Opinion No. 85-129

Eminent Domain—Condemnation in Cities—Cities; Authority to Condemn; Interest Acquired. Dale L. Pohl, Eureka City Attorney, Eureka, September 27, 1985.

The city of Eureka did not acquire fee simple absolute title to property acquired by eminent domain proceedings in 1958 for a municipal airport so as to enable the city to convey fee simple absolute title in portions thereof to purchasers for industrial sites. Eminent Domain—Condemnation in Cities—Cities; Authority to Condemn; Interest Acquired. Dale L. Pohl, Eureka City Attorney, Eureka, September 27, 1985.

A city which condemns private property for the purpose of establishing an airport may lease a portion of the property for hay purposes and locate a police gun range on another part of the property. As long as the city maintains an airport upon the premises, other uses incidental to airport purposes are permissible, and such uses do not constitute an abandonment of the easement acquired in the eminent domain proceeding. Opinion No. 85-131

Constitution of the United States—Fourteenth Amendment—Right to Privacy; Ability of State to Regulate or Prohibit Abortion. Senator Eric Yost, 30th District, Wichita, September 27, 1985.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court in Roe v. Wade, 410 U.S. 113, 93 S.Ct. 705, 35 L.Ed.2d 147 (1973), permits a state to regulate or even prohibit abortion after the stage of viability, except where it is necessary, in appropriate medical judgment, to preserve the life or health of the mother. Such regulations must be narrowly tailored to fit the precise state interest at stake. As a result, attempts to specify a particular time during a pregnancy when viability occurs or to interfere with the judgment of the attending physician have been struck down as unconstitutional, although general prohibitions on post-viability abortions have been upheld. Cited herein: U.S. Const., Fourteenth Amend. JSS

Opinion No. 85-132

Roads and Bridges—County and Township Roads—County Road Unit System; Effect on Townships. Jon C.

Christlieb, Aubry Township Trustee, Stilwell, September 27, 1985.

The county road unit system is one of two alternative systems in Kansas designed for the construction and maintenance of roads within a county. Upon adoption of the county road unit system, all townships within the county must relinquish to the board of county commissioners all money and equipment accumulated by the townships for use in constructing and maintaining roads; the townships additionally relinquish their powers and duties associated with the construction and maintenance of roads within the township. The board of county commissioners is thus charged with the establishment, laying out and opening of all roads which are deemed by the board to be practicable, necessary for public use, and economically feasible, as well as their maintenance. Cited herein: K.S.A. 68-101; 68-104; 68-106; 68-515b; 68-516; 68-516a; 68-516b; K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 68-526. JLM

Automobiles and Other Vehicles—Act Regulating Traffic; Serious Traffic Offenses—Driving Under Influence of Alcohol; "Per Se" Violation. Judge Herb Rohleder, Chairman, Kansas Interdepartmental Committee on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, Topeka, September 27, 1985.

In cases in which a defendant is charged with violating the "per se" provision of the statute prohibiting driving under the influence of alcohol [K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 8-1567, as amended by L. 1985, Ch. 48, §9], evidence regarding the validity of the blood alcohol test is relevant and admissible. Cited herein: K.S.A. 8-1567 as amended by L. 1985, Ch. 48, §9; K.S.A. 60-407(f). BLB

Contracts and Promises—Funeral Agreements, Contracts and Plans; Cemetery Merchandise Contracts—Cemetery Merchandise; Defined. Jack H. Brier, Secretary of State, Topeka, September 27, 1985.

Under definitions contained in the Cemetery Merchandise Act, K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 16-320 et seq., "cemetery merchandise" is defined to include a number of specific items of personal property as well as "all merchandise commonly sold or used in cemeteries." (K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 16-320(a).) While caskets are not specifically mentioned, neither are they excluded (as are certain types of real property and intangible rights), and so are included under the general category of "merchandise commonly sold or used in cemeteries." Accordingly, cemetery corporations may enter into contracts for the pre-need sale of caskets under the terms of K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 16-320 et seq. Cited herein: K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 16-301; 16-302; 16-303; K.S.A. 16-308; K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 16-320; 16-321; 16-322; 16-329; 16-330; 16-333. DIVISION OF ALCOHOLIC
BEVERAGE CONTROL

TEMPORARY ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

(Effective August 19, 1985. Expire May 1, 1986.)

Article 6.—CONTAINERS AND LABELS

14-6-2b. Capacities of containers. (a) Alcoholic liquors may be sold or offered for sale in this state in original containers of any capacity that is approved in writing by the director.

