State of Kansas

Governmental Ethics Commission

Opinion No. 2011-08-Amended

Written October 27, 2001, to Tim Madden, Senior Counsel to Secretary Roberts, Kansas Department of Corrections, Topeka.

Synopsis: In state governmental ethics issues that pertain to the solicitation of any gift, economic opportunity, loan, gratuity, special discount or service provided because of such person's official position in the executive branch of state government, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a is considered the applicable statute.

Under K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a, Kansas Department of Corrections Secretary Roberts, and other Department employees (as executive branch employees), may assist in the solicitation of donations for a nonprofit corporation recognized under § 501(c)(3) as a charitable nonprofit organization whose purpose is to fund and/or provide faithbased rehabilitation programs for inmates.

This conclusion pertains only to the following language in the 2nd paragraph of K.S.A. 46-236, subsection (3): "any solicitation for the benefit of any charitable organization which is required to file a registration statement with the secretary of state pursuant to K.S.A. 17-1761, and amendments thereto." The conclusion does not pertain to or affect the language in K.S.A. 46-236, such as the exception for campaign contributions.

Cited herein: K.S.A. 46-236; K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a.

This opinion is in response to your letter dated July 7, 2011, wherein you request an opinion from the Kansas Governmental Ethics Commission concerning the application of the State Governmental Ethics Laws, K.S.A. 46-215 et seq. We note at the outset that the Commission's jurisdiction is limited to the applicability of K.S.A. 46-215 et seq., and the Commission's opinion does not address whether some other statutory system, common law theory, or agency rule or regulation applies to your inquiry.

Factual Statement:

We understand that you request this opinion in your capacity as Senior Legal Counsel to the Kansas Department of Corrections (KDOC). As background information, you advise that until recently KDOC received, at no cost to the State, faith-based rehabilitation programs for inmates from InnerFaith Initiatives. (IFI) However, IFI can no longer provide the funding for these faith-based rehabilitation programs.

KDOC is interested in assisting in fund raising for faith-based rehabilitation programs that would be provided by and through a charitable nonprofit organization. An entity outside of KDOC proposes to establish a § 501(c)(3) charitable nonprofit organization to direct the fundraising and oversee disbursement of the funds to IFI or other qualified contractors providing faith-based rehabilitative programming. Involvement by Secretary Roberts, and possibly other KDOC employees, would be limited to explaining to potential donors the benefits to inmates and the public provided by such faith-based rehabilitation programs and the role played by the nonprofit organization. In effect, Secretary Roberts, and possibly other KDOC employees, would be soliciting donations in support of the nonprofit organization.

Neither Secretary Roberts nor any other KDOC employee would be involved in the establishment of the nonprofit organization, sit on the board of directors of the nonprofit organization or receive any compensation from the nonprofit organization.

Question:

It is within this context that you ask whether it is permissible under the state level conflict of interest laws for Secretary Roberts, and possibly other KDOC employees, to assist in fundraising for a nonprofit corporation recognized under § 501(c)(3) as a charitable nonprofit organization.

Analysis and Opinion:

Two statutes, which unfortunately are not consistent with each other, are implicated in resolving this issue. The pertinent parts of those statutes are: K.S.A. 46-236: No state officer or employee . . . shall solicit any economic opportunity, gift, loan, gratuity, special discount, favor, hospitality or service from any person known to have a special interest, under circumstances where such officer, [or] employee . . . knows or should know that a major purpose of the donor in granting the same could be to influence the performance of the official duties or prospective official duties of such officer [or] employee. . .

Except when a particular course of official action is to be followed as a condition thereon, this section shall not apply to: . . . (3) any solicitation for the benefit of any charitable organization . . .

K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a: (a) The provisions of this section shall apply to: . . (4) all officers and employees of the executive branch of state government: . . .

(b) No person subject to the provisions of this section shall solicit . . . any gift, economic opportunity, loan, gratuity, special discount or service provided because of such person's official position, except: . . . (4) contributions solicited on behalf of a nonprofit organization which is exempt from taxation under [§ 501(c)(3)] of the internal revenue code of 1996, as amended.

