Automobiles and Other Vehicles—Drivers' Licenses—Persons to Whom Licenses Not Issued; Denial of Driving Privileges Due to Seizure Disorders. Rose Marino, Associate General Counsel of the University of Kansas, Lawrence, November 21, 1985.

The Division of Vehicles of the Department of Revenue may not deny, refuse to renew, or suspend a driver's license based on an applicant's seizure disorders which are controlled by medication without first receiving an opinion from the medical advisory board that the particular applicant is likely to be a danger to himself or others while driving. Cited herein: K.S.A. 8-237; K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 8-247; 8-254; 8-255; K.S.A. 8-255c. KG

Opinion No. 85-159

Schools—School Attendance, Curriculum and Accreditation—Responsibility to Investigate Home Instruction. Dennis W. Moore, Johnson County District Attorney, Olathe, November 21, 1985.

A local board of education has no authority to investigate situations involving home instruction to determine compliance with the compulsory school attendance statutes, K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 72-1103 et seq.

However, upon receiving a report that a child is not enrolled in a public or nonpublic school, the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services has a duty under K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 38-1501 et seq. to determine whether a child's home instruction may violate the compulsory school attendance law. Schools—Capital Outlay Levy, Fund and Bonds—Protest, Petition and Election.

Elections—Sufficiency of Petitions—Petition Documents, Contents. Steven L. Boyce, Coffey County Attorney, Burlington, November 21, 1985.

A petition, prepared and filed under the supposed authority of K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 72-8801 which does not meet the requirements of K.S.A. 1984 Supp. 25-3601 et seq., is invalid. As such, assuming a board of education imposes a four mill levy for capital outlays pursuant to a validly adopted resolution, such an invalid petition has no effect in preventing the levy from being imposed. Drainage and Levies—Watershed Districts—Meetings of Directors.

State Departments; Public Officers, Employees—Public Officers and Employees—Meetings Open to Public. Van Smith, Attorney for Pawnee Joint Watershed District No. 81, Garden City, November 21, 1985.

Pursuant to K.S.A. 24-1212, a watershed district board is required to have regular meetings once each quarter during the year. While this statute establishes minimum standards which must be met by the board, more frequent regular meetings may be held in that the statute is directory, rather than mandatory, on this point. K.S.A. 24-1212 also requires that all meetings of the board be open, and that no executive sessions be held. In that this language conflicts with the more recent and comprehensive language of the Open Meetings Act, K.S.A. 75-4317 et seq., it has been repealed by implication, as was concluded in Attorney General Opinion No. 82-130.