(1) No container may be approved that is smaller than 200 ML.

(2) No container may be approved if that container would be likely to confuse or mislead consumers.

(b) Upon receipt of a request to approve a new container size, the director shall notify all licensees and other interested parties of the fact that such a request has been received, and that the request will be acted upon within 30 days after the date such public notice is given. The notice shall further state that any licensee or other interested party may submit written comments to the director either in favor of or opposed to the approval of the proposed size during the 30 day period. The director shall review and consider all comments submitted prior to approving or disapproving the new size. Any party requesting approval for a new size, or any party that submitted written comments on a requested approval for a new size, who is aggrieved by a decision of the director may appeal such a decision through the appeal procedure set forth in K.S.A. 41-321 and 41-323. (Authorized by K.S.A. 41-210, as amended by 1985 H.B. 2250, sec. 2, 41-211, as amended by 1985 H.B. 2250, Sec. 3 and K.S.A. 41-1119; implementing K.S.A. 41-211, as amended by 1985 H.B. 2250, Sec. 3 and K.S.A. 41-1119; effective, T-86-28, Aug. 19, 1985.)

14-18-31. "Meal" defined; meal package limited to one drink. (a) Any class A or class B private club may serve a drink as part of a meal package at no extra charge if:

(1) the club is a food service establishment as that term is defined at K.S.A. 36-501; and

(2) when required by statute, it has a current and valid restaurant license.

(b) A "meal" shall be a combination of one or more food items regularly offered on a menu that a reasonable person would consider to constitute a full meal, whether breakfast, lunch, or dinner.

(c) Any club that sells, offers to sell, or gives away a meal package that includes a drink as part of the package at no extra cost shall not offer or include more than one drink per meal package in such an offering. (Authorized by K.S.A. 41-2634; implementing 1985 S.B. 126, Section 4; effective, T-86-28, Aug. 19, 1985.)

14-18-32. Clubs must charge the same price for the same drink all day; day defined. (a) No licensed private club may sell a drink to any person for less than the price charged for that same drink to all other club patrons on that day. Any particular drink that is offered for sale at any time during the

(b) The term "day" shall extend from the time that a club opens for business until the time that it closes, even if the opening and closing hours fall on consecutive calendar days. All times that a club is open between the legal opening and closing times for a single day, as those hours are specified in K.S.A. 41-2614, shall be included. No club may close prior to the legal closing hour for private clubs and then re-open for purposes of circumventing this regulation. The term "hotel" shall be as defined in K.S.A. 36-501.

(2) The temporary memberships shall be granted only by the club and shall not be handled by or delegated to the hotel management. A temporary membership card shall be issued to the temporary member setting forth, on its face, the effective dates, the name of the club and the name of the member. (3) The hotel shall provide to each guest who desires to become a temporary club member a pre-printed form or statement on hotel letterhead, signed by the desk clerk or other authorized hotel employee or official, setting forth the name of the hotel guest, the guest's permanent residence address, and the date or dates on which the bearer is a registered guest at the hotel.

Each interest rate specified shall be in an even multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of 1 percent. The difference between the highest and lowest coupon rates specified in any bid shall not exceed 3 percent. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check equal to 2 percent of the total amount of the bid, and shall be payable to Treasurer, City of Goddard, Kansas. In the event a bidder whose bid is accepted shall fail to carry out his contract of purchase, said deposit shall be retained by the city as liquidated damages. The checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned promptly.

Award of Bids

The sealed bids for the bonds shall be opened publicly and only at the time and place specified in this notice, and the bonds will be sold to the best bidder. The city reserves the right to reject any and all of the bids, and to waive any irregularities. Unless all bids are rejected, the bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose proposal results in the lowest net interest cost to the city, and the net interest cost will be determined by deducting the amount of any premium paid from the aggregate amount of interest upon all of the bonds from their date until their respective maturities.

KANSAS FACTS—PEOPLE

The soil and the sky furnish Kansas' two best known exports—wheat and airplanes. But the state's greatest contribution—a product of its rich pioneer heritage—is its people. They are vigorous, hard-working and out-spoken. "The Kansas spirit," wrote Carl Becker in a 1910 essay, "is one that finds something exhilarating in the challenge of an extreme difficulty."

