by announcement thereof at the hearing or by other appropriate notice.

(d) Motions.

(1) All motions made during a hearing shall be made part of the record of the proceedings.

(2) All motions and answers other than those made during a hearing shall be made in writing to the board, or its designee, pursuant to the provisions of 84-2-1(b), and shall briefly state the relief sought. Answers, if any, shall be filed with the board or its designee within seven days after service of the pleading, unless the board or its designee directs otherwise. Motions shall be ruled upon by the board, its designee or the presiding officer who may decide to hear oral argument or testimony relating to the motion. The parties shall be notified of the purpose of the hearing and of the time and place of oral argument or the taking of testimony. Rulings and orders determinative of all matters presented at the hearing shall be issued by the presiding officer. All such motions and rulings shall be part of the record of the case.

(e) An objection not made before the presiding officer shall be deemed waived unless the failure to make such objection shall be excused by the presiding officer because of extraordinary circumstances.

(f) Introduction of evidence; the rights of parties at hearings.

(1) Any party shall have the right to appear at any hearing in person, by counsel, or by other representative, and any party and the presiding officer shall have the power to call and examine witnesses, and to introduce into the record documentary and other evidence. A party shall, upon offering an exhibit into evidence at a hearing, simultaneously furnish copies to all other parties, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer. Witnesses shall be examined orally under oath. Compliance with the technical rules of evidence shall not be required. Stipulations of fact may be introduced in evidence with respect to any issue.

(2) The refusal of a witness at any hearing to answer any question which has been ruled proper by the hearing officer shall be noted in the record. Such refusal shall go to the weight of previous testimony, but shall not be grounds for striking all previous testimony of the particular witness.

(3) Misconduct at any hearing before the board or presiding officer shall be grounds for summary exclusion from the hearing. As used herein, "misconduct" means conduct which disrupts or interferes with the orderly administration of proceedings under the act, or conduct which evinces refusal to obey or disregard a lawful order or ruling of the hearing officer. Misconduct, if of an aggravating character and engaged in by an attorney or other representative of a party, shall be grounds for suspension or disbarment from further practice before the board or its designee. Such suspension or disbarment shall be ordered only after the board, presiding officer or another party in the proceedings files a complaint in writing with the board alleging the acts of misconduct committed by the attorney or other representative of a party, the attorney or other representative of a party has been given thirty days notice of the charges, and the attorney or other representative of a party is given an evidentiary hearing before the entire board.

(g) Upon appointment by the board of a presiding officer to perform any of its functions, the parties must file within three days any objection to the person appointed. The objection must contain a statement setting forth the reasons for the party's position.

(h) Findings of fact; conclusions of law; initial order. No later than 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing, the presiding officer shall issue findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an initial order unless the 30 day period is waived or extended with the written consent of all parties, or for good cause shown. Such findings of fact, conclusions of law, and initial order shall be in writing and shall contain, but need not be limited to a statement of the case findings of fact, and conclusions of law and initial order to the board. All parties and members of the board shall be served with the presiding officer's decision and initial order.

(i) Appeal Procedure.

(1) Review of initial orders shall be initiated pursuant to and controlled by K.S.A. 77-527 through K.S.A. 77-529.

(2) If the board grants review of an initial order, and unless otherwise extended by the board, the appellant shall have 30 days from the date of service of the board's order setting forth the issues to be reviewed to file its brief with the board. Appellee shall have thirty (30) days from the date of service of appellant's brief in which to file its response brief. No reply briefs will be allowed. Oral arguments will be allowed at the next regularly scheduled board meeting after service of appellee's brief. Briefs shall specifically set forth the issues to be reviewed and transcript references must be cited in the brief where a transcript is available. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(c)(d)(4), 75-4327(c)(d)(e), 75-4332(b)(c)(d)(e); and 75-4334(a); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-3. Intervention and joinder. Any third party having a legitimate interest in any proceedings may file a petition of intervention setting forth facts sufficient to establish such interest and requesting that the board resolve contested factual matters in its favor. In the alternative any third party may be joined upon a motion by the board, its designee or the presiding officer. Any organization which has a signed, valid memorandum of agreement encompassing the proposed unit or any portion thereof shall be considered to have a legitimate interest in any proceedings upon presentation of same. If the intervention is pursuant to K.A.R. 84-2-11(e) the petition must be accompanied with a 30% showing of interest in accordance with K.S.A. 75-4327(d). (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4324, 75-4327(a)(b)(c)(d) and 75-4328; effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-4. Authorization cards; acceptability. Evidence of representation or legitimate interest may be either individual authorization cards, or by petition. In either case, the petition or card must show address of, and be signed and dated by, the employee expressing an intent to be represented by a specific employee organization. A card or petition signed and dated by a public employee less than one year prior to the date on which the petition for certification was filed shall constitute prime facie evidence of continuation of such authorization. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4324, 75-4327(a)(b)(c)(d) and 75-4328; effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-5. Validity of showing of interest. (a) The proof of interest when submitted becomes the property of the board and shall not be furnished to any of the parties. The adequacy of the showing of interest shall be determined by the board or its designee and such decision shall not be subject to collateral attack at a hearing before the board. Proof of interest shall not be required until after unit determination has been made by the board.

