ATTORNEY GENERAL

Opinion No. 85-151

Crimes and Punishments—Code; Principles of Criminal Liability—Use of Deadly Force by Correctional Officers. Charles E. Simmons, Chief Legal Counsel, Department of Corrections, Topeka, November 6, 1985.

A correctional officer at a state penitentiary is not prohibited from using deadly force to prevent the escape of an inmate incarcerated for a felony, when such force is necessary to prevent or terminate the escape. Cited herein: K.S.A. 21-3215. BLB

Opinion No. 85-152

Cities and Municipalities—Buildings, Structures and Grounds—Public Building Commission; Elections.

Constitution of the State of Kansas—Corporations—Cities Power of Home Rule. James P. Davidson, Shawnee County Counselor, Topeka, November 8, 1985.

The board of county commissioners of Shawnee County, in the exercise of its power of home rule, may conduct a non-binding advisory election on the question of whether Shawnee County should enter into the leases necessary to permit the Topeka Public Building Commission to issue revenue bonds under K.S.A. 12-1761. However, no statutory or constitutional authority exists for a board of county commissioners to conduct a binding election in the county on the question of whether a public building commission, established by a city under K.S.A. 12-1757 et seq., may issue revenue bonds.

Moreover, a city which has established a public building commission does not have the authority, under constitutional home rule powers, to require or authorize a board of county commissioners to conduct a binding election in the county, as such authorization goes beyond the scope of "local affairs" as that phrase is used in Article 12, Section 5 of the Kansas Constitution.

Similarly, a city may not, by home rule charter ordinance, authorize a public building commission to extend the right to vote in a binding election on the issuance of bonds to persons who are not qualified electors of the city. Thus, the city of Topeka's Charter Ordinance No. 55 operates solely to authorize the Public Building Commission to conduct an election in the city upon the presentation of petitions sufficient under its terms. Corporations—Loans or Investments—Standards for Investment; Prudent Person Rule.

Personal and Real Property—Uniform Management of Institutional Funds—Standard of Conduct; Business Care Rule. Representative Jessie M. Branson, 44th

District, Lawrence; Representative Betty Jo Charlton, 46th District, Lawrence; Representative Henry Helgeson, 86th District, Wichita, November 12, 1985.

Kansas law contains two different standards, the "prudent person" rule and the "business care" rule, which are relevant to any question concerning the divestment by a trust fund of assets linked to investments in the Republic of South Africa. The identity of the holder of the assets determines the applicable standard.

In administering the investments which are subject to their control, cities and counties are subject to the "prudent person" rule of K.S.A. 17-5004, which requires them to exercise the same care in the management of trust funds that prudent persons would use in managing their own affairs. Universities and charitable corporations such as endowment funds are subject to the "business care" rule found at K.S.A. 58-3606, which requires the exercise of ordinary business care and prudence, based on the facts available at the time.

While neither standard permits divestment decisions to be made on moral grounds alone, the "prudent person" standard does permit divestment upon a finding by the trustees that economic conditions in South Africa make continued investment in a particular asset less than prudent. Under the "business care" standard, notice may be taken of both the political and economic situations existing in the country as they affect the security of the investment. Cited herein: K.S.A. 17-5004; 58-3606; 74-4921; L. 1983, ch. 374; Kan. Const., Art. 2, § 20. JSS

Public Health—Maternity Hospitals or Homes and Homes for Children—Persons Prohibited from Employment Therein; Effect of Certain Misdemeanor Convictions. Representative George R. Dean, 96th District, Wichita, November 12, 1985.

L. 1985, ch. 210, § 1(a)(2) was enacted to include certain juvenile offenders in the list of persons prohibited from being employed in boarding homes for children or family day care homes. The paragraph is so worded as to include misdemeanor as well as felony offenses. Cited herein: K.S.A. 21-3422; K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 21-3508; K.S.A. 21-3510; 21-3608; 21-4301; 21-4301a; L. 1985, Ch. 210, § 1. JLM

Opinion No. 85-155

Taxation—Sales of Liquor by Clubs—Tax on Sales of Liquor by Clubs; Disposition of Revenues. James B. McKay, Jr., El Dorado City Attorney, El Dorado, November 12, 1985.

Moneys in a special alcohol and drug programs fund established pursuant to K.S.A. 79-41a04 may be used for medical treatment of alcohol and drug related conditions of city prisoners. However, in the absence of a charter ordinance providing otherwise, such moneys may not be used to incarcerate persons arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol. Cited herein: K.S.A. 79-41a02, 79-41a03, 79-41a04; L. 1985, ch. 171, §§ 13, 14. TRH

Opinion No. 85-156

Laws, Journals and Public Information—Records Open to Public—Access to City Department Reports. Representative Charles F. Laird, 59th District, Topeka, November 12, 1985.

The Kansas Open Records Act, K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 45-215 et seq., is not violated by a public agency's refusal to allow public access to certain reports upon their compilation. However, access must be granted when such reports are reviewed in an open meeting or distributed to a majority of a quorum of that agency's subcommittee. Cited herein: K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 45-217; 45-221; K.S.A. 75-4318(a), as amended by L. 1985, ch. 284, § 1. KG

KANSAS BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

Walter Beech, founder of Beech Aircraft Corporation, once said, "No matter where you deliver an airplane from Wichita, you're already halfway there." Beech knew what many other businessmen have since discovered—that Kansas' central location makes it an ideal site for business and industry. Other strong selling points for the state a high worker productivity rate and an excellent system of air, rail and ground transportation.