During the brawling, bustling era of the "cowtown," several Kansas lawmen achieved near mythic proportions. James Butler "Wild Bill" Hickok, who called Kansas home in the 1860s and 1870s, gained fame as city marshal of untamed Abilene. During the same era, Wyatt Earp was a lawman in Abilene and Dodge City and "Bat" Masterson was sheriff of Ford County. Even after leaving western Kansas, Masterson, who was extremely popular in Dodge City, was often called back to help settle disputes. He spent his last years as a sports writer for a New York City newspaper. William Frederick Cody earned his nickname "Buffalo Bill" while hunting buffalo to supply meat to laborers on the Kansas Pacific Railroad. Cody, an Indian scout and Pony Express rider, lived much of his life in Kansas.

Edmund G. Ross, a U.S. Senator from 1866 to 1871, is remembered for his part in the impeachment trial of President Andrew Johnson. Ross, voting against the wishes of most other Republicans, cast his vote for Johnson's acquittal. The popular story that Ross' vote alone saved Johnson is said by historians to be exaggerated, since other Republicans did vote for acquittal and still others might have done so if necessary. However, Ross' vote did occur at the right time in the roll call to provide the needed number of votes for acquittal, and it is acknowledged that Ross acted with great personal courage in voting for Johnson.

Ross was accused of being a traitor and the incident virtually ended his political career in Kansas. Ross is profiled in President John F. Kennedy's book, "Profiles in Courage."

U.S. Senator John J. Ingalls gained nationwide acclaim in the 1860s as an orator. While a state senator, Ingalls submitted the design for the Great Seal of Kansas. He also proposed the state motto, "Ad Astra per Aspera," Latin for "To the Stars Through Difficulties."

Kansas has produced a President of the United States, a Vice President and unsuccessful major party nominees for both positions. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who was raised in Abilene, gained national fame as Commander-in-Chief of the Allied Armies in Europe during World War II. Later, "Ike" rode that popularity into the White House. He was U.S. President from 1953 to 1961. He is buried in Abilene. Topekan Charles Curtis, who was part Kaw Indian, served as Vice President of the United States under Herbert Hoover. Curtis served in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1893 to 1907 and served in the U.S. Senate from 1907 until he was elected vice president in 1929. As Senate Majority Leader under President Woodrow Wilson in 1919, Curtis led the floor fight for women's suffrage. Alf Landon, Kansas governor from 1933 to 1937, was the Republican Presidential nominee in 1936. Landon lost the election to Franklin D. Roosevelt by one of the greatest margins in American political history. Senator Bob Dole, of Russell, was the Republican candidate for Vice President in 1976. In 1984, Dole was elected majority leader of the U.S. Senate.

Between 1854 and 1936 more newspapers were published in Kansas than any other state. Kansas journalists have always been highly opinionated; early day Kansas newspaper editors were dubbed "Pistol-Packin' Pencil Pushers." No man more typified Kansas journalism than William Allen White, editor and publisher of the Emporia Gazette. White's audience and influence spread far beyond Kansas borders and in 1923 he was awarded a Pulitzer Prize for his editorial, "To An Anxious Friend."

The Hutchinson News received a Pulitzer Prize in 1965 for its role in getting reapportionment of state legislative districts in Kansas. Ben Hibbs, who was born in Fontana and grew up in Pretty Prairie, was editor of the Saturday Evening Post from 1942 to 1961, during which time he modernized the magazine's style and broadened its scope. He was senior editor of Reader's Digest from 1962 to 1972. William "Bill" Kurtis, formerly co-anchor for the CBS, "Morning News," attended the University of Kansas and Washburn University, where he received a law degree. Kurtis was also an anchorman for WIBW-TV in Topeka. He later covered such historical news events as the trial of the Chicago Seven and the fall of Saigon. Radio and television news commentator John Cameron Swayze was born in Wichita. Swayze, who attended the University of Kansas, worked for both NBC and ABC and is also an author.

Well-known Kansas artists include Henry Worrall,

Topeka, who did portraits and Kansas landscapes during the 1860s. He was known for his contributions to popular magazines of the day. The works of John Steuart Curry, who was born on a farm in Jefferson County, include the stunning murals in the east and west wings of the Kansas Capitol. Best known among those murals is the towering figure of John Brown. Beside him are the contending free-soil and pro-slavery forces. At their feet, two figures symbolize the million and a half killed in the Civil War. The late Laurence Schmeckebier, author and art critic, called the Capitol murals "the greatest mural achievements in America." Artist Sven Birger Sandzen came to the United States from Sweden in 1894 to teach at Bethany College in Lindsborg. Museums there honor him. Artist Rudolph Wendelin is known as the "caretaker" of the Smokey Bear image. As a U.S. Forest Service artist, Wendelin has drawn Smokey numerous times and approved commercial versions of Smokey. Now retired, Wendelin's recent work includes a historical mural for Rawlins County, where he spent his childhood.

