Kansas Commission on Governmental Standards and Conduct

Advisory Opinion No. 95-7

Written March 14, 1995, to Kenneth M. Wilke, Chief Counsel, Kansas Department of Agriculture, Topeka.

This opinion is in response to your letter of March 13, 1995, in which you request an opinion from the Kansas Commission on Governmental Standards and Conduct concerning the state conflict of interest laws (K.S.A. 46-215 et seq.).

Factual Statement

We understand you request this opinion in your capacity as chief counsel for the Kansas Department of Agriculture. You advise us that the secretary of the Kansas Department of Agriculture (hereinafter agency) needs to travel to a seminar and panel discussion concerning agricultural issues.

The seminar will be held in western Kansas and, due to time constraints and scheduling, air travel is the preferred method of travel. The agency is contemplating making arrangements to use the Governor's plane or chartering an aircraft to attend the seminar.

Included in the passenger list would be one or more individuals from an organization which is not licensed, regulated or inspected by the agency. The organization has voluntarily offered to pay its fair share of the cost for chartering an airplane.

Question

Is it permissible for representatives of a private entity to reimburse the agency for their fair share of the costs of the airplane charter?

Opinion

K.S.A. 46-237 relates to your question. K.S.A. 46-237(a) provides:

No state officer or employee or candidate for state office shall accept, or agree to accept any economic opportunity, gift, loan, gratuity, special discount, favor, hospitality, or service having an aggregate value of $40 or more in any calendar year from any one person known to have a special interest, under circumstances where such person knows or should know that a major purpose of the donor is to influence such person in the performance of their official duties or prospective official duties.

The issue in this situation is whether this payment is a "gift" under the conflict of interest laws. This situation is analogous to a private entity paying for the travel expenses of a state officer or employee. This commission has consistently held that K.S.A. 46-237(a) does not apply to situations where the agency authorizes and is willing to pay for the travel expenses, because nothing inures to the benefit of the state officer.

Thus, since the Board of Agriculture is willing to pay for the costs of chartering the airplane, this section does not prohibit the situation you have described.

In closing, this commission has no jurisdiction over the use by non-state employees of state property or commercial property contracted for by a state agency.

Each panel is scheduled to convene at 9 a.m. in the Senate Room on the lobby level of the Jayhawk Tower, 700 S.W. Jackson, Topeka, an accessible facility.

Panels for the four categories of the Major Grant Program will meet on the following dates:

- Basic Program Support—Monday and Tuesday, April 3-4
- Presenter/Festival Support—Monday, April 10
- Project Support—Tuesday, April 11
- Local Arts Agency Support—Wednesday, April 12

Panels for the five categories of the Arts In Education Program will meet on the following dates:

- Community Resource Development and Artists in Schools—Wednesday, April 5
- Arts in Early Education, Arts and Quality Performance Accreditation, and Programs with a Social Focus—Friday, April 7

The panels are comprised of knowledgeable individuals from across Kansas and other states, and each panel is chaired by a member of the commission. One or more other commissioners also serve on each panel.

The recommendations of the panels will be acted upon by the commission during its quarterly business meeting in June, when the actual grant amounts will be determined and announced.

Meetings of the Kansas Arts Commission, a state agency, and its advisory panels are open to public observation. Applicants are encouraged to attend the panel meetings and hear the critiques of their applications and programs. Applicants do not make presentations to the panels, but may answer questions posed at the request of the panelists.

Funding for commission programs is provided through grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency, and appropriations by the Kansas Legislature.