Under K.S.A. 46-236, a state officer or employee may not solicit funds for a nonprofit organization if the nonprofit organization has a "special interest" in influencing the performance of the state officer's or employee's official duties or prospective official duties. "State officer or employee" includes any appointed state officer, as well as any classified or unclassified employee. "Special interest" refers to "an interest of any person [which includes a nonprofit corporation¹] . . . in the action or non-action of any state agency or state officer or employee upon any matter affecting such person as distinct from affect upon the people of the state as a whole." Additionally, even if a nonprofit organization does not have a special interest," if a "particular course of official action is to be followed" as a condition of solicitation of funds by a state officer or employee on behalf of the nonprofit organization, such solicitation is prohibited.

Under K.S.A. 46-236, the ability of Secretary Roberts and other KDOC employees to solicit funds for a non-profit organization is circumscribed by these identified limitations, i.e., "special interest" and "particular course of action."

In contrast, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a(b) permits persons within the executive branch of Kansas government, which includes Secretary Roberts and other KDOC employees, to solicit "contributions solicited on behalf of a nonprofit organization which is exempt from taxation under" § 501(c)(3).

Under this exception, Secretary Roberts and other KDOC employees may assist in fundraising for a non-profit corporation recognized under § 501(c)(3) as a charitable nonprofit organization whose purpose is to fund and/or provide faith-based rehabilitation programs for inmates without the limitations specified by K.S.A. 46-236.

Consequently, the issue becomes which statute applies to the situation at hand: K.S.A 46-236, which refers to "state officer or employee," or K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a, which refers to "officers and employees of the executive branch of state government"? To resolve this question, the Commission turns to accepted rules of statutory construction.

Statutory construction: newer statute/older statute. The first applicable rule of statutory construction is that an older statute must be read in the light of a later legislative enactment; an older statute must be harmonized with a newer one; if a conflict exists, the older statute must be subordinated to the new one.²

In other words, "where an irreconcilable conflict exists between statutes, the latest enactment will be held to supersede, repeal or supplant the earlier by implication; the later enactment must prevail."

K.S.A. 46-236 was enacted in 1974⁴ and has remained essentially the same since then.⁵ However, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a was enacted in 1997.⁶ Under this rule of statutory construction, K.S.A. 46-236 must be considered subordinate to K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a, with the latter superseding, repealing or supplanting the former by implication.

Statutory construction: general statute/specific statute. A second possibly applicable rule of statutory construction is that "[w]hen there is a conflict between a statute dealing generally with a subject and another statute dealing specifically with a certain phase of it, the specific statute controls unless it appears that the legislature intended to make the general act controlling."

K.S.A. 46-236 pertains to any "state officer or employee." This term is defined in K.S.A. 46-221 to mean the following:

- (1) any individual who is an elected or appointed state officer,
- (2) any individual who is in the classified service or unclassified service of the Kansas civil service act,
- (3) all officers and employees of the legislative branch and of the governor's office, irrespective of how compensated or period of employment, and
- (4) any individual who receives monthly or semimonthly compensation for services from the state or any state agency.

Additionally, under K.S.A. 46-221, generally "state office or employee" does not include any person within the judicial branch, or any appointed member of an advisory council, commission or board who serves without compensation except for statutorily specified expenses.

In contrast, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a pertains to the following:

- (1) the governor;
- (2) the lieutenant governor;
- (3) the governor's spouse;
- (4) all officers and employees of the executive branch of state government; and
- (5) all members of boards, commissions and authorities of the executive branch of state government.

It is somewhat problematic to determine which statute is the more general one and which one is more specific or deals specifically with a certain phase of the general statute. It appears that the governor and lieutenant governor (K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a) represent a specific phase of the more general term "any individual who is an elected state officer" (K.S.A. 46-236). The governor's spouse is specifically included in K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a, but is not mentioned in K.S.A. 46-236.