(b) Each public employer shall be required to furnish the board with an alphabetical listing of all employees within the appropriate unit including their work site and home addresses as expeditiously as possible, not to exceed 30 days after the filing of a petition for a certification election following unit determination, unless otherwise directed by the board or its designee. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4324, 75-4327(a)(b)(c)(d) and 75-4328; effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-6. Units. (a) Determining appropriate unit.

(1) Any unit may consist of all of the employees of the public employer, or any department, division, section or area, or party or combination thereof, if found to be appropriate by the board, except as otherwise provided in the act or these rules.

(2) In considering whether a unit is appropriate, the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4327(e) and whether the proposed unit of the public employees is a distinct and homogeneous group, with significant problems which can be adjusted without regard to the other public employees of the public employer shall be considered by the board or presiding officer, and the relationship of the proposed unit to the total organizational pattern of the public employer may be considered by the board or presiding officer. Neither the extent to which public employees have been organized by an employee organization nor the desires of a particular group of public employees to be represented separately or by a particular employee organization shall be controlling on the question of whether a proposed unit is appropriate. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4) and 75-4327(b)(c); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-7. Petition for unit determination, unit clarification and investigation or certification or decertification of employee organization; of petition. A petition, form to be provided by the board, may be filed with the board by an employee organization or group of public employees or public employer. The original of the petition shall be signed by the petitioner or his authorized representative and the original and five copies thereof shall be filed with the board. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4) and 75-4327(d); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-8. (Authorized by K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4327(d); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; revoked May 1, 1975.)

84-2-9. Procedure following filing of petitions. (a) Petition; amendment or withdrawal. Any petition may be amended, in whole or in part, or withdrawn by the petitioner at any time prior to the filing of an answer by an interested party. A petition may be amended or withdrawn by the petitioner after the filing of an answer by any party or after the board has acted thereon, only with the approval of the board, its designee or the presiding officer and upon such conditions as the board, its designee or the presiding officer may deem proper and just.

(b) Answers. Each party shall file an answer to the petition within 20 days after receipt thereof. The time for filing an answer may be extended by the board, its designee or the presiding officer upon showing of good cause. Failure to answer within 20 days will be deemed as an admission by said party to all allegations in the petition.

(c) Investigation. The parties shall be notified by the board or its designee of the name of the person assigned to investigate the allegations contained in the petition. That person shall direct an investigation of all questions concerning representation, including, if applicable, whether the proof of interest requirement, as set forth in the rules, has been met; whether more than one employee organization seeks to represent some or all of the employees in the allegedly appropriate unit; and whether there is agreement among the parties as to the appropriateness of the alleged unit.

(d) Hearings. The presiding officer may direct a hearing, pursuant to 84-2-2(b), in which event the presiding officer shall prepare and cause to be served upon the parties a notice of hearing before the presiding officer at a time and place fixed therein. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4) and 75-4327(d); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-10. (Authorized by K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4327(d); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; revoked May 1, 1975.)

84-2-11. Elections; eligibility and conditions. (a) When an employee organization files a petition for certification a determination shall be made by the board or its designee as to whether a sufficient showing of interest has been filed by said employee organization. If a sufficient showing of interest exists, an order shall be entered by the board or its designee directing an election be conducted by such persons as may be appointed by the board or its designee.

(b) All elections shall be held not later than 30 days from date of validation of the first submitted proof of interest or such other date as the board or its designee may specify, at such times and places and upon such terms or conditions as the board or its designee may specify.

(c) The employees eligible to vote shall be those on the payroll on the date of the validation of proof of interest and who remain on the payroll on the date of the election.