Kansans excel in other fine arts as well. William Inge, a native of Independence, was a Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright. He wrote "Picnic," "Bus Stop," and "Come Back, Little Sheba." Also, from Independence, Vivian Vance, of TV's "I Love Lucy." Gordon Parks, born in Fort Scott, is a world-renowned photographer, writer and motion picture producer. He won a Pulitzer Prize for photography in 1973. Parks wrote the books "The Learning Tree" and "A Choice of Weapons," and he directed the movie "Shaft." Brian Lanker, a photographer for the Topeka Capital-Journal, also won a Pulitzer Prize for photography in 1973. Actor Edward Asner, who played popular television character "Lou Grant," is from the Kansas City, Kansas area and Milburn Stone, who played "Doc" on the long-running series "Gunsmoke," grew up in Kansas. Stone's characterization of "Doc" was patterned after his own country-doctor grandfather. Don Johnson, star of the award-winning "Miami Vice," is a Wichita native. He attended the University of Kansas.

George Washington Carver, once called the "foremost agricultural scientist of the age," lived in various parts of Kansas during his youth. He was graduated from Minneapolis High School and briefly homesteaded in Ness County. Burlingame was the birthplace of Earl Sutherland, who won the Nobel Prize for physiology and medicine in 1971. The Menninger family of Topeka founded and operates the world-famous Menninger Foundation mental health facility. Industrialist Walter P. Chrysler, who established the Chrysler Corporation in 1925, was born at Wamego and grew up in Ellis.

Kansas' motto, "To the Stars Through Difficulties," has taken on even greater significance in view of the accomplishments of four native sons. Clyde Tombaugh discovered the planet Pluto on February 18, 1930. Tombaugh, who grew up in Burdette, began his amateur observations with a telescope purchased from Sears and Roebuck. A generation later, Ron Evans was commander of the pilot ship during the flight of Apollo 17 to the moon. Evans was born in St. Francis and is a graduate of Topeka public schools and the University of Kansas. Evans was the first of three Kansas astronauts. Joe Engle, a Chapman native, was commander of the Space Shuttle Columbia's second mission. Engle was the number two Air Force pilot for NASA-AFB X-15 program. He made nine flights in the X-15. Steve Hawley, who was born in Ottawa and raised in Salina, was a mission specialist aboard the maiden flight of the Space Shuttle Discovery. Like Evans, both Engle and Hawley attended the University of Kansas. Hawley is married to Sally Ride, the United State's first female astronaut.

A number of fine athletes have come from Kansas. The state is particularly noted for its excellent runners. In the 1960s, Jim Ryun, Wichita, set a new world's track record for the mile run, becoming the first American mile titlist in 30 years. He also held world records for 1500 meters and the half mile. Ryun was named the World's Outstanding Athlete in 1966 and 1967, and was a three-time Olympian. The state's running tradition began with Glen Cunningham of Elkhart who, like Ryun, was a world record holder in the mile run. During the World War I era, Jess Willard of Emmett was the world heavyweight champion boxer. One of major league baseball's greatest right-handed pitchers and a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame, Walter "Big Train" Johnson was a native of Humboldt. Joe Tinker, part of the great double-play combination of Tinker to Evers to Chance, was from Muscotah in Atchison County. Two respected major league baseball managers are from Kansas: Ralph Houk is from Lawrence and Gene Mauch is from Salina. Other Kansans succeeding in major league baseball include: Mike Torrez (Topeka); Bill Russell (Pittsburg), Don Lock (Wichita), Steve Renko (Kansas City), Ross Grimsley (Topeka) and Rudy May (Coffeeville). Kinsley native Pete Mehringer won a gold medal at the 1932 Olympic games in the light heavyweight wrestling competition. Dean Smith, an Emporia native, has been head basketball coach at the University of North Carolina since 1961. Smith, who played basketball at the University of Kansas, coached the U.S. Olympic basketball team to a gold medal in 1976. In 1982, the Tar Heels, under his guidance, won the NCAA national title.