Also, it appears that "all officers and employees of the executive branch of state government" (K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a) is a specific phase, or subclass, of the category "any individual who is in the classified service or unclassified service of the Kansas civil service act" (K.S.A. 46-236); but "all officers and employees of the governor's office" (K.S.A. 46-236) is a specific phase, or subclass, of "all officers and employees of the executive branch of state government" (K.S.A. 46-237a).

However, "all officers and employees of the legislative branch" (K.S.A. 46-236) is not addressed at all in K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a. (Neither statute pertains to employees of the judicial branch.)

Further, while "all members of boards, commissions and authorities of the executive branch of state government" are specifically included in K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a, they are excluded from K.S.A. 46-236.

Finally, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a does not specifically cover "any individual who receives monthly or semimonthly compensation for services from any state agency;" K.S.A. 46-236 does.

The most that can be said is that K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a is more specific in some respects than K.S.A. 46-236, and vice versa. Thus, an argument can be made that each statute could be considered the "special" or "specific" statute. Consequently, the rule that a specific statute prevails over a general statute does not resolve the issue.

Statutory construction: other rules. Under other rules of statutory construction, when statutes are ambiguous due to conflicting provisions, the historical backgrounds of each may be looked to, as well as the circumstances attending passage, the purposes to be accomplished, and the effects the statutes may have under various constructions. In addition, under another rule of statutory construction, it is presumed that the legislature intends to change the law when it enacts an amendment.⁸

Looking first to the historical backgrounds of each statute, the circumstances attending passage, and the purposes to be accomplished, the following is gleaned.

K.S.A. 46-236 and the definition of "state officer or employee" in K.S.A. 46-221 were two of sixty-four sections within Kansas' first governmental ethics act, effective in 1974.9 After introduction, the bill was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee, where Senator Bennett explained that the "bill was drafted because of concern over conflict of interest and what should be done about it," and that it "was not being proposed because it was felt that wrongdoing is rampant but because they feel there is public pressure or support for this." The bill was the result of a 1973 interim committee study. 11

In 1975, K.S.A. 46-236 was amended, adding the exception for any solicitation made for the benefit of a § 501(c)(3) charitable organization, but retaining the limiting phrases "special interest" and "except when a particular course of official action is to be followed as a condition thereon." No committee hearings were held in either the House or the Senate on the bill creating this amendment; the bill was passed directly by both the full House and the full Senate.

As mentioned, the comprehensive ethics bill, of which K.S.A. 46-236 was a part, when enacted¹⁴ included the definition of "state officer or employee." With an amendment in 1975 to exclude various employees in the judicial branch and members of advisory councils, commissions and boards, this definition has remained essentially the same since then, and is now found at K.S.A. 46-221. At no time was any special legislative attention paid to the list of persons covered by the act.

When enacted in 1997¹⁵, the prohibitions against solicitation or acceptance of gifts of various sorts contained K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a applied to:

- (1) the governor;
- (2) the lieutenant governor;
- (3) the governor's spouse;
- (4) all classified employees in the civil service of the state of Kansas;
- (5) all unclassified employees in the executive branch of state government whose compensation is subject to approval by the governor; and
- (6) all members of boards, commissions and authorities of the executive branch of state government.

This statute, listing persons subject to the solicitation and gift ban, began initially as a 1996 Executive Order, which covered the Governor, the Governor's spouse, the Governor's office staff, cabinet officers, unclassified employees whose salaries were approved by the Governor, and members of executive branch boards, commissions and authorities. In 1997, a bill was sponsored by the Governor to "codify the year-old executive order into statute and extend it to cover not just the Governor's appointees, but also most classified and unclassified employees in the executive branch of state government."