(d) A list of names and work site and home addresses of all eligible employees in the appropriate unit shall be furnished by the board or its designee to all employee organizations submitting proof of interest immediately upon validation of said proof of interest.

(e) A motion for intervention for purpose of representation on an election ballot at a certification election will not be entertained during the 15 days immediately preceding said election.

(f) A notice of election and sample ballot shall be posted not less than seven days prior to the election in conspicuous areas where employees in the affected unit assemble. Orders to cause such posting shall be issued by the board or its designee. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4) and 75-4327(d); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-12. Elections; procedure. (a) All elections shall be by secret ballot, at times, places, and in such manner as the board or its designee may direct, and shall be conducted by a designee of the board, whose determination of all questions arising shall be final, subject, however, to review by the board.

(b) Ballots shall be prepared and issued by the board or its designee. Ballots shall contain the name of each representative and a choice of "no representative." The place of priority on the ballot shall be determined by the chronological filing or appearance on the dockets of the board but with the petitioner taking first priority. In a run-off election, the place of priority shall be determined by the sequence appearing on the ballot at the prior inclusive election.

(c) Each party to the election shall be entitled to be represented by an equal number of observers watching at each polling place. Observers shall be employees eligible to vote, or in the case of employer's observers, shall be non-supervisory personnel, unless otherwise agreed to by all parties.

(d) Prior to the commencement of the election, the designee of the board shall designate the polling area and no electioneering of any kind shall be permitted within this area. Any violation of this rule by any party or its representative or agent may be grounds for setting aside the election.

(e) Any prospective voter may be challenged for cause.

(f) All employees whose names do not appear upon the list certified by the board as being a complete list of the employees within the defined appropriate unit shall be challenged by the designee of the board.

(g) A challenged voter shall be permitted to vote but his ballot shall not be cast. It shall instead be sealed in a separate, unmarked envelope under the supervision of the agent of the board and then inserted in a special identifiable form envelope provided by the board for that purpose and returned to the board.

(h) In all elections a majority of the valid votes cast shall determine the employee representative designated or selected by the employees in the defined appropriate unit or the determination that no representative has been designated. A tally of ballots shall be made by the board agent immediately following the closing of the polls and a tally sheet shall be furnished to all parties to the election.

(i) Each party to the election shall be permitted to observe the count of the ballots.

(j) All objections to a party's conduct or third person's conduct to the election shall be, by a charge of unfair practice, filed with the board within five days of the holding of the election and such order as required to effectuate the purposes of the act shall be immediately issued by the board or its designee.

(k) All objections to the board's conduct of an election must be filed within five days of the holding of the same and such order as required to effectuate the purposes of the act shall be immediately issued by the board or its designee.

(l) The board shall conduct a runoff election when an election in which the ballot provides for not less than three choices, at least two employee organizations and "no representation," results in none of the choices receiving a majority of the valid ballots cast.

(m) The ballot in the runoff election shall provide for a selection between the two choices receiving the largest and second largest number of votes.

(n) Runoff elections shall be conducted by the board or its designee as expeditiously as possible not to exceed 30 days following the first election unless otherwise ordered by the board or its designee. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4327(d); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-13. Certification of election results.

(a) Certification—If no objections are filed within the time set forth above, if the challenged ballots are insufficient in number to affect the result of the election, and if no runoff election is to be held, a certification of the results of the election, including certification of representative, where appropriate shall forthwith be issued to the parties by the board or its designee. All employee organizations shall be certified as of the last day of election.

(b) Pre-existing contracts. When a governmental sub-division elects to come under the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4321 et seq. and at the time of such election there are formal written agreements between that governmental sub-division and a recognized employee organization representing one or more employee units entered into prior to the election to come under K.S.A. 75-4321 et seq. and those agreements continue and are in force at the time of such election, either the employer or the recognized employee organization may petition the board to certify the recognized employee organization as the exclusive representative of the employees within the unit. After a determination by the board or its designee that the petitioned for employee unit is not in violation of the act notice of the intent to certify the previously recognized employee organization shall be ordered by the board posted in locations conspicuous to all employees within the proposed employee unit not less than 10 days prior to making a final determination. If no protest or counter petition is filed, the board shall certify the employee organization as petitioned. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4327(d); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-14. Mediation and fact-finding. (a) Mediator.