With such strong assets the state has attracted a diversity of business and industry, resulting in a healthy state economy and a good job market. Unemployment in Kansas is consistently among the lowest in the nation. Products bearing a "Made in Kansas" label range from pizza to sewing patterns, camping equipment to greeting cards and tires to insulation. Meat packing, mining, flour milling and petroleum refining are among the major industries. Much of the credit for the variety of industry in Kansas goes to the Kansas Department of Economic Development, a state agency, and the Kansas Cavalry, a group of about 300 Kansas business leaders who volunteer their time and expertise to help lure business and industry to Kansas. Delegations of Cavalry members have traveled, at their own expense, all across the United States and to several foreign nations such as Germany and Taiwan.

Aircraft and agriculture dominate Kansas industry. The state is the world leader in the production of general aviation aircraft. Three Kansas companies—Beech, Boeing and Cessna—manufacture two-thirds of all the general aviation aircraft produced in the world. All three major aircraft companies are in Wichita, "the Air Capital of the World." Nearly 39,000 people are employed by aircraft firms or firms supplying aircraft component parts.

Hutchinson is a major salt production center. It is home to one of the world's largest salt mines and three of the largest salt evaporation plants. There is also a salt mine and a salt processing plant, operated by the American Salt Co., in Lyons.

Southeast Kansas is a center of strip coal mining operations. McNally Pittsburg Inc. at Pittsburg is the nation's largest plant devoted mainly to the production of coal preparation equipment. Pittsburg is also home to one of the country's largest ammonium nitrate plants.

Kansas ranks in the top 10 nationally in the production of popcorn, railroad cars, cattle and rubber tires, as well as wheat, milo and aircraft. The state is the country's leading producer of helium.

The following companies are several of the largest or more unique industries in Kansas:

Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company:

In 1985 Santa Fe completed construction of a new office building in Topeka, where it employs more than 1,000 people. Santa Fe is the largest railroad company in the state with more than 2,500 miles of track.

Beech Aircraft Corporation: Beech employs more than 6,000 people in its plants at Wichita, Salina and Liberal. The company manufactures business aircraft ranging in size from two- to 19-passengers.

Boeing Military Airplane Co.: In operation since 1927, the Wichita plant is one of Boeing's primary centers for aircraft engineering, fabrication and assembly. The company does extensive avionics development and modification work for the nation's bomber and tanker fleets and produces assemblies for all Boeing jetliners. The plant, which employs 17,000 people, is believed to be the largest private aerospace complex at a single site in the free world.

The Cessna Aircraft Company: Cessna produces nearly 52 percent of all general aviation aircraft. The Cessna Skyhawk (172) is the largest selling general aviation aircraft in history. The company employs 8,000 at its Wichita plant.

The Coleman Company, Inc.: Founded in Wichita, Coleman now has plants in several states as well as foreign countries. It is the nation's leading manufacturer of insulated coolers and other molded plastic products. The company also produces camping products including tents and sleeping bags, canoes, recreational vehicle equipment, and heating and air conditioning units at its Wichita plant. Coleman plants in other states make power boats, water skis, catamarans and air guns. The company employs 2,500 people at its Wichita plant.

Duckwall-ALCO Stores, Inc.: A. L. Duckwall founded the first "Duckwall Racket Store" in Abilene in 1901. Today, the firm has more than 158 stores in 14 states with gross annual sales of $380 million. Corporate headquarters and a new modern warehouse-distribution center are in Abilene.

Evans Products, Inc.: Evans Products of Dodge City is one of only three companies in the country that manufactures plastic drum heads for musical instruments. The company, which has been in business since 1958, sells drum heads to customers throughout the world, including many top rock groups. Evans is the only company in the world that makes such products as the "hydraulic head," an oil-filled drum head.

Gates Learjet Corporation: Gates Learjet, Wichita, is the world's leading producer of business jet aircraft. The U.S. Air Force and many of the world's largest corporations are among its customers. Wichita is also the headquarters for Gates Learjet's Aerospace Division, which performs work for many of the nation's major defense contractors. The new division manufactures missile components for the General Dynamics Corporation and tooling for Rockwell International Corporation's B-1B bomber.

Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company: The Goodyear factory in Topeka manufactures giant earthmover, heavy equipment and truck tires. About 2,500 people are employed at the plant.

Gott Corporation: The Winfield-based Gott Corporation designs, manufactures and distributes double-walled, insulated beverage coolers, cooler chests and other molded plastic products. The company was started in 1916 when Henry Gott invented the first portable water cooler for oilfield workers in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Today, the company employs more than 500 people and has annual sales of $45 million to rank third nationally in industry sales.

Hallmark Cards, Incorporated: The world's leading publisher of greeting cards, Hallmark has three production centers in Kansas. More than 2,000 people are employed at the plants in Topeka, Lawrence and Leavenworth. Items produced by the company include greeting cards, stationery, paper party goods, candles, writing instruments, key chains and Springbok jigsaw puzzles.

Hesston Corporation: Founded in 1947, the Hesston Corporation is a major international producer of farm equipment. The firm makes equipment for tillage, mowing and haying, including several models of hay balers. Fiat tractors, which are produced in Italy, are also assembled and distributed by the company.