In 1984, John Riggins completed his 14th year in professional football. Picked sixth overall in the 1971 draft by the New York Jets, he led the team in both rushing and receiving as a rookie. After five seasons with the Jets, Riggins signed with Washington and completed nine seasons with the Redskins through 1984. In his long career, Riggins has established a number of NFL records including rushing for 24 touchdowns in a season and rushing for a touchdown in 13 consecutive games. In 1984 at the age of 35, he also became the oldest player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. He is the NFL's number five career rusher, an all-pro selection in 1975 and Super Bowl MVP in 1982. At the University of Kansas, where he never missed a game or a practice, Riggins rushed for 2,706 career yards. He was named an all-American his senior season and was a three-time all-Big Eight selection. Riggins is a native of Centralia.

Professional golfer Jim Colbert honed his game in Kansas. He won the Kansas state junior golf title at age 11. While a student at Kansas State University he placed second in the 1964 NCAA tournament. In 1965 he won the Kansas Amateur title and that fall he qualified for the PGA tour. He has eight tour victories. Two other PGA stars have Kansas ties. Tom Watson, who is considered one of golf's greats, lives in Mission Hills and Bruce Lietzke was born in Kansas City.

Marilyn Smith, a Topeka native, has 22 career victories on the Ladies Professional Golf Association circuit. Smith won the Kansas State Amateur title three consecutive years beginning in 1946 and the national collegiate title in 1949 while attending the University of Kansas. She is a founder and charter member of the LPGA and was LPGA president from 1958 to 1960. Nicknamed "Miss Personality," Smith is considered one of golf's great ambassadors. Wichita native Laurie Blair joined the LPGA in October, 1984. She won the Kansas State Amateur title in 1979 and 1980. Also on the LPGA tour is Cathy Marino of Overland Park.

Behind the grease paint worn by the clown "Weary Willie" was Emmett Kelly, a native of Sedan. A museum has been established in Kelly's honor in his hometown.

General Frederick Funston became a national hero in 1906 as he oversaw rescue and clean-up efforts following the San Francisco earthquake. Funston Street in San Francisco was named in his honor. Funston, who was born and reared on a farm near Iola, also received the Congressional Medal of Honor. General Bernard W. Rogers, Fairview, has been commander of the NATO forces in Europe since 1979. Another military leader from Kansas was General Lewis Walt, former assistant commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps. General Walt is from Wabaunsee County. Frank E. Petersen, Jr., the first black brigadier general in the history of the U.S. Marine Corps, is from Topeka. He was named NAACP Man of the Year in 1979. In July, 1985, General Larry D. Welch, a graduate of Liberal High School, became commander-in-chief of the Strategic Air Command. Prior to that assignment, Welch had been vice chief of staff for the U.S. Air Force. Welch began his military career in Liberal after enlisting in the Kansas National Guard in 1951.

Along with the famous were the infamous . . .

Boston Corbett, the man who shot John Wilkes Booth, was born in Concordia. Corbett was part of a 25-man calvary troop sent to capture Booth, who had assassinated President Abraham Lincoln, and return him alive. Corbett disobeyed orders and shot and killed Booth. He became somewhat of a hero for his actions, even collecting a reward. Corbett eventually returned to Kansas where he became an Assistant Doorkeeper in the Kansas House of Representatives. On February 15, 1887, he attained additional notoriety by firing shots at the House members from the west balcony of the House chamber. He was judged insane and committed to the Topeka Insane Asylum. He escaped in 1888 and disappeared without a trace.

During the 1870s the Bender family of Parsons took in unsuspecting travelers and murdered them. Led by daughter Kate, the family murdered at least 11 people.

John Richard Romulus Brinkley became famous for his goat gland transplants—surgical procedures which were supposed to restore sexual potency to human males. Between 1918 and 1930, Brinkley performed as many as 16 transplants a day at his clinic in Milford. He also operated the first radio station in Kansas, giving medical advice and prescriptions over the air. Despite criticism of his methods and revocation of his medical license, Brinkley ran for governor as a write-in candidate in 1930 and apparently received the most votes. However, 50,000 votes were voided and thrown out by election officials, and the Democratic candidate was declared the winner. Brinkley ran again in 1932, but with little enthusiasm. He was defeated, and soon after that he moved to Texas, where he died of a heart attack in 1942.

Bank robber and bootlegger Alvin "Creepy" Karpis began his life of crime in Topeka, where he spent his childhood. In 1936 Karpis replaced John Dillinger as "Public Enemy Number One."