In 2000, House Bill (HB) 2627 amending K.S.A. 46-237a was sponsored by the Governor's office to accomplish the following purpose:

[t]o extend the existing executive branch gift and hospitality ban to all employees of the executive branch. The only ones that are currently covered are classified employees and unclassified employees who are under the Governor's direct control.¹⁸

During testimony in the House of Representative and the Senate committees, the bill, which would bring in all unclassified executive branch employees in all state agencies, was supported by the Secretary of State:

It is important to pass the bill to codify the policy [of the Secretary of State] and perhaps enhance the public perception of the ethics laws governing gifts.¹⁹

The Insurance Commissioner, whose internal policy had mirrored the Governor's Executive Order, also supported the bill:

Commissioner Sebelius is delighted that Governor Graves gave ethics reform a high profile in his State of the State speech, and agrees whole heartedly that "the people of Kansas deserve government that avoids even the appearance of improper conduct."²⁰

Additionally, Carol Williams, Executive Director of the Governmental Ethics Commission, testified that unclassified employees in the executive branch whose salaries are not subject to the Governor's approval fall under K.S.A. 46-237 regarding gifts, and other persons in state government fall under K.S.A. 46-237a. Ms. Williams further testified that:

Having but one law concerning the receipt of gifts, meals and recreation for all executive branch employees, would reduce confusion concerning this provision.²¹

Following a conference committee, HB 2627 was passed, amending K.S.A. 46-237a and making the solicitation and gift ban applicable to the following:

- (1) the governor;
- (2) the lieutenant governor;
- (3) the governor's spouse;
- (4) all officers and employees of the executive branch of state government; and
- (5) all members of boards, commissions and authorities of the executive branch of state government.

Thus, the Governor's purpose was accomplished by "extending" the scope of K.S.A. 46-237a to cover all executive branch employees and officers. No further statutory changes have been enacted since 2000.

K.S.A. 46-237a was initially enacted in order to cover classified employees, and unclassified employees in the executive branch whose compensation was subject to the Governor's approval. It was then amended in 2000²² with the purpose of extending that statute's ban on solicitation (and acceptance) of various benefits to all executive branch employees, classified and unclassified. The focus was always on executive branch employees. Further, it was hoped that the amended statute would enhance public perception of ethics laws, avoid the appearance of improper conduct and reduce confusion between K.S.A. 46-237a and 46-237.

In contrast, K.S.A. 46-236, and the accompanying definition of "state officer or employee" were passed as two parts of a comprehensive governmental ethics bill and as such, did not receive any specific legislative comment or testimony regarding covered persons.

Turning now to the effects that K.S.A. 46-236 and K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a may have under various constructions in relation to executive branch officers and employees, confusion is the initial result of attempting to apply both statutes literally. However, if only K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a is construed as applicable to executive branch officers and employees, it becomes possible to reach a meaningful and reasonable result, i.e., such employees come within the prohibitions and the exceptions of that statute.

Finally, again, it is presumed that the legislature intends to change the law when it enacts an amendment. Consequently, the 2000 amendment to K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a must be considered to have been made deliberately and with the stated intention of covering all executive branch employees.

Conclusion:

Considering the statutory construction rule that an newer statute prevails over an older statute, the presumption that the legislature intended a change when it enacted the 2000 amendment to K.S.A. 46-237a, the legislative history of K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a and K.S.A. 46-236 (background, circumstances and purposes to be accomplished) and the difficulty or ease of construing K.S.A. 46-236 and/or K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a as applicable to executive branch officers and employees, the Commission reaches the following conclusion:

In state governmental ethics issues that pertain to the solicitation of any gift, economic opportunity, loan, gratuity, special discount or service provided because of such person's official position in the executive branch of state government, K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a is considered the applicable statute.

This conclusion enables the Commission to respond to the question posed: Under K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 46-237a, Kansas Department of Corrections Secretary Roberts, and other Department employees (as executive branch employees), may assist in the solicitation of donations for a nonprofit corporation recognized under § 501(c)(3) as a charitable nonprofit organization whose purpose is to fund and/or provide faith-based rehabilitation programs for inmates.