(1) Any information disclosed to the mediator in the performance of his duties shall not be divulged unless approved by all parties involved. All files, records, reports, documents, or other papers received or prepared by the mediator shall be classified as confidential and not as a public record. Such matters shall not be disclosed to anyone without the prior consent of the board and all parties involved.

(2) The mediator shall not produce any confidential records or testimony with regard to any mediation conducted by the mediator on behalf of the party to any case pending in any proceeding before any court, board, investigatory body, arbitrator, or fact-finder without the written consent of the board and the party furnishing such information.

(b) Mediation meetings.

(1) The mediator may hold separate or joint meetings with the parties or their representatives, and such meetings shall not be open to the public. Such meetings shall be conducted at such times and places agreed to by the mediator and the parties.

(2) The mediator shall, either orally or in writing, report the status of his mediation efforts.

(3) The mediator shall report in writing the final settlement of the dispute to the board.

(c) Fact-finding.

(1) Any person, broadly representative of the public, who has been selected by the board or its designee for listing on a register of fact-finders, may act as a fact-finder.

(2) The public employers and employee organizations may submit in writing, from time to time, the names of their proposed fact-finders to the board or its designee. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 75-4323(d)(4), 75-4327(c),(d),(e); 75-4332(b),(c),(d),(e); 75-4334(a); effective, E-72-29, Sept. 29, 1972; effective Jan. 1, 1973; amended May 1, 1975; amended July 30, 1990.)

84-2-15. Arbitration. (a) General provisions. This section governs the general procedure relating to the arbitration proceedings and designation of arbitrators, pursuant to K.S.A. 75-4330(b). The policy of the state primarily is to promote the prompt, peaceful and just settlement of labor disputes arising from the interpretation or application of a memorandum of agreement affecting terms and conditions of employment. Final determination of such disputes may be made by the board or the arbitrators appointed by the board.

(b) Request to initiate arbitration.

(1) A request that the board initiate arbitration shall be in writing and signed by the party or parties filing the request. If not a joint request, the party filing same, at the same time, shall cause a copy thereof to be sent to the other party.

(2) Contents of the request should include:

(A) If a joint request, a statement as to the issue or issues in dispute, or if a request by only one of the parties, a statement as to the alleged issue or issues in dispute.

(B) A copy of the memorandum of agreement in effect.

(C) A request that the board either act as an arbitration board, or appoint either one of its members or staff members or an individual not in the employ of the board, for their consideration in the selection of an arbitrator or board of arbitration.

(D) The names, addresses and phone numbers of the principal representatives of the parties involved.

(E) Suggested dates, time and place for the conduct of the hearing, if the board is requested to appoint one of its members or staff members as the arbitrator.

(F) If a joint request, it shall contain a statement as to whether request is for advisory or binding arbitration.

(c) Board action.

(1) If the request to initiate arbitration is filed by only one party, the other party to the dispute shall immediately be contacted by the board or its designee to inquire as to its acquiescence to arbitration. If the latter opposes the right of the initiating party to proceed to arbitration, the initiating party shall be so advised by the board and no further action taken on the request.

If the registrar determines that the original residency classification of any student was incorrect, the registrar shall give written notice of reclassification to that student, together with a statement of any additional fees owed by or any refund due to that student for any terms or semesters, and the same shall be due and payable immediately.

(b) Any residency determination by an agent duly designated by a registrar to make a determination pursuant to articles 2 and 3 shall be deemed to be the residency determination of that registrar. (Authorized by K.S.A. 76-730; implementing K.S.A. 76-729; effective, E-71-35, Aug. 20, 1971; effective Jan. 1, 1972; amended Nov. 18, 1991; amended July 24, 1998.)

88-2-2. Appeals. (a) Each student who is classified as a nonresident for fee purposes upon enrollment and who disagrees with that classification shall be entitled to an appeal if the student files a written appeal thereon with the registrar within 30 days of notification of classification. Any student who is classified as a resident for fee purposes at the time of enrollment, who subsequently is reclassified a nonresident for such purposes, and who disagrees with that reclassification, may make an appeal provided the student files a written appeal thereon with the registrar within 30 days of notification of reclassification.

(b) Each registrar's office shall provide on request a standard appeal form. The payment in full of fees as originally assessed shall be a condition to the right to maintain an appeal from residency classification or reclassification.

