Administrative Regulations

All interested parties will be given a reasonable opportunity to present their views orally on the adoption of the proposed regulations during the hearing. Any individual with a disability may request accommodation in order to participate in the public hearing and may request the proposed regulations and economic impact statements in an accessible format. The entrance to the Jayhawk Walk is accessible, and parking for persons with disabilities is in front of the building.

Copies of the proposed regulations may be obtained by contacting Patricia Scalia. A summary of the proposed regulations and the economic impact statement follows:

Summary of Proposed Regulations

K.A.R. 105-4-1 provides the eligibility requirements for defendants applying for legal representation at state expense. Eligibility is determined by the court after reviewing the defendant's affidavit listing his or her assets and income, reasonable and necessary living expenses, and the anticipated cost of private legal representation. The court also may consider any special circumstance in determining eligibility.

The amendment limits eligibility to those persons whose combined household income and liquid assets equal less than the most current federal poverty guidelines, as published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, for the defendant's family unit, unless the court determines that special circumstances exist that affect the defendant's eligibility for legal representation at state expense. This limitation on eligibility is an effort by the Board of Indigents' Defense Services to save costs and meet reductions to the agency's budget.

This regulation is proposed on both a temporary and a permanent basis.

There is no cost associated with this amendment to the board or any other government entity. There is no cost associated with this amendment to private citizens other than the consumers of this service – the defendants applying for eligibility, in terms of limiting eligibility. The proposing agency is unable to estimate the savings since the court may find special circumstances and makes the final decision on eligibility.

K.A.R. 105-5-2, K.A.R. 105-5-3, K.A.R. 105-5-6, K.A.R. 105-5-7 and K.A.R. 105-5-8 establish the hourly rate to be paid to the private attorneys who accept court appointments to defend indigent persons in the absence of a public defender. The rate to be paid to assigned counsel is reduced from $80 per hour to $62 per hour, and each of the "caps" for the severity level of the charge is similarly reduced from the "cap" at $80 per hour to the "cap" at $62 per hour. These amendments reflect action taken by the board under its statutory authority to adjust the rate of compensation to a lower rate when the board determines that the budget appropriation will be insufficient to pay all claims.

K.A.R. 105-11-1 provides for the adoption by reference of the "attorney cost reimbursement tables: assigned counsel and public defender." This table is revised annually and is used by the court to order defendants to pay some or all of the cost of their defense.

This regulation is not mandated by federal law. There is no cost to any state or federal agency created by this regulation. However, this regulation provides the table for an assessment of defense cost against private persons for the professional services of public defenders or assigned counsel.

There is no environmental impact. This regulation is proposed on both a temporary and a permanent basis.