This conclusion pertains only to the following language in the 2nd paragraph of K.S.A. 46-236, subsection (3): "any solicitation for the benefit of any charitable organization which is required to file a registration statement with the secretary of state pursuant to K.S.A. 17-1761, and amendments thereto." The conclusion does not pertain to or affect the language in K.S.A. 46-236, such as the exception for campaign contributions.

Therefore, additional rulemaking proceedings are being initiated pursuant to K.S.A. 2010 Supp. 77-421(c). This serves as formal notice of the department's intent to adopt the proposed regulations as revised subsequent to the public hearing.

A public hearing will be conducted by the Department of Revenue at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 7, in the secretary's conference room, Room 230, Docking State Office Building, 915 S.W. Harrison, Topeka, to consider the adoption of alcoholic beverage control regulations. Copies of these proposed regulations may be found at www.ksrevenue.org.

This 30-day notice of the public hearing shall constitute a public comment period for the purpose of receiving written comments from the public on the proposed regulations. All interested parties may submit written public comments on the proposed regulations prior to the hearing to Kathleen Smith, Tax Specialist, Office of Policy and Research, Room 230, Docking State Office Building, 915 S.W. Harrison, Topeka, 66612, or through e-mail at kathleen.smith@kdor.ks.gov.

All interested parties will be given a reasonable opportunity to present their views, either orally or in writing or both, concerning the adoption of the proposed regulations. In order to give all parties an opportunity to present their views, it may be necessary to request that each participant limit any oral presentation to five minutes.

Any individual with a disability may request accommodation in order to participate in the public hearing and may request the proposed regulations and economic impact statements in an accessible format. Requests for accommodation should be made at least five working days in advance of the hearing by contacting Kathleen Smith at (785) 296-3081 or TTY (785) 296-6461. Disabled parking is located in State Parking Lot No. 2, south of the Docking Building facing Harrison Street. The east entrance to the Docking Building is accessible.

These regulations are proposed for adoption on a permanent basis. A summary of the proposed regulations and the economic impact follows:

Article 10.—TRADE PRACTICES

Amendments to K.A.R. 14-10-6. This amendment revises outdated language and clarifies the agency's position on the application of interpretive memoranda issued by the federal government concerning trade practices across the liquor industry.

Economic Impact: The Department of Revenue does not anticipate any impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals.

Amendments to K.A.R. 14-10-12. This regulation requires each liquor industry member to maintain records of all equipment, services, supplies and advertising products the industry member provides to a retailer, club, drinking establishment or caterer. The records must contain certain information and be retained by the industry member for a period of three years.

Economic Impact: The Department of Revenue does not anticipate any impact on the department or other government agencies.

Amendments to K.A.R. 14-10-16. This amendment authorizes an industry member to retrieve damaged liquor containers from a retailer and exchange the damaged liquor for undamaged product.

Economic Impact: The Department of Revenue does not anticipate any impact on the department, other government agencies, or private businesses or individuals.

Adoption of K.A.R. 14-10-17. Trade practices. This new regulation adopts many of the trade practice regulations promulgated by the federal Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) as the trade practice regulations of Kansas.

Economic Impact: The Department of Revenue does not anticipate any impact on the department or other government agencies. Industry members may see cost savings due to streamlined practices since they now have only one rule to follow on many issues.

Adoption of K.A.R. 14-10-18. Repurchase by distributor; when allowed. This new regulation authorizes a distributor to buy back alcoholic liquor when required by the supplier, when that brand of liquor is being closed out, when the licensee to whom the liquor was sold quits business, when beer is close to its expiration date, when the product is damaged or when cereal malt beverage was not used for a temporary event. The regulation specifies that a product may not be returned simply because it is overstocked or slow-moving.

Economic Impact: The Department of Revenue does not anticipate any impact on the department or other government agencies. Industry members may incur minimal costs through the return of these products.

A copy of the regulations and the economic impact statement may be obtained from the Kansas Department of Revenue's Office of Policy and Research at the contact information above or from the department's website at www.ksrevenue.org.