(c) If a student fails to file an appeal in the time and manner provided in this regulation, the classification or reclassification determined by the registrar shall, upon expiration of the appeal period, become final. (Authorized by K.S.A. 76-730; implementing K.S.A. 76-729; effective, E-71-35, Aug. 20, 1971; effective Jan. 1, 1972; amended Nov. 18, 1991.)

shall establish a committee of at least three members to act as an appellate body to hear and determine appeals concerning the status of students as residents or nonresidents of Kansas for fee purposes. Members of the residence committee shall be appointed by the chancellor or president of each institution under a procedure established by the chancellor or president. The procedure shall be consistent with state law and the regulations of the state board of regents. Committee members shall serve at the pleasure of the chancellor or president.

(b) The residence committee shall elect its own chair who shall be eligible to vote in all cases. The registrar shall meet with the university residence committee but shall not be a member of the committee. THE DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCY FOR FEE PURPOSES

as set forth in this regulation, together with K.A.R. 88-3-2 through 88-3-13.

“Carefully read the information, statute, and regulations that follow. Then, if you believe you should be eligible for resident classification for fee purposes, complete the attached application for residence classification and submit it to the registrar within 30 days of your notification of classification as a nonresident for fee purposes. When an appeal is made by a student from a determination that the student is a nonresident, the student must pay nonresident fees at the time designated for payment of fees. If the student is found to be a resident, the difference between resident and nonresident fees will be refunded. Subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 77-601, et seq., decisions of the residence committee shall not be subject to further administrative review by any officer or committee of the university, or by the state board of regents.

Responsibility

The responsibility of enrolling under proper residence classification for fee purposes is placed on the student. If there is any possible question of residence classification under the regulations of the state board of regents, it is the duty of the student when registering and paying fees to raise the question with the registrar. If a student enrolls incorrectly as a resident of Kansas and it is determined at a later date the student was a nonresident for fee purposes, the student shall be required to pay the nonresident fee for all terms during which the student was incorrectly registered.” (Authorized by K.S.A. 76-730; implementing K.S.A. 76-729; effective, E-71-35, Aug. 20, 1971; effective Jan. 1, 1972; amended, E-76-50, Oct. 10, 1975; amended, E-77-5, March 19, 1976; amended Feb. 15, 1977; amended May 1, 1986; amended Nov. 18, 1991; amended July 24, 1998.)

88-3-2. Definition of “residence” for fee purposes. (a) Except as otherwise provided in the rules and regulations of the state board of regents, “residence” means a person’s place of habitation, to which, whenever the person is absent, the person has the intention of returning. A person shall not be considered a resident of Kansas unless that person is in continuous physical residence, except for brief temporary absences, and intends to make Kansas a permanent home, not only while in attendance at an educational institution, but indefinitely thereafter as well.

(b) The factors that, while not conclusive, shall be given probative value in support of a claim for resident status include the following:

(1) Continuous presence in Kansas, except for brief temporary absences, during periods when not enrolled as a student;

(2) employment in Kansas;

(3) payment of Kansas state resident income taxes;

(4) reliance on Kansas sources for financial support;

(5) commitment to an education program that indicates an intent to remain permanently in Kansas;

(6) acceptance of an offer of permanent employment in Kansas;

(7) admission to a licensed practicing profession in Kansas; or

(8) ownership of a home in Kansas.

No factor shall be considered in support of a claim for resident status unless the factor has existed for at least one year before enrollment or re-enrollment.

(c) The following circumstances, standing alone, ordinarily shall not constitute sufficient evidence of a change to Kansas residence:

(1) Voting or registration for voting in Kansas;

(2) employment in any position normally filled by a student;

(3) lease of living quarters in Kansas;

(4) a statement of intention to acquire residence in Kansas;

(5) residence in Kansas of the student’s spouse;

(6) vehicle registration in Kansas;

(7) acquisition of a Kansas driver’s license;

(8) payment of Kansas personal property taxes; or

(9) continuous enrollment in a postsecondary educational institution in Kansas.

(d) If a person is continuously enrolled for a full academic program as defined by the institution where enrolled, it shall be presumed that the student is in Kansas for educational purposes, and the burden shall be on the student to prove otherwise.

(e) Maintenance of ties with another state or country, including financial support, voting, payment of personal property taxes, registering a vehicle or securing a driver’s license in that state or country, may be considered sufficient evidence that residence in the other state or country has been retained. 88-3-4. If both parents are deceased, residence shall be determined by the residence of the person’s legal guardian or custodian, or if none exists, of the person providing the preponderance of support. Any person under 18 years of age who is legally emancipated shall be considered an adult for residence purposes.
